SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

1 EW YORK, Feb. 6.-The night of the 28th saw Utah well represented at the ball, given by Mesdames Constant, Sears, Clark and Easton. It was the beginning of a series of Utah gatherings proposed by the aforementioned ladies, to bring together the former residents of that popular state in a social way, and promote a society irrespective of religion that may meet once a month, or once in six weeks, where dancing may be indulged in, a diversion much appreciated by nearly all Utahns, Many old faces were to be seen, which were familiar to every one presentamong them, Frank K. Gillespie, Miss. Sharp, daughter of W. H. H. Sharp; Mrs. Muiloy, Mrs. Wright, daughter of Mrs. Dr. Ferguson, and many others. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney came in towards the close, having been to the theater, but took occasion to make the ball a last stopping place to shake bands with old friends, and offer consand hands with old friends, and offer con-gratulations to the committee for the dea, which impresses everyone as a capital way of keeping in touch with all Utahus. The dancing program was all Utahns. The dancing program was unique, the Eagle and Stars and Stripes being conspicuous. "Utah," grand march, at 8:30, leading out. Then came "Deseret," "Jordan," "Rocky Mountains." "Liberty Park," "Gardo," "Eagle Gate," "Bee Hive," "Salt Palace," "Ogden," "Saltair," "Lagoon," "Gardod," "Artelova," "Caldor, Bark," "Garrfeld," "Antelope," "Calder's Park,"
"St. George," and "Sago Lily," made up a list of square and round dances, that did not close until 1 o'clock a. m.
So popular was the evening's entertainment that the committee will doubtless give another in March.

At Friday night's "Mutual," the regular program was dispensed with and an informal social was held for the departing Elders and Saints, who left Saturday evening for Utah. Elder N. K. Porter, who has acted as secretary of the mission for two years, and leaves behind him many warm friends in the Brooklyn mission, was the principal figure at Friday evening's social. Accompanying Elder Porter west are Elders Duran and Smith of Albany, New York conference, Miss Anna Mae Clark, Mr. N. Higgins, Miss Helen Jacobson, and Mrs. Emily Blotter. The party will make several stops on its way. Niagara, Chicago and Denver will be visited en route, a day at a time, so that a week or ten At Friday night's "Mucual," day at a time, so that a week or ten days may be consumed in the jour-Good wishes from friends here accompany the travelers.

Prof. J. P. Meakin left for Providence, R. I., Friday last, to give a series of lectures on the "Mormon" question. He will be gone about ten days.

Saturday afternoon saw the departure from our midst of Dr. Ralph Richards for Philadelphia, Washington, Balti-more, Chicago, Milwaukee and Oma-ha, on his way home to Salt Lake to locate. Dr. Richards has so long been ed from a visit to her brother, John Canfield, in Boston, and left Saturday canfield, in Boston, and left Saturday evening for Michigan in response to a call from a dear friend, Mrs. Barnes, who is lying critically ill at Milwaukee. Mrs. Willard also received the sad news of the death of her brother-inlaw, James Stoddard, of Portland, Or., who died very suddenly last week, leaving an only child, a girl 15 years of age, in that place. Mr. Stoddard was the husband of Miss Lutle Canfield, sister of Mrs. Willard.

For some weeks past New Yorkers in that portion of Gotham referred to in many of the morning papers as the "worthy middle class," have been holding quiet jubilees in the prospect of hearing grand opera for theater prices—the sole idea of Hammerstein, the great theater builder-who is erecting a fine opera house on west Thirty-fourth street. But vain are their dreams for cheap seats in the opera scheme. The great Hammerstein is out in flaming headlines, announcing that he will be a close second to Conreid. In operatic at-tractions; that his songbrids will be as high salaried, all of which means, the nigh salaried, an of which means, the public must pay for their must as it does at the Metropolitan, with no cheap seats in view. It was a cruel joke to coax the public into subscription lists, but a clever advertising trick, of which Hammerstein is thoroughly abrable.

Mrs. Major Pond of 136 Jewett avehrs. Major Fond of 130 Jewett avenue, New Jersey, entertained a number of friends Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney of Salt Lake. Homer Davenport attl wife, and Mr, and Mrs. R. C. Easton came over from the city. There were a number of musical neonle from New York ha, on his way home to said ha, on his way home to solve it in a resident of Gotham, and is so popular with all the Utah people here, that his absence will be felt by every one, and sincerely regretted by his friends, and his career at home will be followed with interest by his eastern friends.

Two young Elders from Canada arrived this morning. Archie Neilson and Orson Anderson. Both will labor in the Eastern States mission.

The latest news from Miss Allie Newell of Ogden, who has been a resident of New York, for some years, but is now in Chicago, is to the effect that her health is very seriously impaired by rheumatism. Mrs. John Barnes of New York her close friend, is in constant communication with her physician, Dr. Russell, whose office is in the Marshail Field building, keeping her notified of her condition. ing her notified of her condition. Sunday's New York Tribune has sinday's New York Tribine has a fine picture and good notice of Prof. Arthur Shepherd and his forthcoming overture, which will be played next Saturday night at Carnegle Hall. In fact, every leading paper this morning has made mention of the young composer and his work, and all in flattering terms. The friends of Prof. Shepherd will be out in force March 13 to add applause and give support to their countryman. their countryman.

Irishman and Mules.

Out in a small Western town a build ing operation was going on. The ma-terial had to be carted five miles, and a young Irishman was employed to drive a feam of mules. It had been raining for two days and the roads wer a sight. It was as much as the teamsters could do to keep their teams going, so bad were the roads. The next morning it was raining as hard as ever. The driver went to the stable with a shovel.

"Where are you going, Dan?" asked "To curry the ears of me mewls." answered Dan,
"Why are you only going to curry their cars?" asked the boss,
"Sure, thim's all ov 'im remains out
