Boom in Tabor.

Special Correspondence. Special Correspondence. Tabor, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 1.—This morning at 2 o'clock the L. D. S. Church was discovered on fire by James Shirts, who had just arrived on the trails from Lethbridge. He quickly reached the burn-ing building, and gave the alarm, but too late to save anything excepting the front door, which was wrenched from its fast-enings, and most of the benches. The Sunday school, Young Ladies' and Young Men's libraries were burned, also the total loss was $5,000, with no insur-ance.

The total loss was $3,000, with no highly ance. The primary sociable had adojurned from the church at 12 o'clock midnight, and it is said that a candle nad been left burning causing the fire. No blame is yet attached to anyone. The sentiment here is to erect a larger and better edifice; perhaps of stone, of which Tabor has a vast supply of the very best and casy of access. The large bank building is being constructed of rock from the local quary. The Douglas Banking company is pushing the building, having a large force of mechanics engaged. It is estimated that something like 50,000 bushels of excellent wheat was Lehi, Utah Co., Nov. 2 .- One of the biggest deals that have occurred in Lehi biggest deals that have occurred in Lehi for many years took place today when Hammer brothers sold their real estate on Main street—on which is situated their livery barns, home, and lodging buildings—and their livery business, to Charles Herrin, a wealthy sheep and mining man. There is every probability that Mr. Herrin, who will move here, in addition to running the livery business 50,000 bushels of excellent wheat was raised on the Lecan ridge this year by dry farming. A large quantity has also been grown in Dog valley, west of Nephi. The steam plows, both south of Nephi and in Dog valley, are turning over a great deal of land. Many acres of grain is being sown and some is al-ready up. addition to running the livery business, will build a large hotel on that corner, which will mean a great deal to Lehi, as that is the one thing most needed Much grain has yet to be threshed.
