Table with columns for commodity names (e.g., Butter, Eggs, Flour) and their prices.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Laramie is threatened with a beef famine. Hon. Lotin Farr of Ogden, was in town to-day.

Leavitt's All Star Specialty at the Theatre to-night.

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council tonight.

The Salt Lake Yacht Club will give their annual reunion at the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, on the evening of Friday, Feb. 9th.

The announcement that Brother E. Stephens has secured more pupils in his primary music class resulted in forty additional pupils.

The "All Star Specialty Company" is certainly the strongest of its kind that has been in San Francisco in many years. Every performer is an artist, and all of the acts are highly enjoyable.

A correspondent calls attention to the utility of newspapers for purposes of warmth, paper being an excellent non-conductor of heat.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Requisition Arrived.—The requisition for the train robbers arrived this morning, and Hawley, Francis, Earl and Anderson were to be taken to Nevada, leaving on the train this afternoon.

Released and Appointed.—Elder George C. Lambert is released from being Traveling Elder in the London Conference, and is appointed to later in the Liverpool office.

Cheap Sheep Dealers.—To-day Charles Austin and James Larson were arrested on a charge of obtaining a number of sheep from another party under false pretences, and disposing of them for their own benefit.

Proposed Concert.—We learn that a grand treat, in the shape of a musical entertainment, is to be given at the Theatre, by the highest class of Brother E. Stephens' pupils, in preparation. He proposes that it shall eclipse all former concert of the kind.

All Stars.—To-night Leavitt's All Star Specialty Company will appear at Hawley's Salt Lake Theatre. They are a galaxy not often met with in one combination.

A Common Nuisance.—Those who attended the meeting of the Sunday School Union last night had to "run a muck" after dismissal, between a double file of ill-mannered, small-brained young men, who lined the sidewalk on the south side of the block.

A Mill Creek Scuffle.—A Mill Creek correspondent writes: "On Friday last upwards of two hundred people, old and young, were assembled in the Mill Creek Ward meeting house. They commenced to dance at 1 o'clock p. m.

THE NEXT EMIGRATION.

SPECIALLY INTERESTING TO THE SCANDINAVIAN SAINTS.

We learn from private advices that on or about the 14th of next April a company of Scandinavian Saints will leave Liverpool for Utah, along with the British company.

The following, which appears in the Millennial Star of January 15th, is from the pen of Elder George C. Lambert:

"Breachwood Green, Hertfordshire, from where I now write, was the scene of an episode connected with the early preaching of the Gospel in this region, which I think worthy of record.

The "Red Lion," one of the principal public houses of the village, which stands facing Oxford Road, was, at the time of which I write, kept by one Samuel Peters, a man of influence and property, who combined the business of baker and provision dealer with that of publican.

Beneath the wide-sweeping branches of a great ash tree which grows opposite the "Red Lion," stood a humble Elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, declaring the principles of life and salvation, revealed anew in this dispensation.

The work in Germany.—We learn by private letter from Elder John Q. Cannon that the Gospel is spreading rapidly in Germany. The North German Conference, which formerly included the kingdoms of Prussia and Bavaria, the three free cities, Hamburg, Bremen and Lubeck and Schleswig-Holstein, has been divided in consequence of the addition of many members and the organization of several new branches.

At Tooele City, Jan. 28th, a school party was given at the close of the first term of D. E. Ward's school. The party was to be interspersed with dancing, songs, recitations, a speech, a picnic, etc.

Time passed on. This Elder no longer came to Breachwood Green to preach, for he had journeyed to the land of Zion, in search of a new home, and probably thought little of the prediction uttered under the inspiration of the Spirit, and perhaps does not know to this day whether it was fulfilled or not.

A Disgraceful Frauds.—J. W. Peterson forwards the following account of a disgraceful affair:

At Tooele City, Jan. 28th, a school party was given at the close of the first term of D. E. Ward's school. The party was to be interspersed with dancing, songs, recitations, a speech, a picnic, etc.
