Captain Powell wants to buy two first-class milk cows. See advt.

The High Council will meet in the Social Hall at 7 o'clock this evening.

The Teachers' Association of Salt Lake will meet in the 13th District school-house at 2 p.m. to-morrow.

The Twentieth Ward new meeting-house will be dedicated on Sunday following. Services will begin at ten o'clock.

The officers of the Y. L. M. I. A. will meet at 11 o'clock a.m. on Saturday, instead of 2 p.m. as stated in last evening's issue.

Annie McKean, late wife of Henry McKean, who died on the morning of Jan. 1st, was buried to-day. The funeral took place at 11 a.m. from residence of her mother, Mrs. J. W. McKean, on East Temple row, East Temple St.

A little son of J. W. Meley, of Providence, Cache County, while in Sunday School last Sabbath, was stricken with paralysis which affected the whole of his right side. It is his second attack.

A dispatch to H. J. Grant and Co., insurance agents in this city, received this morning from Beaver, states that the mechanic's estimate of damage done by the fire at the Beaver County Court House, amounts to $500.

LOCAL NEWS.

ROCKVILLE NOTES.—A boutique and laundry rain fell at Rockville, Kane County, on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd, little or no freezing thus far. General health good. A commodious and much-needed meeting-house is predicted as among "foregone conclusions."

Z. B. S.—The subscriptions for January are now due and should be paid on or before the evening of the 9th inst. The next meeting of the Society will be held on Wednesday evening next, for the receipt of monthly dues and the awarding of loans.

FOR THE EAST.—We learn from the Ogden Herald that it was the intention of Hon. Moses Thatcher, accompanied by E. S. Richards, Esq., to take last evening's train from that city for Washington and New York. They expected to be absent about one month, in the interests of Utah affairs. Pleasant trip.

A BEAUTIFUL GIFT.—The great Rock Island Route has issued a new and most comprehensive Cook Book, of 128 pages, filled with new and reliable recipes from the best caterers of this and other countries. No housewife can afford to be without it; and though worth one dollar, it will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of ten cents in stamps. As they will go like hotcakes send at once to E. St. John, G. T. & P. A., Chicago, Illinois.

MISS FIELD'S LECTURE.—Miss Kate Field's lecture for the benefit of the Deseret Hospital, takes place at the Social Hall next Monday evening. The subject is "An Evening with Dickens." Miss Field, as heretofore stated, was a personal friend of the great English novelist, and her lecture is conceded, by all who have yet heard it, to be one of the most interesting of the kind ever given. Tickets to be had at Dwyer's, Calder's, Daynes and Coalter's, Savage's and the Woman's Exchange.

TWELFTH WARD CONCERT.—This evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, a concert will be given in the Twelfth Ward meeting-house, which, judging from the array of talent enlisted, will rank among the most pleasing entertainments of the kind this season. The program is in two parts, comprising songs, duets, choruses, recitations, readings, tableaux, piano solos and duets, guitar and mandolin duet, etc., and announcements among the performers the popular names of Misses Agnes Olsen, Louie Wells, Mrs. V. R. Wells, Messrs. H. M. Wells, J. D. Spencer, and many others equally talented and almost as well known to the public. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Sunday School, and the concert is bound to be a success.

GOING TO A BETTER WORLD.—Elsewhere appears a notice of the death on the 31st ult., at Gunnison, Sanpete County, of Sister Sarah D. Brown, in the 54th year of her age. She was a devoted wife and mother and was respected by all who knew her. Two days previous to her demise she exhorted those around her to be faithful and true to the Gospel.

Before she departed she was permitted to see through the veil, and in vivid language described the beauty of the place she was going to. She also gave directions for the minutest details of the funeral, and the dressing of the remains. She besought her friends not to grieve for her, as she knew she was going to a place of great joy.

MURDER MOST FOUL.—What would be sufficient, in the eyes of the average Utah "American," to constitute a "Mormon" murder, was noticeable on North Temple Street, at an early hour this morning. Gouts and splashes of blood were traced upon the hard tram-pet snow-path for a distance of several blocks, and just as the eagle-eyed reporter had decided that a veritable homicide had taken place, and was whittling away at his pencil, in the satisfaction of a south-hawking thief, his footstep halted at the kitchen door of a residence in the vicinity above named, at the threshold of which lay two fine specimens of barn-yard poultry in the icy clasp of death, still bleeding from that point in their physical economy where once their heads, now absent, habitually appeared. Exit reporter in haste, lest his calling and the cause of his proximity be misconstrued.

"ONLY HUMILIATED."—Yesterday was a rough one on pedestrians. History will not record and posterity will never know what was endured by the man who had no rubbers and whose vocation compelled him to traverse at break-neck speed the slippery walks and crossings with which this city is present abounds.

We saw such a one emerge from a Main Street drug-store, but he might as well have staid there. He was carried back, three seconds later, with a crack in his back as big as City Creek aqueduct and a countenance which, if properly adjusted, would have cracked a half-inch looking glass.

"Are you hurt, Mr. W.?" Inquired a solicitous by-stander.

"Oh, no," said the blushing unfortunate, "only humiliated. My first fall. Good morning, sir." And away he ran to risk life again upon a sidewalk to which the deadly orange peel could have added nothing in the way of danger.

JOSEPH SMITH'S BIRTHDAY.

HOW THE PROPHECY'S NATAL DAY WAS CELEBRATED AT ROCKVILLE, KANE COUNTY.

The 78th birthday anniversary of the Prophet Joseph Smith was celebrated at the above-named place in splendid style, though the proceedings were postponed, owing to the absence of the Bishop, from the 23d ult., to the 27th. Elaborate preparations had been made for a day of genuine enjoyment.

On each side of the front walk that led to the hall were evergreen trees that gradually diminished in height as they receded from the pathway. On entering the doorway the eye was greeted with gorgeously decorated walls. Spread out the opposite end from the entrance was a large white canvas bearing the words: "Joseph Smith, Prophet, Seer and Revelator."

On the right wall was another canvas on which were the words: "Do my Prophets no Harm," and on the left still another with: "Touch not mine Anointed." On each canvas was a figure representing the all-seeing Eye.

In the center of the first mentioned canvas was a splendid profile of the martyred Seer, and below was a fine steel engraving of the Three Witnesses and the Hill Cumorah. On the right was another framed profile of Joseph and Hyrum, and a large portrait of President Brigham Young. On the left hung a large well-framed picture of the First Presidency, the central figure being the venerable white-haired Apostle whose blood mingled with that of the illustrious subject of the occasion. Splendid pictures and appropriate mottoes dotted the walls, tastefully interwoven with beautiful garlands of evergreen from the mountain forests.

The martial band played lively airs during the forenoon, serenading every house, the Stars and Stripes waving in the meantime. At 12 m. the people assembled. The Bishop requested all who had ever seen the Prophet to rise to their feet, which, being complied with, he planned to call for their breasts a pink rosette. But nine men out of the entire house wore this badge of honor. After a few brief exercises in singing, recitations, etc., all joined in making of a spontaneous picnic. Then followed speeches, songs, recitations, etc., commemorative of early scenes in Church history, and of the character and labors of the Prophet's life. A veteran member from Toquerville testified to the truthfulness of the strong testimonies borne, and said that never since the enactment of those scenes, had he been so vividly recalled to his memory as on this occasion. The exercises lasted till sundown. At 6:30, both old and young went forth in the dance, enjoying themselves till a reasonable hour, when all retired, the proceedings unmarred by anything to deface their recollection. One of the most pleasing features of the whole affair was that at the picnic neither strong nor hot drinks were indulged in by either old or young, the sceptre of cold water bearing full sway.

UTAH CENTRAL "FOLDER."—The Utah Central Railway Company have just issued a handsome "folder," giving a large amount of information. It contains the time tables of all the railroads running into or through Utah, with the exception of the D. & R. G. A little over two pages and a half are devoted to a history of the Utah Central Railway from the inception of the enterprise to the present, including brief but pointed descriptive allusions to the principal places and points along its route, which is full of interest to tourists and visitors generally. One side of the sheet is entirely occupied by a capital map of Utah, being probably the most correct of any ever published, showing prominently the several lines of railway. The Utah Central is a finely equipped and ably operated road, and the "folder," which has been prepared by Francis Cope, Esq., the general freight and passenger agent, will be quite useful to those doing business with it. The typographical work of the "folder" was done at this office.

GOT HIS MAX.—Marshal Phillips returned this morning from San Francisco, bringing back Isaac Bigman, the young fellow who is charged with swindling several business houses in this city. It appears that he obtained goods of M. H. Lipman, clothier, some money from M. C. Phillips, tobaccoist, and other things from different houses, under pretense of starting a store in Logan.

Failing to so establish himself, he next claimed that it was his intention to begin business in Ogden. He also failed to do this, and the next thing his creditors knew he was off for the West, stopping off and going on alternately until he finally reached San Francisco.

Meanwhile justice was on his track and it being ascertained where he was, Marshal Phillips, armed with the Governor's requisition, left here for the west last Sunday morning. On arriving in San Francisco he met every courtesy and assistance from the officers, and having readily obtained in Sacramento a requisition from Governor Stoneman, on New Year's day he was arrested, delivered into his hands. He is now in jail awaiting his examination.

HOMER AGAIN.—Elder Hampden S. Beattie, Jr., returned yesterday morning from a mission to the Southern States, upon which he started on the 27th of last February. With the exception of three weeks in Tennessee, he spent all of his time in the State of Kentucky. He much enjoyed his labors, and values his experience beyond all price. He baptized two persons, assisted in baptizing several others, and though threatened in some instances, as a general thing was well treated. Elder Beattie is a native of this city, where he has many friends who are glad to see his face and clasp hand once more.

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT.—The annual election for officers in the 30th Ward Mutual Improvement Association, was held last evening, resulting as follows: T. B. Lewis, President; Charles W. Stagner, First Vice-President; Wm. Salmon, Second Vice-President; Geo. Romney, Jr., Secretary; E. E. Brain, Assistant Secretary; B. Y. Hampton, Treasurer; John E. Demaree, Librarian; Nephthi Schofield, Librarian; Chas. B. Savage, George Reynolds, Heber J. Romney, George L. Savage, James T. Dunbar and Orson D. Romney, Directors.

CHANGED HANDS.—We are informed from a reliable source, that the Co-operative drug store business of Provo has passed into the hands of Mr. Reed Smoot, who purchased it for $5,000. The transaction took place but recently. Mr. George A. Richards, a competent and obliging clerk, formerly employed at the Z. C. M. I. drug department in this city, has been engaged to conduct the business in Provo. Mr. Smoot, who still retains his position as superintendent of the East Co-operative store in that place.

The editor of a French newspaper, speaking of the dedication of a new cemetery near Provo, says that the measure of being the first individual who was buried in this delightful retreat.

BADLY HURT.

A few days ago, says the Logan Journal, a Danish boy about 12 years old, living with Mr. Samuel Holt on the College farm, was leading a horse by a rope which he wound round his arm. From some cause the horse started to run, and dragged the boy a considerable distance by the arm. The elbow was pulled out of the socket and the boy sustained such severe injuries that fears of his recovery are entertained.

AT REST.—Thomas Sorenson, of Nephi, Juab county, whose death notice appears elsewhere, was a faithful Saint, a loving husband and a kind father. He joined the Church in Denmark, his native country, from which land he was emigrated at his own expense over fifty poor Saints, at a cost of $5,000. He did not suffer pain previous to his death, and only a few hours before walked from one room to another. He called his children to his bedside and made his voice grow weaker, and finally fell peacefully asleep, in the 44th year of his age.

The tramp is still scouring the country. It is about the only thing he does scour.
