SOCIAL CHAT

The week has been a busy one, the many interesting weddings and other social events making it exceptionally lively. The ending of Lent will doubtless have its effect, which will show in the coming week, several events being already announced.

On Monday, Miss Grace Radcliffe was guest of honor at a linen shower given by Mrs. C. C. Slade and Miss Lillian M. Slade, the rooms being decorated in yellow tulips, and a guessing game enjoyed, in which prizes were won by Miss Radcliffe, Miss Gibbons and Miss Coalter. About 30 guests were present.

Miss Helen Buckingham entertained informally at cards on Tuesday.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Christensen gave a shower party in honor of Miss Ethel Snow, whose marriage to H. P. Irwin takes place today, the rooms being prettily decorated, and a most enjoyable evening spent.

Miss Mina Rogers entertained at a brace-a-brace shower this afternoon in honor of Miss Radcliffe.

Misses Naomi and Bessie Felt entertained on Monday night in honor of the Misses Helen and Emily Whitney and Messrs. W. J. Timpson and Winifred Farr Smith, the rooms being decorated in red, with hearts, flowers and ribbons making an effective picture. The names of the honored guests were formed in red letters across the walls, and a large red heart was placed between the portieres, which the guests tried to pierce with bows and arrows. Supper was served on small tables lighted with candles shaded in red, while the place cards were gilt bows and arrows. Assisting the hostesses were Misses Juliet Knowlton, Margaret Whitney and Georgia Felt.

The officers of the garrison at Fort Douglas will give a reception to the officers of the artillery who leave for Fort Russell, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. O. Cary will entertain her card club on Monday night, a few outside guests being also included.

The Misses Vivien and Katherine Little gave a pretty luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Josephine Wells, the table being decorated in pink and white, with roses for a centerpiece and lilies of the valley for favors. The guests were Miss Wells, Miss Edith Kingsbury, Miss Katherine Gino, Miss Alma Crismon, Mrs. F. D. Halliday, Mrs. Benjamin White, Miss Dorothy Roundy, Miss Maud Riter, Miss Hattie Whitney, Miss Reta Pyper, Miss Pearl Price and Mrs. Will Ray.

Mrs. Charles C. Crismon was hostess at a card party on Wednesday, given in honor of her guest, Miss Little of Idaho, who has been her guest, the rooms being decorated with Easter lilies and designs, and the prize being won by Mrs. Alma Cowan.

Mrs. Mary M. Lawrence of Kansas City, who is here to visit the local P. E. O. society, will be guest of honor at a dinner this evening at the Emery-Holmes, to be given by the members of her society.

Miss Grace Radcliffe was guest of honor at a shower party on Thursday, given by Miss Myrtle Young, the rooms being prettily decorated in violets and ferns, and a buttonhole contest being one of the features of the afternoon. Miss Radcliffe received many dainty pieces of china, and about 20 guests enjoyed the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy entertained at dinner on Wednesday night, covers being laid for eight.

Mrs. Joseph H. Young was guest of honor at a luncheon on Thursday, given by Mrs. Le Grande Young, the decorations being violets, and the place cards done in the same flowers. Covers were laid for 16 guests.

On Wednesday the marriage of Miss Helen Mar Whitney and Mr. W. J. Timpson took place, the ceremony being performed in the Temple at noon, and a wedding breakfast being served later at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop and Mrs. O. F. Whitney. The decorations were pink carnations and violets, and assisting were Misses Emily and Margaret Whitney, Miss Lorena Dusenberry and Miss Daisy Mumford. The bride wore a dainty gown of white silk batiste, and her going away gown was of pale gray cloth. From 5 to 9 o'clock an informal reception was held, after which Mr. and Mrs. Timpson left for Sugar City, Ida., where they will reside.

The interesting list of weddings this week opened with the marriage of Miss Alice Cunningham and Charles W. Pratt on Monday. The affair was almost strictly confined to the family, but was a very pretty one, the decorations and all details being most effective. Miss Josephine Wells was bridesmaid, and Mr. Frank Cook best man, while Rev. E. I. Goshen performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt have gone to the coast for a bridal trip, but will return here to reside.

On Tuesday two other interesting events took place in the weddings of Misses Alice Goodwin and Leslie L. Savage, Miss Pearl Riser and Blair Richardson, both being home affairs, and both couples leaving afterward for trips away. Mr. and Mrs. Savage will later go to Nevada to reside, and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will make their home here.

Mrs. E. Moyle has announced the engagement of her daughter, Louise, to James W. Silver, the wedding to take place this month.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bird have announced the engagement of their daughter, Fannie Canby, to Edward B. Sterling. The wedding is to take place early in June.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week, though a quiet one, was the wedding of Miss Mary Olsen and Henry Traley at St. Paul's church last Tuesday evening, followed by a reception given at the home of the bride's maid, Miss Ethel Hepworth. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with lace and chiffon, and carried brides' roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink and carried pink carnations. The decorations and music were most artistic, and a delicious wedding supper was served. About 50 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Traley left on a late train for California to travel through the state for about a month.

A pretty home wedding of Wednesday evening was that of Miss Sadie Wheelhouse and Mr. Frank Dunford, Jr., the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wheelhouse, with Bishop Frank Stanley officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. J. C. Wheelhouse, and Miss Lillian Wheelhouse acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Morley Dunford as best man. The rooms were tastefully decorated, the parlors in magenta and white, and the diningroom white and green, the table being beautifully decorated with lilies.

EARL AND COUNTESS GREY VISITING US.

The friendship long existing between the United States and Canada is being further cemented by the Dominion's new governor general, Earl Grey, and his charming wife, Lady Grey, both of whom are now being entertained in Washington.

After leaving Ottawa a fortnight ago, the distinguished visitors first visited New York, where, with their suite, they became the guests of former Ambassador Choate and W. Butler Duncan, the latter entertaining Lady Sibyl Grey, the earl's daughter, his niece, Lady Alexandra Baucker, and Earl Grey's personal staff.

The governor general's party is reinforced by a troop of servants, including a secretary, a courier, a valet and three ladies' maids.

During his first week on this side of the border Earl Grey was the guest of honor at the annual banquet in New York of the Pilgrims' society. In a graceful speech at this dinner Earl Grey pointed out in several new directions the importance of fostering the good feeling between this country and Canada.

Since then the earl and countess and their party have been the guests of President Roosevelt, the British ambassador, H. Morimer Durand, and many others prominent in the social and diplomatic life of the nation's capital.

Many other entertainments are being planned for the visitors before they return to Ottawa on May 3.

In the evening, her grandchildren who number 77, gathered at the Tracy home to greet their honored grandmother and extend their

BELGIAN PRINCESS GETS GOLDEN ROSE.

Pope Pius X has consecrated the mystical Golden Rose of Virtue, the most coveted, and, if tradition counts for anything, the most dreaded distinction in the gift of the Holy See, which this year he has conferred upon Princess Elizabeth, wife of Prince Albert, heir-presumptive to the Belgian throne.

The princess is not only the good wife and mother, noble woman and devout Catholic which the pope requires in her who shall win this wondrous token. She is also a skilled physician, and one who puts her knowledge to use in the service of her poor in the Brussels hospitals. She cares medically also for her husband and children.

The Golden Rose is a mimic plant of pure gold, its stem and leaves superbly chased and strewn with sparkling diamond dust in imitation of the morning dew. It is set in a golden pot emblazoned with the papal arms, the exquisite case in which it is inclosed bearing together with the Papal arms those of the recipient. The plant consists of leaves, buds and flowers, and into the central flower the pope pours rose balsam on the occasion of blessing it.

The haunting belief that the Rose brings ill luck is traceable to the strange series of misfortunes that have attended former recipients. Joanna of Sicily, who was the first Rose Queen (the distinction being conferred by Urban VII, who was later dethroned and strangled by her nephew. The unhappy Empress Josephine saw all her glories vanish after the bestowal of the Rose Queen Isabella of Spain and Queen Sophie of Naples were equally ill-fated. Dona Isabella, the wife of Emperor Pedro of Brazil, lost her throne. Empress Elizabeth of Austria was assassinated. The late queen of the Belgians, ex-Empress Eugenie and the princess of Bulgaria a re other royal ladies of the Order of the Golden Rose.

A SPRING OVERCOAT.

Motor coats are responsible for the vogue given the loose-fitting street models made of soft twilled and plaited suitings and chevrons. The coat shown, of gray-blue plaid upon a gray foundation, has its full empire length lined with porcelain-blue satin taffeta, while the revers and facings are made of the same shade of blue silk moire. Bias folds of the cloth are placed above the hem, and the sleeves—really capes—back folds, and front fastenings, are trimmed with heavy silk frogs made of twisted gray and blue braid. The hat, of gray straw, bound with porcelain-blue velvet ribbon, has a single long blue plume, fastened with a square, jetted smoked pearl buckle.
