

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be given in full, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—We hope to see a crowded house this evening to see the great play of "Elizabeth," presented for the first time, and Miss Luce in the title role made famous by Ristori and Mrs. Bowers. A lapse of three years is supposed to occur between the first and second acts; and twelve years between the fourth and fifth acts.

IN THE SOUTH.—By Deseret Telegraph we learn that the grasshoppers are in St. George, and are as far down as Virgin Hill, near the Muddy.

IN FLOWER.—The locust trees in places are in flower, as in Spring, which with the increasing foliage of fruit and shade trees, of delicate green, gives a peculiar appearance, at this season, to our shade trees and gardens.

PRESIDENT YOUNG and company left Ogden for Brigham City at 10:30 a. m., and arrived at Willard City at 1 p. m. They remained there for dinner, and will reach Brigham City this evening.

A CHAINED MONARCH.—Yesterday evening a magnificent specimen of an eagle soaring above a chicken in the garden of James Livingston, 20th Ward, and, "making for its prey," swooped down upon it, striking the ground with such force as to partially stun his kingship for a time. Two of Bro. Livingston's little boys, about eight and ten years of age, rushed in the eagle, caught its wings, and held them extended till assistance came, and it was captured. It measures seven feet four inches from tip to tip of its wings, and is now chained in the garden of Bro. Livingston, in the 20th Ward.

FOR HOME.—Among the returns of missionaries is that of Elder Aurelius Miner, who arrived yesterday afternoon by stage. He is a native of Lawrence, Kan., and J. B. Kimball, Esq., also arrived by stage, from their business trip to the East.

WE WERE grieved last night to learn that our esteemed Delegate to Congress, Hon. W. H. Hooper, had tripped and fallen down stairs yesterday, while descending with his child in his arms, and that in saving the child from being hurt, he had a rib broken. We hope to see him soon around again.

PAROLED.—His Excellency, the Governor, has pardoned Frederick Stockfield who at the spring term of the Probate Court in this city, was sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary, for larceny.

MORE TRAINS IN.—Captain Rawlins' train, of wagons, arrived this morning, with nearly 40 passengers. There were two deaths in the company from Laramie City to this city: Sarah Johnston, from London, aged 72 years; and Ann Green, aged 74 years. The train left on the 25th of July, and laid over two days by the way, making the trip in 24 traveling days. The passengers looked cheerful, healthy, and in good condition.

Captain Chester Loveland's train, of 40 wagons, and about 400 passengers, arrived this morning. They had three deaths during the journey, two infants, and one aged woman. This train also left on the 25th ult., and laid over some days, during one of which the Indian hunt occurred, to retake the animals stamped by the savages, mentioned in Captain Loveland's letter published a few days ago. The animals that were run off, and the teamsters who captured them and killed the Indians, looked as if they could endure the same again, and not suffer much.

ELDERS ARRIVED.—We had calls this morning from the following returned missionaries, whom we were glad once more to meet "at home":

Elder James McGraw, who left in May of 1885, and who arrived yesterday with Mr. Murdoch's train. His missionary labors were confined to England, and the latter part of the time he presided over the Nottingham District. He left England on the 4th of June, in charge of the passengers on the John Bright.

Elder Zebulon Jacobs, who left in May, 1887, and who traveled from Laramie with Captain Rawlins' train, arriving last night, ahead of it. He labored in the Birmingham Conference, and was released to return home this summer in consequence of ill health. He looks thin, but his health is restored.

Elder John Parry, who left in May of 1885. His labors were confined to the Welsh District. He crossed the Atlantic in the Minnesota, in charge of the Saints who sailed on that steamer, of whom there were 516. He traveled from Laramie in Capt. Rawlins' train.

Elder Almon Robinson, who started from here in May, 1887. He left England on the Minnesota, and traveled with Captain Murdoch's train.

Elders W. S. Grant and Jonathan Stegell, returned missionaries, also came with Captain Rawlins' train, and are in good health.

Elder Richard Davis, of Millard, Box Elder County, and Elders Isaac Loney and Edward W. Tullidge of this city, arrived with Captain Loveland's train. Bro. E. B. Shoebright also traveled with this train, and acted as Clerk to the company.

A TRIUMPH.—G. D. Watt, Esq., brought to our office to day a skein of silk of home manufacture. The eggs were laid, the worms hatched, the cocoons made and this silk spun by hand, and all done in his own house. The silk is of a rich straw color, and the skein weighs one ounce. This is a triumph, and is really the inauguration of a new branch of wealth-creating industry among our people.

Brother Watt says that silk is much easier to spin by hand than either hemp, cotton, wool or flax. Go ahead, George, your perseverance merits success.

A BIG THING.—Mark Croxall, Esq., Business Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Office, has kindly handed us a telegram just received from Saltwater, by which we learn that Toot and Eddy's mill has made two clean-ups of the Cariso ledge, the first one scattering 162 tons of rock, averaging twenty-seven dollars to the ton; the other, 90 tons (better rock) averaging fifty dollars to the ton.

A WEEKLY MAIL commenced running from there to this city yesterday.

OBSEQUES.—The obsequies of Elder Robert C. Sharkey were conducted this afternoon in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, which were crowded with a sympathizing congregation, who were visibly affected during the addresses.

The speakers were President D. H. Wells, Elder Orson Pratt, Bishop E. D. Woolley, President Joseph Young, and Bishop L. W. Hardy. In their remarks they deplored the fatal accident which had robbed us of the society of so upright and good a citizen, and so faithful a saint. They sympathized in fitting terms of condolence with the bereaved family, but drew comfort from the assurance which the Lord has given us of the reward in store for the faithful. In every position, as a husband, a father, a friend, a business man and a Saint, Brother Sharkey had lived so as to secure the love and esteem of all who knew him.

The respect entertained for him was manifested by the crowded congregation who attended his obsequies.

The funeral cortege was a very large.
