BIG SHOWS AT OGDEN TONIGHT.

Tomorrow Provo Will See the Great Traveling Spectacle and Salt Lake Will Do So on Wednesday.

The Ringling Shows are in Ogden tonight. Tomorrow they will be at Provo and Wednesday will come on to Salt Lake, from where a jump will be made to Logan and other points farther north. In Salt Lake there will be two performances, 2 and 8 p. m.

The long trains, carrying the many kinds of wild animals, the radiant floats, the 40 elephants, the 2 giraffes, rhinoceros, baby elephants and other things of curiosity, splendor and value, will arrive early Wednesday morning.

Perhaps no circus has ever visited Salt Lake City with more pleasing effect than Ringling Brothers'. It now requires 35 cars to convey it from town to town. An army of people are employed and hundreds of horses are used. There are 198 cages in the menagerie, which is the most valuable and extensive collection of wild animals in this country.

Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. the street parade, which with Ringling Bros. is a memorable feature, will start from the show grounds and go over the principal streets. The display is large and impressive, besides a great investment of money, an excellent idea of the growth and resources of the city.

For a dramatic spectacle this year they present "Jerusalem and the Crucifixion." Stage scenery and lights are used in this production in which 1,200 characters are employed and 2,000 costumes worn. Among these are the four Elders of England and four Rebels of Italy, bare back riders of European fame.

The seven Glenside girls of Germany head the acrobatic list, and perform amazing feats. The Glenside girls of whirlwind dancers head the vaudeville novelties, which include the famous Kaufman family of bicyclists.
The "Leaping Cat" is the ultra sensational feature which every big circus nowadays offers. "Crazy who makes his daring leap of 32 feet astride his wheel, is an American, and his correct name is Walter Love. The menagerie is the most valuable and extensive in America. Both admission and reserved seat tickets will be on sale at Smith's drug store Wednesday for the same prices charged at the wagon on the show grounds.

Ladies' free Saltair Monday, 30 trains.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.

Conditions Were Never Better Than They Are Today.

Health conditions in Salt Lake were never better than they are today. This much is reflected in the weekly report just issued, which shows that during the week there was but one case of scarlet fever and two cases of tuberculosis reported. Not a single case of smallpox, scarlet fever or diphtheria developed, and there is but one each in quarantine, making a most excellent record and one that has not been surpassed in this city for years. There were 40 births during the week, 19 males and 21 females, while for the same period there were 18 deaths, 11 males and 7 females.

WILLIAM OF ORANGE.

Hero and Martyr Eulogized by Rev.
T. W. Pinkerton.

Rev. Dr. T. W. Pinkerton preached on William, Prince of Orange, last evening. In the course of his remarks he said: "As Americans we are particularly interested in the life of William of Orange, who was called the "Father of our country" there and in some ways might be justly called the father of our own country. For much that is truly noble in our country's history we are indebted to him and those who labored with him. These men kept the United States from being what Mexico and the republics of South America are. No one can understand the struggle between Philip and the people of Holland or appreciate the grandeur of that cause of which William of Orange was the hero and martyr, unless he knows something of the question. It was this that developed his character and made him the most prominent character of northern Europe for many years."

WILL HOLD PAY BACK.

Principals and Teachers Must Finish Work Before Getting It.

At the meeting of the trustees of the county schools Saturday afternoon in County Superintendent Ashton's office, it was decided that hereafter the principals and teachers will not be paid their last month's salaries until they complete their text-book accounts and their annual statistical reports.
It was agreed by all the trustees to purchase the Illinois School News and Our Times for the various schools so as to cultivate the reading habit among the pupils. Superintendent Ashton, at the close of the meeting, urged that the trustees send in their order for books early enough to avoid the rush and to secure books in plenty of time for the opening of the schools.

TWO PERSONS DROWNED.

Salt Lake Boy Narrowly Escapes Perishing With Them.

Reports from Boulder, Colo., tell of a terrific rainstorm in the mountains near Sugar Loaf, six miles from there, last Friday afternoon, in which two persons lost their lives and one, Roy Hart, a 12-year-old lad said to live in Salt Lake, narrowly escaped perishing with them. The drowned were Mrs. Lina Chambers of York, Neb., and Miss Mary Renkes, a 12-year-old girl of Boulder.

It appears that when the storm began the parties sought shelter in a tent, but immediately thereafter a cloudburst which filled the narrow valley with water and swept everything be-included. Mrs. Chambers and Miss Renkes were soon lost in the flood, but young Hart kept afloat and finally landed on some island, where he remained until rescued by a party consisting of H. S. Stross, superintendent of the Lake Shore railroad; W. C.

Brown, third vice president of the New York Central; Morris J. Jones of Boulder, J. H. Lynch of Denver, and others.
He was almost exhausted, but soon recovered. The boy and his brother had been on the island, where the menagerie and Miss Renkes were relatives with whom they were visiting the country in the vicinity of Boulder.

BUNCH TOGETHER

Coffee Has a Curious Way of Finishing Some Orgs.

Alls that come from coffee are cumulative, that is, unless the coffee is taken away new troubles are continually appearing and the old ones get worse.
"To begin with," says a Kansas man, "I was a slave to coffee just as thousands of others today; thought I could not live without drinking strong coffee every morning for breakfast and I had sick headaches that kept me in bed several days every month. Could hardly keep my food on my stomach but would vomit as long as I could throw anything up and when I could get hot coffee to stay on my stomach I thought I was better."
"Well, two years ago this Spring I was that sick with rheumatism I could not use my right arm to do anything had heart trouble, was nervous, my nerves were all unstrung and my finger nails and tips were blue as if I had a chill all the time and my face and hands yellow as a pumpkin. My doctor said it was heart disease and rheumatism and my neighbors said I had Bright's Disease and was going to die."

"Well, I did not know what on earth was the matter and every morning would drag myself out of bed and go to breakfast, not to eat anything but to force down some more coffee. Then in a little while I would be so nervous, my heart would beat like everything."
"Finally one morning I told my husband I believed coffee was the cause of this trouble and that I thought I would try Postum which I had seen advertised. He said, 'All right,' so we got Postum and although I did not like it at first I got right down to business and made it according to directions then it was fine and the whole family got to using it and I tell you it has worked wonders for me. Thanks to Postum in place of the poison, coffee, I now enjoy good health, have not been in bed with sick headache for two years although I had it for 30 years before I began Postum and my nerves are now strong and I have no trouble from my heart or from the rheumatism."
"I consider Postum a necessary article of food on my table. My friends who come here and taste my Postum say it is delicious." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

and it will not cost him a cent for that to a May sale."

Organized labor held the fort at Calder's park on Saturday, where a great picnic and celebration was the order of the day. In the afternoon there were various games and contests held.
The horse races advertised dwindled down to one trotting race wherein Loretta B., owned by C. E. Bennett, and George M., owned by Al Pendleton, tried conclusions. The first named won after a close race in 2:30. The athletic contests took place on the track.
The fifty yard dash for boys under ten years of age was won by Peter Mackie.
The race for boys over fourteen years of age was won by Milton Shumway.
The fifty yard dash for girls under fourteen years of age was won by Vera Wardrop, and the race for girls under eighteen years of age was a dead heat between Lella Tuckfield and Nellie Brown. The prizes for these races was $1. The fat men's race for 100 yards was won by Deputy Sheriff H. A. Kirk.

The 100 yard dash, open to men only, was won by Joseph Brown of the Cooks and Walters' union. The prize was $2.50.

WHOLE WORLD AT ITS BEST

All Mirrored in Our Splendid Series Of World's Fair Art
Portfolios.

That the World's Fair is still incredible to the country at large is not surprising, for there is no way of using words to make it credible; to enable the country to realize what it is. If the buildings were empty, if their doors were closed, if they with their sculptural decorations and the statuary that surrounds them were the only attraction—the only object lesson—it would be enough of itself, to command and hold attention, not only for this year, but for as many years as such a spectacle could last.

It was said by a prominent artist that the sculpture which decorates the buildings and the statuary which adorns the grounds are better worth seeing as they stand in plaster, than any other collection of sculpture in the world.
If all this be true, and there is abundant testimony that such is the case, essential it is to education and advancement to secure a permanent record of this great event; such a one as is afforded in our magnificent series of World's Fair Art Portfolios, which are offered to our readers on merely nominal terms.
Although the regular price of each of these art albums is 25 cents, our readers secure them for only 10 cents each.
Thousands upon thousands of newspaper readers all over the country are availing themselves of this opportunity and placing in their homes a souvenir and record of the Fair, which will recall its glories after the magnificent buildings are leveled to the earth.
