EASTERN DISPATCHES.

TOPEKA, Kansas, 27.—Mrs. Thomas Mattingley drowned herself and three-year old child, in the river here to-day. Domestic unhappiness was the cause.

KANSAS CITY, 27.—Jas. Sharpe, who murdered John Erskine, a week or two since, was taken from the jail at Warrensburg, Mo., early yesterday morning, by a mob, and hanged.

SARATOGA, 27.—In the Barnard impeachment case to-day, Chas. Tracy, in behalf of the Union Pacific railroad company, in the suit brought against the company by Fisk, testified that Barnard issued an order directing the receiver, Wm. M. Tweed, jr., to break open the safe of the company and take possession of the bonds, and although the witness told the judge the case was removed to the United States court, out of his jurisdiction, he paid no attention to his statement.

NEW YORK, 28.—The Greeley State convention at New Jersey, yesterday, passed a resolution, requesting James S. Scoville to resign his position as the representative of the State in the national committee.

President Grant leaves Long Branch on Monday for a trip to the Thousand Isles, where he will stay some three weeks.

A letter is published from Jno. T. Pickett, defending his sale of the late rebel documents to the Government, on the ground that they of right belonged to the United States as the residuary legatee of the defunct confederacy.

WASHINGTON, 28.—Since the advent of the new Mexican commissioner in the joint commission, grave differences have arisen between him and his American colleague, in relation to the present States and the future disposition of a large class of claims against the United States. The following succinct statement of these differences with Mexico were laid before the commission: Three hundred and sixty-six individual claims against the United States for two million dollars, known as the Indian depredation cases. These were argued by both governments before the commissioners, and submitted for award. The commissioners differed on the eighth, and by order, on the recourse, referred the disagreement to an umpire, directing the Mexican secretary to deliver them the papers. In the meantime the Mexican government appointed a new commissioner, who took s at June 24, and finding that the Mexican secretary had not executed the order in reference to the umpire, volunteered to his colleague to examine the cases and see if he could not agree with them in opinion. The New Mexican commissioner reached the conclusion that neither the board of commissioners nor an umpire had the authority to decide for or against the claims and the commission should be suspended and the two governments advised that they could only settle by a new treaty, and that the claims, till they were thus settled, should be held up and kept intact, at the same time announcing his firm resolution to take that course with them. His colleague, not being able to agree with any part of his views required the execution of the order of May 8th for the delivery of the case to an umpire. The Mexican commissioner explicitly refused to allow it, and his colleague then proposed to refer their differences as to his right to rescind the order of the board for any reason, and to suspend the cases to umpire. He rejected this, and finally the American commissioner announced that he would treat this overthrow of authority of the board and of the umpire, and this suspension of the case as a forced interruption of the commission, till two friendly governments should remove the difficulty and at once refer the questions raised to those governments. The covention requires that every case laid before the commission shall be heard by the 1st of February next, and unless this is done nothing will be done. The suspension of the 366 cases, with no right to decide them, is a complete overthrow of the convention and breaks the treaty unless the two governments provide a remedy. This is the American view of the matter, pending the solution of the difficulty, in diplomatic channels. The sessions of the board are suspended.

The Japanese Embassy are satisfied with the results of their late mission to Washington. They were not empowered to conclude a treaty with the U.S., but to prepare the way for one for commerce, friendship and navigation. Each government understands the position of the other, and is in possession of a copy of a draft of a treaty which is said to confer many advantages on the U. S.; nothing, however, will be concluded until the embassy shall have visited Europe and returned to their own country.

The records of the American and British commission, organized under the treaty of Washington, will be removed to Newport, Rode Island, early in September, so as to be ready for the session of the commission on the 11th, in time for filing the claims terminated on the 26th of June. The number of British cases is 418, of American only 19. Of seventeen cases thus far definitely decided, awards in only three were made, others having been disallowed or dismissed.

The stenographer acting for the subcommittee on Indian affairs, in their recent trip to the Indian Territory, has returned. The members of the committee are still in the territory, having left Musegoee last Wednesday. Their visit was to set a price upon the Cherokee lands west of 69 degrees longitude, which had been assigned to the Osage Indians. It is the duty of the President to fix the price of these lands, and the price fixed by him was fifty cents per acre. This was unsatisfactory to the Cherokees, and the matter is to be referred for reconsideration by the President, who will probably be guided by the report of the committee. Large and very important testimony was taken, declaring immense and almost incredible frauds upon the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws and Chickasaws, through the means of corrupt bargains by Indian delegates, with Washington lobbyists and agents, contingent fees had been awarded, some instances aggregating millions of dollars, in which the delegates had a large pecuniary interest. The committee are said to be very indignant against the persons involved in these robberies of the ignorant Indians, and cancellation and the annullment of all such existing contracts will be insisted upon.

NEW YORK, 28.—In remarks yesterday to some friends Greeley intimated that he should make no more speeches for several months.

OTTAWA, Canada, 28.—A fire this morning burned seven buildings in Sussex St. Mrs. Evans was burned to death, and her servant fatally injured by jumping a hundred and fifty feet.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., 28.—A large Republican meeting was addressed on Saturday night by Morton and others.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., 28.—John M. Harlon addressed the largest and most enthusiastic Grant meeting.

ELMIRA, N. Y., 28.—Twelve cars of oil were burned this morning on the Erie railway, west of this city; loss $16,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, 28.—The Park Methodist Church to-day raised $37,000 to complete the edifice, which will be the first in the State.

PROVIDENCE, 28.—The Cuban privateer Pioneer, which has been lying at Newport in the custody of Collector Macey, for the violation of the revenue laws, passed into the charge of Marshal Coggshall, on Saturday, on the order of President Grant, to hold the vessel for the violation of the neutrality act of 1818.

GREENSBORO, 28.—Carl Schurz spoke last night, saying that he had belonged to the anti-slavery party all his life, and if he did not now it was not his fault. He said the Ku Klux law had placed great power in the hands of the Administration which was now being used for the basest purposes. The Federal arms was being reached into the affairs of the States. The Cincinnati banner was that of the true Republican party. He claimed that if the colored vote, now compact and solid, were divided between the two political parties, both would be equally interested in securing them their rights. He read the letter of Pleasanton relative to the St. Domingo business, closing by saying that it now simply remained a question of veracity between Pleasanton and the government.

PITTSBURG, 28.—Wm. Metgren was killed by the Alleghany Valley train. His head was severed from his body, falling between his legs.

FORT WAYNE, 28.—Hendricks opened the campaign here last night at the rink.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN JOSE, 28.—Last night, about 9:30, as Thos. Carroll of Santa Clara, was driving along toward Alameda, he saw two men ahead, who, on his approach, separated, allowing him to drive between them and attempted to catch his horse's bridle. He whipped up and escaped and nothing was said. On arriving at Kill's corral he procured a rifle and with young Kill to accompany him, drove back, captured the supposed highwaymen, and ordered them to turn around and go into town. One stopped and the other did not, and Carroll said the latter drew up his gun. Carrol then fired, the ball striking him in the forehead and passing through the brain. The other party surrendered and was brought into town. A party went out and brought in the body, which proved to be that of H. Pattell, of San Francisco, a florist. The prisoner was Andre Bourding, bouquet maker, of San Francisco. Carroll says he was certain from their demonstrations that they tried to stop him. Bourding states that Pattel was a little drunk and when they left San Jose he would not let them put caps on their guns. They were on their way to Alameda, intending to pick plants. Carroll was arrested. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of killing unjustified. The general impression here is that the affair was a terrible mistake.

An aged gentleman, named Martin, died suddenly last night of heart disease. He had just arrived from Santa Rosa.

STOCKTON, 28.—Hugh Tya, laborer on the levee, fell into Stockton Slough this morning and was drowned. The deceased leaves a family of four children and wife. The body was recovered.

LOS ANGELES, 28.—A weekly mail service is to be soon established on the route from Hardyville, via Mineral Park, Wallapai District, to Prescott, Arizona, a distance of 200 miles.

The total assessed valuation of San Bernardino Co. is $1,450,451, $430,000 more than the previous year.

Jas. B. Seabras, from Cerro Gordo, was found dead near San Juan, Cepestrand, having evidently committed suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Stock men generally look for an active market this week.

News from Piocho continues encouraging. A late dispatch says the Gondor mill is going ahead rapidly and the mine is looking well. Piocho has plenty of good ore again. The Sterling struck good ore in. Mocking Bird has got three feet of solid ore, averaging $153.50. The mines generally are developing remarkably well.

The brig Lewis, from Ajutle, is the vessel which sailed from this port with the last Cocos Island pirate treasure hunting expedition. Captain Plummer says he reached the Island after a pleasant run of 31 days and on the 1st of April Welch and wife, who pretended to have seen the treasure buried went ashore and Welsh pointed out the cave where it was deposited, saying that it was in thirty feet. After digging eight days and reaching a depth of 80 feet, the party came to the conclusion that there never was any treasure there. Some were for hanging Welsh and wife and others for leaving them on the Island, but they persuaded some of the soft ones over on board that the treasure was still there. So they dug on twelve days more, penetrating 200 feet and coming to the end of the cave and found no signs of treasure or anything else but dirt. The vessel then ran over to Purta Ayres and landed Welsh, and then went hunting along the coast for a cargo of coffee to take back to San Francisco. The party labor under the impression that they have been sold.

A fight took place at the Engine Hook and Ladder House, No. 2, on O'Farrel street, in the course of which Robert Graham, a member of the company, was cut three times in the breast. Parker Pinkham, of the same company, was also cut in the hand, and Michael Mulkany, an outsider, who did the cutting and created the row, was shot in the left arm. All were arrested, charged with assault with intent to murder. Richard Tomey, another outsider, "sailed in" with a knife and was also arrested.

John McConn and Michael Mulcoherey also took part in a fight on Market street, and McConn was arrested, charged with assault with intent to murder.

A Chinese fight also took place on Stout's Alley, in which a Chinaman was fearfully stabbed and slashed with swords, and it is supposed to be fatally injured. On being brought to the calaboose he said, coolly, "Send for my wife; me think me go mission;" which is their expression for, "I am going to kick the bucket." One sword thrust went through his back and penetrated his lungs.

SAN FRANCISCO, 28.—Captain C. M. Joselyn, an old Californian, was knocked overboard from the steamer John Hunter, off Crescent City, and is supposed to have been drowned. There was a thick fog and high wind at the time and the boat was swamped in launching her.

Another Scandal in the Poet's Family.

The following appears as an advertisement in the Daily News:

LADY WENTWORTH, my wife, having ceased to reside under my roof, and living separate and apart from me, I HERE BY GIVE NOTICE that she has no authority to incur debts or obtain goods on my account, or so as to charge me or any authority whatever to pledge my credit. And I will not be answerable or accountable for any DEBTS or liabilities which she may incur.

Dated this 25th day of June, 1872.

WENTWORTH.

Witness: WM. HY. COOPER, 8 Lincoln's Inn fields.

The above nobleman, Lord Wentworth, is the eldest surviving son of the Earl of Lovelace, and might, did he so choose, assume the courtesy title of Viscount Ockham. But inasmuch as through his mother—Ada, the daughter of Lord Byron—he inherits the Barony of Wentworth, he elects to be known by that dignity. Lady Wentworth, a lady possessing exceeding beauty, is the daughter of the Rev. George Heriot, and sister to Mr. Heriot, who lately married Mdlle. Musurus, daughter of the Turkish Ambassador. The announcement in question has, to say the least of it, taken society by surprise. It has also occasioned very considerable regret, the more so because its appearance is believed to be not only unnecessary, but most unquestionably premature. In the present instance I hear it asserted that the unhappy estrangement alluded to is one which both can, and very likely will, easily yield to the judicious meditation of friends. Indeed, it is said that little, save this very announcement, now stands in the way of a reconciliation.—Ex.

An Ordinance relating to Butchering and Slaughter-houses.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City:—That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, to erect any slaughter-house or yard, or engage in the business of butchering within the limits of said city without first obtaining license therefor, nor at any place or places other than such as may be designed by said council.

SEC. 2. Applications for license, under the provisions of this ordinance, shall be made to the Mayor in writing, and licenses shall be issued and signed by the Mayor or presiding officer of the City Council, and attested by the City Recorder, under the corporate seal, on the payment into the City Treasury, of the sum of twenty-five dollars per annum, in advance.

SEC. 3. All persons engaged in the business of butchering within the limits of this city are hereby required to thoroughly cleanse their slaughter-houses and yards once each twenty-four hours, and to remove from their premises and deposit all offal in such manner, and at such place or places, as may be designated by the Inspector of Slaughter-houses.

SEC. 4. There shall be appointed by the City Council an Inspector of Slaughter-houses, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath and give bonds in the penal sum of three thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties the office; which bond shall be approved by and filed with the City Recorder.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Inspector of Slaughter-houses, to keep a record of all animals slaughtered, showing the marks and brands, if any, of persons from whom received, when and by whom killed, and any other information connected therewith, and shall receive for the inspection of one animal the sum of twenty-five cents, and for each additional animal on the same certificate the sum of ten cents, Provided, that sheep and swine shall be inspected at half the foregoing rates. All sums received to be paid into the City Treasury weekly.

SEC. 6. Any person engaged in the business of slaughtering animals, as aforesaid, in this city shall have all animals to be slaughtered by them, inspected by the Slaughter-house Inspector, and shall obtain and preserve a certificate of said inspection.

SEC. 7. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine in any sum not less than five, or more than one hundred dollars, and on a conviction in addition thereto, his license may be declared forfeited.

SEC. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting herewith are repealed.

Passed July 9th 1872.

DANIEL H. WELLS, Mayor.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, City Recorder.
