KANAB, Nov. 4, 1878.

Bros. Hubert Burke and Warren R.
Tenney and son have been with us to-day and labored efficiently in chopping down trees and moving others.

October 25th, passed through the cedars are in a tank about 50 yards above where we entered the wash, which we named Burk's Tanks; watered our animals during which time one of Bro. Noble's mules got afraid, missed the band and took the back track; one of the brethien followed track; one of the brethien followed some four miles, but returned without the mule, which we concluded would go to Pleasant Valley, so we drove three miles and nooned. After lunch, Bros. Burke and Tenney and son returned, we taking the direction for the river; in half a mile we crossed the Beal road, where Bro. Let Smith parted with us, he going to Sunset. We then pass over a flat two and a half miles to divide, and follow down an open divide, and follow down an open glade between two ridges of lava to the head of the Grand Falls of the little Colorado River, 10 miles, and camped, making the distance from Pleasant Valley 45 miles. The opening of this road will be of great benefit to the Saints at Moyncoppy, to obtain lumber at the saw mill, cutting off over 40 miles; also to those traveling to Southern Arito those traveling to Southern Ari-Ogtober 26th and 27th, -We crossed the river at a good ford and tra-

October 30th.—Brove to Lee's Ferry, on the Colorado; crossed in safety, making two trips, and camped near Sister Lee's house. Before ascending the mountains on rast side of the river, while the teams went on, President Snow, Hinekley and Nuttail walked to the bank of the river and examined as to the feasibility of establishing a new ferry about a mile and a hall from the present one, and of making a road from the river, to avoid the crossing of this much-dreaded mountain, upon which we concluded a much better and safer road can be made, and with a suitble wire repe and new boat, which s much needed, for at least nine norths in the year, a safer and nuch less dreaded crossing of this iver and mountain can be had. river and mountain can be had.

Oct. 31.—Sister Lee provided surper last night and breakfast this morning for the party, which was much appreciated, and we drove 30 miles to camp near Jacob's Pools.

Nov. 1.—Drove 30 miles to camp on Buckskin Mountain. In the evening, around our camp fire, we held a meeting, and each one expressed his good feelings towards each member of cur little party, of our agreeable associations with each other, and well wishes for the future.

Nov. 2.—We drove is miles to Navajo Wells for breakfest. Here we made preparations for parting as Elders Smith, Hinkley, Stariey and Wileken would go north to their homes, by way of Johnson, and President Snow, Elders Nuttall, Oliphant and Noble to Kanab. At forks of road we parted blessing each other. President Snow and brethren arrived at Kanab at 4 p.m. all well in health and spirits. At 7 p.m. President Snow and Elder Nuttall attended a meeting of the priesthood of Kanab Stake, apinted for this day, and spoke to the brethren.
