SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

A purely vegetable distillation entirely unlike all other remedies.

In the preparation of this remarkable remedy every particle, and bark is subjected to distillation, whereby the essential medical principle contained in vapor, condensed and bottled. What remains in the still is inert, valueless, and totally unfit for use in an organism so delicate as the human system. Yet all subtle and insoluble compounds of woody fibre, all tinctures, saturated solutions, has local and constitutional remedy, and is applied to the nasal passages by inhalation, thus allaying inflammation, and at once destroying the fetor, cleansing, and purifying the secretions. Internally administered, it acts upon the organs of circulation, keeps the skin moist, and neutralizes the acid poison that has found its way into the stomach and hence into the blood. Thus secure progression in both directions, and it does not seem possible that human ingenuity can devise a more rational treatment.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE

SURPRISING CURE.

Gentlemen,—About twelve years ago, while travelling with Father Kemp's Old Psalm Concert Troupe as a tenor singer, I took a severe cold and was laid up at Ogden, U. T., for two weeks with a severe attack of Catarrh, which I battled with every known remedy for four weeks without avail, and was finally obliged to give up a most desirable position and return home unable to sing a note. For three years afterwards I was unable to sing at all. The first attack of Catarrh had left my nasal organs and throat in a terribly diseased condition, and the second attack, coming on the top of the first, would bring on a fever and nearly strangle me. The second time I ever had, was terrible. I suffered the most excruciating pain in my head, was nearly deaf, and almost blind. I would relate my symptoms, if I thought it would help some poor unfortunate sufferer, but I will simply recommend what would relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, very reluctantly, I confess, as I had tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. The freedom of this wonderful medicine gave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for me to describe my sudden cure, who can scarcely articulate distinctly on account of my nasal organs being so filled and broad, so realize how much relief I obtained from the first application of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Its influence was so natural and extended, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been entirely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.

Respectfully yours,
GEO. W. HOLBROOK.

WALTHAM, MASS., Jan. 8, 1876.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FOR WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN.

Jane Business.

NEW YORK, 19.—The Public says: The exchange at 19 clearing houses for the second week in June is a little larger than those for the first week, and compare much more satisfactory with the returns of the corresponding week of last year.

Brutal Attack.

MIDDLETON, N. Y., 19.—At Yagerville, Ulster county, yesterday morning, Frederick Kimble entered his son Richard's room and attacked the latter's wife in bed, with a small axe, inflicting three frightful and fatal gashes on the head. The husband was awakened by the first blow and fired his revolver. The second shot struck the father in the face. The cause of the assault was the father's dislike to the son's wife.

Indian Excitement.

MADISON, Wis., 19.—Gov. Smith has advices from Burnett county, stating that considerable alarm exists in that section because the Chippewa Indians of Wisconsin and Minnesota are believed to have formed a compact with the Sioux, and a general rising is looked for. The Indians have stopped their hunting and are roaming over the country and changing visits with Sioux tribes. The people, fearing for their lives, urge the governor to remove, by force, to their reservations all Indians in that section. The governor has forwarded the facts to General Sheridan and asked for protection.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 19.—There is very little doing in Wool; buyers continue quite indifferent, and from present indications the new crop will pass very slowly into the hands of dealers and manufacturers. The woolen goods market is in such an unsatisfactory state that manufacturers had no courage to buy wool to any extent ahead. Sales comprise Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces at 34 @ 36 for X and XX. Michigan, New York and Wisconsin fleeces at 30 @ 35, and superfine and X pulled at 30 @ 40. Combing wools are quiet, and prices nominal. The new Kentucky combing on the market is still held above the prices of buyers. Spring California is in fair demand at 20 @ 28, mostly 22 @ 26, and Bait at 18 @ 20.

Sale of Short Horns.

LEXINGTON, 19.—A large sale of short horns took place in Clark County, to-day, the property of R. M. Groom. One hundred and thirty head realised over $60,000. The prices were good, ranging as high as $2,800.

Republican Convention.

DES MOINES, Ia., 19.—The republican convention met this morning. Hon. James Harlan was elected temporary chairman, and made a brief speech. He declared that the principles of the republican party were to be reiterated until they became household words. His declaration that the convention should declare its approval of the acts of Union soldiers and its disapproval of those of rebels, was greeted with hearty applause. He strongly urged the necessity of careful action and appealed for unity on essential matters and wisdom on all others.

Valley Forge Centennial Anniversary.

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., 19.—The centennial anniversary of the evacuation of this place by the continental army was held to-day, under circumstances of unusual display and in presence of 30,000 people.

At daylight cannon were fired and bells rung throughout Schuylkill valley.

At sunrise there was a salute of 13 guns, and at 8 35 Gov. Hartranft and Adjutant General Latta, accompanied by General Winfield L. Hancock and other distinguished gentlemen, arrived, and were received by the military.

At 9 o'clock the memorial service procession was formed at the military headquarters. The graves of the continental and federal soldiers were decorated. Appropriate services were held, and the procession moved over the entrenchments, which have remained since the occupation of the place by the continental army, and over historic ground, which was strewn with flowers by the ladies. A grand chorus of 300 voices rendered an anthem, and then Gen. Hancock and Gov. Hartranft reviewed the military, 2,000 in number.

Will be Enforced.

WASHINGTON, 19. — Secretary McCreery will issue an order to the army citing the section of the army bill which prohibits that branch of the service from being used as posse commitatus in any of the States, and directing its enforcement in future.

Dangerous Situation.

OMAHA, 19. — Much anxiety is felt here concerning the safety of the U. P. shops and the Omaha Smelting works, now endangered by unprecedented high water. The situation as regards the industries on the river bottom here is very perilous.

WESTERN.

The Indian Uprising — Troops in Pursuit of the Hostiles.

SAN FRANCISCO, 19.—A Silver City dispatch says: A body supposed to be that of Captain John White, of Bruneau, was found near McDevitt's ferry, Lower Boise, killed by Indians. There is great excitement in Powder River Valley. The settlers have all left their homes and are fleeing to towns for safety.

A Silver City dispatch says: A messenger from the vicinity of Camp Harney reports serious Indian depredations. A party, under Egan, have burned Diamond Ranche, in Happy Valley, near Stein's Mountain. The Indians have captured over 400 horses. Thirty soldiers of the First Cavalry have gone there to render assistance; troops and supplies are greatly needed.

French and Robie, with their employees, have been driven from Stein's Mountain. They report the mountains full of Indians; they also report all their stock killed or driven off, and two men shot.

The latest from Colonel Bernard's command states that he has a howitzer and three companies of cavalry, and will be reinforced by McGregor before reaching Camp Harney. They are in hot pursuit of the Bannocks. General Howard sent Grover and three companies of cavalry to Gid's Ferry to prevent the Bannocks going north.

Canyon City and vicinity are being raided by the Indians. A number of whites have been killed.

Australian Items.

News per the City of New York, says the unemployed working men of Melbourne held a large meeting on May 20th. Temporary employment on public works was promised.

The revenue of New South Wales exceeds all estimates.

The Council has rejected the parliamentary privileges bill.

The Sidney exhibition was a failure.

The New Guinea expedition is succeeding beyond expectation.

It has been resolved to fortify four principal ports of New Zealand, the colonists undertaking the cost.

A disastrous flood occurred at Coromandel, with great destruction to property. The mines, batteries, roads, water races and tramways suffered considerably. Bridges were carried away, and the roads and tracks blocked up by land slips in every direction.

The renowned native chief, Hapuku, is dead.

The Maori King and his counsellors are becoming reconciled to Europeans.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Progress of the Congress.

LONDON, 19.—Accounts of yesterday's sittings of the congress are exceedingly conflicting. The most circumstantial and apparently trustworthy accounts allege that the Bulgarian question was not touched upon. Anyhow it is certain that nothing was decided. The private negotiations on the Bulgarian question continue. There seems to be considerable difference thereon.

It is stated that England wishes the Turks to have power to garrison and fortify the Balkan passes so as to guard the frontier between northern and southern Bulgaria. Russia's resistance to this plan confirms the apprehensions that if it is finally rejected the idea of uniting Bulgaria with the Turkish garrisons near the Danube and Russian civil administrators will be removed.

Russia and Austria, in private consultations, are hotly discussing the question of including Sophia in Bulgaria.

Russia and Roumania—The Bulgarian Question.

The situation in the Russian and Roumanian armies is a miniature copy of that existing about Constantinople. The Roumanian government is certainly not disposed to quarrel with Russia, but the feeling between the officers and men of the respective armies is so strongly antagonistic that the proximity of the two lines renders the unfortunate complications possible.

The Turkish Bashi Bazouks who attacked the Montenegrins at Kraina, were Roman Catholic Albanians, wishing for embodiment with Austria, and adopting the forcible means of raid to acquaint the congress of their desire.

The North German Gazette says: "When the Bulgarian question is settled, the proposed retrocession of Bessarabia will probably form the subject of a searching consideration. Russia will not recognize Roumania's right of appeal to the treaty of Paris as Roumania was not a party thereto. Roumania must consider whether she had better yield to the wishes of Russia or retain Bessarabia, and be constantly exposed to the claims of her powerful neighbor, from whom Bessarabia was certainly once wrested."
