CLARENCE ERNST HELD FOR MURDER

Just Answer for the Shooting of Charles Staples on Saturday Night.

Two Days S. S. INSTITUTE.

held in Baptist Church, Thursday and Friday—Wedding Permits—Junction City Briefs.

OGDEN, May 20.—Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the police court before Judge Murphy, Clarence Ernst will be given a preliminary hearing on the charge of murder in the first degree. The decision to hold Ernst for the killing of Charles Staples, whom he shot Saturday night, was decided upon by County Attorney Jensen yesterday immediately following the hearing was commenced Tuesday morning but was continued until Wednesday morning until other witnesses could be secured. All of Wednesday morning was occupied in the examination of witnesses and the jury retired at about 12 o'clock. After two days' deliberation the jury returned a verdict finding that Charles Staples came to his death by means of a gunshot wound inflicted by Clarence Ernst. In a verdict of this nature the jurors leave the matter open for the law to decide whether the killing was justifiable or not. The jurors were Claude V. Zinn, Joseph Ruffa and George D. Folkman.

The testimony as was brought out in yesterday's hearing developed nothing other than what has been published in connection with the case. It went to show that Staples was considered a bad man and was being sought for by the police when the shooting occurred, and that Staples and Ernst had quarreled before the shooting.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.
OGDEN, May 20.—Dr. E. M. Stephenson of University Park, Colorado, is the conductor of a two days' Sunday school institute, which opened at the Baptist church this afternoon. Afternoon and evening there will be a general discussion on subjects of general interest to the Sunday school workers and teachers of all churches regardless of denomination, and to whom a cordial invitation is extended.

This afternoon the subjects discussed were: "The Teaching Function in the Church," "What Should a Sunday School Teacher Know?" "Where Is This Knowledge to be Had?" This evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock the following will be discussed: "God's Thoughts of the Child," "Our New Conscience of the Child," "Religious Education of the Child," "Child Conversation."

Friday afternoon the program will be "The Place and Purpose of the Sunday School," and "How to Make a Good Sunday School." In the evening the subjects to be discussed are: "How to Prepare a Lesson," and "How to Teach a Sunday School Lesson." Special music has been secured for the institute, in which it is expected that the pastors of the other churches of the city will take part.

WEDDING PERMITS.
OGDEN, May 20.—Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples:
Henry O. Jones of Cache Junction and Clara E. Wright of West Weber.

Fred W. Hodgson of Salt Lake and Mary E. Bingham of Ogden.

OGDEN BRIEFS.

The funeral services over the body of George Leslie Perkins was held at the First Congregational church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. N. S. Elders officiating. There was an unusually large attendance of friends of the deceased. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

In the police court before Judge Murphy yesterday, Louis Elgers, who stole a box of butter from the delivery wagon of a local produce house, was sentenced to 30 days in the city jail. When arraigned Elgers quickly pleaded guilty to the charge of petit larceny.

Cecil Reed has been cited to appear in the district court and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to observe an order in the Reed divorce case.

INVESTIGATING WATER SUPPLY OF HOSPITAL

State Mental Board Considering Proposition of Enlarging Reservoir at Provo.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, May 20.—The state board of insanity, accompanied by Attorney General Barnes, was in Provo yesterday for the purpose of investigating the water supply of the mental hospital. The hospital now secures all its water for the main building and wings and the laundry and kitchen from the Oak springs on the mountain east of the institution, which is piped to the hospital. The water is pumped from the Oak springs on the mountain and is supplied from the city water system. The proposition under consideration is to build a larger reservoir for the water of storing water from the springs. It is also possible water may be piped from springs in Slate canyon, although that was not considered today.

EPHRAIM HAS THREE FIRES; CHILDREN'S NARROW ESCAPE.

(Special Correspondence.)

EPHRAIM, May 18.—Yesterday, about noon, a fire broke out at the home of Andrew N. Hanson, Sr. A large barn, a derrick and shed were burned down. There were a few chickens and a sheep burned to death, the other animals were saved. About five hundred dollars' worth of property was destroyed, besides about seven or eight tons of hay.

CHILDREN'S NARROW ESCAPE.

EPHRAIM, May 18.—Friday afternoon, three small children locked themselves in the barn of D. P. Madsen, and while at play, built a fire. The blaze was seen in time to save the babes, and not much damage was done to the barn.

Friday, some children built a fire outside of Miller Caboon's implement building in this city. There was a hole in the wall, and the suction drew the blaze into the house and started a blaze in the building. It was soon discovered and put out.

EPHRAIM BRIEFS.

The engagement of Ethel Marion Thorpe to R. F. Hurlburt of Portland, Oregon, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thorpe. The wedding will take place early in June.

While riding a fractious horse, little Stanley Johnson was thrown to the ground and his wrist badly wrenched.

The homes of Ben Carlson, Waldeemar Sorenson and John Armstrong have each been made happy by the appearance of a new boy.

The teachers and pupils of the public schools are working hard at an opera, "The Four-Leafed Clover."

Friday morning, in student meeting at the Snow academy the officers were elected for next year as follows: Conrad Mortenson, president; Leander Thomson, vice president; Edna Hardy, secretary; Glen Allred, athletic director; Parley Young, yell master.

The implement business, formerly owned by Hanson Bros., has been bought by Andrew Anderson of Glenwood. Mr. Anderson was formerly a resident of Ephraim and people are glad to welcome him back as a citizen.

Iver Tiedstrom, the government boatman, will make Ephraim his headquarters for some time to come.

Yesterday, All Olson was kicked by a horse, just below the knee. He is now unable to walk.

Friday was May Day with the public school children of Ephraim.
