SALT LAKERS AND TONIGHT'S BATTLE

Not Much Local Money up on the Result.

WILLARD BEAN'S FORECAST

Fitzsimmons is the Almost Universal Favorite for Championship Honors Tonight, Over Jeffries.

Bob Fitzsimmons will demonstrate tonight whether he is still the first pugilist in the world, for he will meet the only heavy-weight who has never been defeated, Jeffries having defeated Sharkey, who beat Corbett, McCoy and Goddie, leaves the best among the big men today, but Sharkey would feel sure before then Jeffries in a fight with Fitz. Jeffries beat Sharkey fairly, however, but he surely demonstrated that Sharkey could do nothing to him and that he himself would only outpoint Sharkey and not hurt him. Jeffries will have to do more work to get the decision over Fitz, who is heavier than Sharkey and more tricky.

Local interest in the fight ran high yesterday and today, but apparently little money has been put up on the contest tickets, the local sports were not inclined to bet on the object of their choice. "Doc" Eddy, however, ventured to back Jeffries to the extent of $5 against $6 on Jeffries.

The fight tonight at Coney Coniseum seems to be the best Lake friends and those with whom it is popular to bet, are those in favor of Fitz on the theory of evening up. There is some talk of a syndicate of backers, who will bet $1,000 to $800 on the Australian.

Those who are placing their faith and money on Jeffries' success seem to explain why he is held so cheaply with the betting. In the first place, the fact in beating both Tom Sharkey and Tibo Jackson so easily he showed at least he was entitled to the championship.

The telegraph wire, that has kept running the Utah exchange room, is under the control of Dr. Salt may be described by sounds, will be a drawing card this evening, as everyone who is interested in the coming fight will be on hand to learn the price will undoubtedly be on hand.

Jim Williams, who was today, did not care to bear as a pocket regarding the outcome of the local twelve rounder although he thinks that the chances are all for Fitz, when his past record, experience and gameness are taken into account.

Out at Lagoon last evening Willard Bean, accordingly, heard with the Fitzsimmons' star that caused his boast as he said: "Yes, I have not Jeffries at his back, but he was in sufficient to be a big good-natured fellow who apparently never loses his temper. He is a hard, powerful man, however, a fighter, especially this one. Fitz has the experience of the coming fight. He is a dark horse, no doubt, if the fight doesn't last ten rounds, Jeffries is all probability by will win. If it goes over that number of rounds Fitz will have the best. Such went on to describe the big fighter's style of fighting, his method coinciding with that already published in these columns.

There have been numerous enquiries regarding the comparative ring records of the two men who will battle for the championship belt tonight. They are as follows:

Harry Hyatt of Cheyenne has sent $1,000 to the Post to be placed on Fitzsimmons at the prevailing odds. Hyatt has always been a heavy lucky bettor, and showed his nerve in Fitz when he bet on him against Corbett two years ago. If there is any Jeffries money in sight it can be covered by applying to the sporting editor of the Post.—Denver Post.

* * *

The reported commission of $40,000 which Harry Corbett is said to have sent east from San Francisco to bet on Jeffries did not materialize, and the gambler's address should be ex-mayor. There is no doubt that when it does arrive it will have some effect in curtailing Fitzsimmons' odds.—Spokane Spokesman.

Pa—"Well, if he was he was foolish, for didn't have his wife with him."

Billy—"I'd prefer good clothes maybe, for you can get treated for a wheel, but having a new school won't help you out any on clothes."

HIGH SCHOOL BEATS ACADEMY.

Weber Stake Institution Puts up a Good Game Nevertheless.

SALT LAKE TEAM DEFUNCT.

Tobean Threatened With a Policeman Club Shot Out at Brooklyn—Senators Win From Orphans.

The Lagoon diamond is coming to the front. Yesterday afternoon the High School team defeated the Weber Stake Academy team of Ogden on the ghost ground by the score of 9-2. The game was witnessed by some 300 enthusiasts who were entertained by the presence of the Weber Stake Academy brass band, which is composed of musicians selected from the school. The success of the High School team and their decisions were generally fair. Everett Smith and Russell were the battery for the high school, while Shurtliff and Craft did the heavy work for the Ogden boys.

The game, in its early stages was exceedingly slow and scrubby but perceptible. Until the opening of the fourth inning not a single run was scored, although the Academy boys succeeded in getting their men around the bases. Their first run was scored in the fourth inning, when Craft reached first on Russell's error, stole second, reached third on Shurtliff's out and scored on Bell's out to Russell. Craft was responsible for the second run, which he scored in the fifth inning after he had reached first on Russell's error, stolen second, reached third on Smith's out and scored on Bell's out to Russell.

The pitchers on both sides were practically invincible, the batters were not hit once, in the eighth and ninth innings being in order, the latter half of the 8th. Craft was responsible for the first hit, although the Weber's tried their best to get a hit, no one they had to their credit in the scorebook.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The long-expected event has happened. Yesterday afternoon the Salt Lakes drew in last fourth and sixth, and now they occupy the position of Butte, Hughes and Cheyenne of the original nine, to weather the storm. It happened in this wise. As is well known, nearly all of the team are in partnership and have been without employment since their arrival here; they have felt that they could not live by baseball alone, consequently have been industriously endeavoring to get out of the Pacific league. Last week they sent Mr. Rankenour of the Logan had to Ogden to see if a satisfactory agreement for their release could be made. The more our fans talk to place the boys in positions at the resort and at the same time have the players keeping their salary and giving them a chance at the winning team's gate percentage. The Salt Lakes stood on the other of going, but all are now themselves in their endeavors to enlist.

The new team will be known as the "Lagoons" and will play their first game against the Ogdens at the Point on Sunday, when the one on will be: McCormick, p; Haynes, p. Kimball, c; Bell, 1-b; Hogan, 2-b; Holmes, s. s.; Martin, 3-d b.; Bonner, l. f.; Hopkins, c. f.; Vasey, r. f.

* * *

It is the intention of Mr Rankenour to have a first class baseball grandstand at the Lagoon, the present one to serve as consolation with a "down" seat, so that the best seats can be had. It is proposed to play every Sunday here, and consideration of games in the State. The diamond will be the finest in the State, with a grand stand with a 1,000 seating capacity and bleachers that will hold an equal number. There is no extra expense connected to the Lagoon Diamond that will be restricted to all classes of games and the price of admission will be 25 cents for all.

Another business firm has succumbed to an attack of ball fever. The Hendrie-Whitmore Co., the "Utah Soda Fountain" people, have organized a team for a game next Sunday, at Calder's park.

* * *

The Los Angeles Western team has elected H. L. Carpenter as permanent manager, W. H. Dickerson secretary and treasurer, and Will D. McKellar captain. The H. D. W's are now in regular and will soon be able to engage in a game. All communications regarding matches should be addressed to Mr. Carpenter who is located in the Doty block.

IN THE EAST.

Six Good Games Played in a Finish in National League.

Brooklyn has established a lead of five games that will be hard to pull down. Yesterday Hughes was batted out, St. Louis still continues to lose, their pitchers are all unreliable, Philadelphia succeeded in their game being beaten 10 per cent by the Quakers. It took 10 innings at Washington to decide the game between the home team and Chicago, finally the Orphans were defeated by Callahan. Powell pitched and won his first full game for the Orioles against Pittsburg. At Boston it rained, postponing for the afternoon to enjoy Louisville.

In Cleary and Easter the Brooklyn team has the two smallest players in the league. They follow each other in batting order.

* * *

President Byron Bancroft, of the unlucky Colonels, is surely an optimist. He still thinks his team will finish in the first division.

* * *

Charley Dexter's frequent repulses against the waiver evil perhaps is trying to excel Dahlen's unenviable record of last year.

* * *

Pitcher Woodworth and First Baseman Paine have been released off the Cleveland team for lengthy lockers of neglect of their duties.

Both sides had a lead of one run and in the sixth St. Louis, with two singles, a double and a base on balls, secured the run to be good. It was raining heavily at the time and Capt. Dunn waited until the rain had ceased before calling the game. He allowed to Tebeau and O'Connor and called a game. Dowse and Donahue were the batteries for the home team. Delahanty went out to left field for Cook's regret not a single, for the fourth inning. Dowse managed the home team and Tebeau the visitors. Attendance, 1,000.
