

the people of the United States the death of Vice President Wilson, who died in the capital of the nation this morning. His eminent station, his high character, long career in the service of the State and of the United States, his devotion to the cause of freedom, and the ability he brought to the discharge of every duty, stand conspicuous, and are indelibly impressed on the hearts and affections of the American people. In testimony of respect for a distinguished citizen and faithful public servant, the various departments of the government will be closed on the day of the funeral, and the Executive Mansion and all executive departments in Washington will be draped with the badge of mourning for thirty days. The Secretaries of War and the Navy will issue an order that appropriate military and naval honors be rendered to the memory of one whose virtues and services will be long borne in recollection by a grateful nation.

"U. S. GRANT.

"By the President,

"HAMILTON FISH,
"Secretary of State."

The result of the proceedings at Senate wing of the capitol was a committee to make arrangements for the funeral was appointed, as follows—Senators Boutwell, Sherman, of Ohio, Morrill, of Vt., the Secretary of State, Associate Justice Clifford, Representative Garfield Warren, of Mass., Randall, of Pa., Commissioner Dennison, representing the District of Columbia.

The committee subsequently met and adjourned to meet at the State Department to-morrow, to await the arrival of Senator Boutwell, and consultation with the authorities of Massachusetts.

The embalmed remains of Mr. Wilson were laid in state in the Vice President's room on a catafalque, which occupies a place where the writing table stood, at which he did all his work. The body in a dress suit of black broadcloth, faces Rembrandt Peal's portrait of Washington, and beside it are wreaths of roses, japonica, callas, white pinks, and heliotropes from the wife of the President, and a cross of white flowers from General Babcock. The room is guarded by a detail of the capitol police.

Sergeant-at-arms French has received telegrams announcing that Gen. Cunningham, of the staff of Governor of Massachusetts, and Dunn and Turner representing the Boston council, start for Washington to-night, and that Mr. Boutwell starts to-morrow.

The funeral is not yet set. It is the desire of some friends to defer it till Congress assembles, but the question will probably be determined by his nephew and executor, W. L. Coolidge, of Natick, who is yet to be heard from.

The President called this p. m., but as the process of embalming was in process he retired without seeing the remains.

The Massachusetts State Republican Association in this city held a meeting at which eulogies were pronounced and resolutions adopted commemorative of Mr. Wilson's life and character.

The following is a synopsis of the result of the post mortem examination. It began at 11.35 a. m., four hours after his death. Thermometer 62. External appearance, nothing unusual. The brain weighed 49 ounces. The texture of the brain was full of black fluid blood; deposit of lymph on the surface of the cerebral hemisphere; consistence and color of brain normal; cyst the size of a pea in last chroplexus; atheromatous deposit in arteries at base of brain and in anterior and middle cerebral arteries; spinal cord not being abnormal in color or consistence; a microscopical examination made of the lungs disclosed old pleuritic adhesions on the left side. There was a cancerous deposit the size of a pea on the middle lobe of the right lung; lungs congested; heart normal, except calcareous deposit in aortic valve; liver congested. Cause of death, apoplexy.

The funeral of the late Vice President will probably take place on Wednesday.

The Supreme Court of the United States will not transact any business this week, owing to the interruption by the death of the Vice President, and the observance of thanksgiving.

The following dispatch was received by the President from Hon. T. W. Ferry, Prest. pro tem of the Senate—

"GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.

"To the President of the U. S.

"I received, with profound sorrow, the information of the death of Vice-President Wilson, and share with you in this great loss to the country, and mourn with his personal friends.

"T. W. FERRY."

In compliance with the order of the President, that appropriate military and naval honors be rendered to the memory of Vice-President Wilson the following order was issued by the Secretary of War this p. m.—

"On the day succeeding the receipt of this order at each military post, the troops will be paraded at ten o'clock a. m., and the order read to them; the national flag will be displayed at half staff; at dawn of day, thirteen guns will be fired; commencing 12 m., nineteen minute guns will be fired; and at the close of the day a national salute of thirty seven guns. The usual badge of mourning will be worn by the officers of the army and the colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning for a period of three months."

An appropriate order will be issued by the Secretary of the Navy to-morrow.

The senators held a meeting to-day and appointed Senators Windom, Eaton, of Connecticut, Sargent of California, and Kelly of Oregon to attend the funeral of the late Senator Ferry of Connecticut. These gentlemen have power to add to the committee.

General Ord, in command of the Department of Texas, in his annual report, gives a long account of the border operations of the Mexican bandits, most of which has been anticipated by the press publications. The report closes with these significant suggestions—

"More effective means must be adopted than sending troops to look on, while our people are being despoiled and murdered, for it is evident that the soldiers, however willing, can do nothing if confined to this side of the river, and an order to make reprisals, with means to carry out the order, has sometimes resulted in indemnity, as well as security."

The annual report of General Sherman, after stating the geographical limits of the various commands says the aggregate strength of the line of the army, according to the last reports, is 1,540 officers, and 24,031 enlisted men, made up as follows—5 regiments artillery, 780 officers, 2,504 men; 10 regiments cavalry, 422 officers, 7,206 men; 25 regiments infantry, 848 officers, 11,000 men; available recruits, hospital stewards, ordnance sergeants, etc., 3,321.

During the past winter the troops in the department of Missouri and Texas were employed in arduous and severe winter campaigns against the Kiowa, Cheyenne, and Comanche Indians, on the border Staked Plains, that for years had been engaged in depredations on the Kansas and Texas frontier, resulting in their subjection. If the military commanders can have control of the supplies needed by these Indians as they now have over their persons, I am convinced, by a recent visit, that a condition of peace can be maintained. The Sioux recently made incursions into northern Nebraska, mostly to steal cattle and horses along the Pacific Ry. and north of it. Genl. Crook is of opinion that the whole army, acting defensively, cannot prevent these incursions, and suggests that troops be stationed in the midst of the Indians, so as to watch them, and prevent their leaving on pretense of hunting. This is impracticable, unless the army have the supervision of the necessary supplies of these tribes within the reservation, which now is not the case. The damage to life and property is believed to be less during the past year than in any former year, and the prospect is that as the country settles it will be less each year, till all Indians are on small reservations. But till they acquire habits of industry, in farming or stock raising, they will need food from the government, because they game on which they have subsisted has diminished rapidly.

PHILADELPHIA, 22.—The council was in session when the news of the death of the Vice President was received. Appropriate resolutions were adopted, and the use of Independence Hall was offered for the reception of the body on its way to Massachusetts.

TORONTO, 22.—John Brown, colored, was arrested for grossly assaulting a highly respectable young lady. He knocked out her teeth and filled her mouth and eyes with dirt. A band of disguised men took him from the sheriff and hanged him.

THREE RIVERS, Quebec, 22.—The bark British Queen, from Montreal for England, and several schooners, loaded with flour, have gone into winter quarters here, there being too much ice in the river to proceed further this season.

MONTREAL, 22.—Yesterday the cures of the Roman Catholic churches in this city announced the receipt of a pastoral letter relative to the burial of Joseph Guibord in consecrated ground. The pastoral says—

"For we have truly declared, in virtue of the divine power we exercise in the name of the Pastor of Pastors, that the place where this rebellious son of the church has been deposited is separated from the rest of the consecrated cemetery, to be no longer more than a profane place, or ordinary piece of ground."

Mr. P. Ryan, produce merchant, has suspended; liabilities over $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—The president of the Jockey Club says the race will come off on Thanksgiving day, if the weather remains clear in the meantime and the horses are in condition. "Wild-Idle" has the epizootic, and it is feared others may be affected.

On the steamer Mikado, which arrived on Saturday, were Captain Graves, wife and five children, wrecked near Cape Horn, August 15th, and picked up after eighteen days' suffering in a boat, with five seamen, by the ship Syren, of Boston, for Honolulu. The long boat, containing nineteen officers and men, belonging to the same ship, had not been heard from since the abandonment of the vessel.

NEW YORK, 23.—The American Jockey Club is considering the feasibility of offering a grand centennial purse of from $15,000 to $30,000 for a great race to be run at Jerome Park next season, for if a large purse were offered it is thought that two or three English racers would be entered for the contest, which would be made open to all comers, with weight for age. The size of the purse will depend somewhat on the aid they may derive from hotels and railways. The purse will not at all events be made on the principle governing the California $30,000 purse, where the entrance fees of ten per cent. of the purse go into the hands of the managers; as there are nine entries in the pending California race, $27,000 of the purse is paid by the owners of the horses entered. The entrance money for the proposed centennial purse will be added to the stakes, even if the jockey club is obliged to make up the purse entirely.

Baltimore and Ohio railroad company has completed arrangements with a new foreign line of steamers to ply between Baltimore and Liverpool. The first vessel, will leave Glasgow in a few days. Each ship is to be of 2,300 tons capacity, and built expressly for carrying heavy cargoes of grain. The regular trips will be begun in the latter part of December.

Thursday next being Thanksgiving Day, the usual weekly sale of government gold will be made on Friday.

Brutal Assault.

SANDY STATION, Nov. 23.—Last night Jas. Carroll was apprehended in the act of committing a brutal assault upon Mrs. Rosengreen, living near this place. She is seriously injured, having been beaten in a terrible manner by Carroll in his infamous attempt upon her person, and it is questionable whether she survives. There is a great deal of excitement among the citizens of the town, and had it not been for the very zealous efforts of some law and order people Carroll would before this have met his just deserts, with the accompaniment of rope and telegraph pole. As it is, he has been sent to the county jail, to await the slower action of the county court.
