DEATH OF JUDGE BLACK.

This telegraph brings us the sad tidings of the death of the veteran jurist, Jeremiah S. Black. His death will cause great regret throughout the United States, for the people of Utah will join with the many thousands of mourners in their sorrow over the departure of a noble spirit from this mortal sphere.

Jeremiah S. Black was born in the Glades of Somerset County, in the State of Pennsylvania, on the 10th of January, 1810. He was admitted to the bar when scarcely of age, and rose so rapidly in his profession that in 1842 he was made Judge of the Judicial district where he had chiefly practiced, and where his eminent abilities were generally recognized. In 1851 he was elected to the bench of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and became the Chief Justice. In 1854 he was re-elected to that position for which he was eminently fitted. In 1857 he was appointed to the high and important office of Attorney General of the United States, and in 1860 he became Secretary of State in the Buchanan Administration, remaining in that place till the close of the year 1861, when he went out of office and has not since been returned to any official position.

Judge Black was a sound Democrat and a thorough constitutional lawyer. His opinions on all questions of constitutional law were received with great respect, even by his political opponents, and had weight in every branch of the legal profession. He was also an able writer and profound thinker on other than legal questions. His celebrated controversy with Robert Ingersoll through the columns of the North American Review, which was reviewed at the time in this paper, showed that he was well versed in Christian polemics and able to cross swords to advantage with the most skillful professor of skeptical fencing of modern times.

Judge Black's able defense of the people of Utah, which has received some ridicule but no attempt at refutation, proved that he was fearless as well as just and talented, and will stand through all time as proof of his tenacity to the cause of constitutional liberty and popular rights, and his opposition to any encroachment of the national power upon local government, and to despotism in any form or under any pretense.

That he was a Christian at heart as well as in profession is evident from the report of his latest moments on earth. He had no fear of death, he trusted in the Author of his being, and his last words were a solemn prayer, touching and beautiful in its expression of confidence, faith in duty, and affection for his loved one left behind.

A great and good man has passed away, one whose presence on earth was a blessing to his fellows, and whose absence will leave a void very difficult to fill. He lived to a good old age, being upwards of seventy-three, and has gone to join the honorable departed. Peace be to his ashes, and comfort rest upon the bosom of the bereaved!

FOR THE WEEK END.

LATEST BY LIGHTNING.

Special Weeker.

New York, 20.—Wall St., 11:10 a.m.—The week opens with a decided pressure to sell Denver & Rio Grande stock, which closed at 29 1/2 on Saturday, and fell to 29 today, and fell off to 28 1/2; and this affects the whole list unfavorably, and prices have declined to 27 1/2; Wash. & Oregon Transcontinental are especially weak.

Bar silver, 104; Central Pacific, 67 1/2; Northern Pacific, 43; Northern, 23 1/2; Burlington, 35; New York Central, 135; Pacific Mail, 83 1/2; Panama, 93; St. Louis & S. F., 88; Texas Pacific, 27 1/2; Union Pacific, 15 1/2; Wash. & O., 27 1/2; Wells, Fargo & N. Y., 18 1/2.

Wall Street, 12:35 p.m.—Among the rumors used to depress Denver this morning was one to the effect that a receiver had been asked for, and another that a fresh issue of stock was contemplated.

Chicago, 20.—Secy. Folger, accompanied by Collector Spaulding, left the city for an excursion to Lake Superior, and the United States cutter, Angie, left for the same place.

Paper Mill Fire.

Trenton, N. J., 20.—A dispatch from Lambertville says: McDowell & Sons' paper mill, which has been almost entirely destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss will probably exceed $2,000; insurance about $10,000. Forty men were thrown out of employment.

Thunder, Lightning and Rain.

Toronto, 20.—A terrific rain storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, visited the north-east part of Ontario, yesterday. At Lakeside the water rose two feet deep in the streets. Several buildings and bridges were carried away and destruction to property generally was very great. At Windsor the river rose 15 feet, the road, bridge and trunk were washed away, and the county road covered four feet deep with water. A quantity of standing grain was destroyed.

Chandler's Exit.

Portsmouth, N. H., 20.—Secretary Chandler left this morning and has taken the Telegraph this afternoon for his summer trip, extending to pleasure.

The Strikers Resuming Their Work.

New York, 20.—Capt. Humstone of the Western Union Telegraph Company was kept busy this morning receiving applications for re-employment from the striking operators. About 100 male operators have returned to work, but the strike ended, four more were employed this morning. Sixty ladies went out on the strike, and of this number three were discharged, and it is expected that 25 more will be taken this week. All line men who apply for reinstatement are rejected with the answer that their places are filled. Nearly all the branch offices were open this morning. Jay Gould has expressed great satisfaction with the management of the telegraph during the strike, and the success in getting the lines running again.

New Telegraph Line and Ferry Express.

A Western Union line has been completed from Denver, 30 miles south of Livingston, on the Northern Pacific railroad, from which point messages to the Hot Springs Hotel, Yellowstone Park, are delivered free by pony express. The President and party will be the first to use the line.

Dr. Norris Greer, president of the Western Union Co., is in office today, after several months' trip abroad. His health is much improved.

Mischievous Boom.

Chicago, 20.—The dramatic season, which is about to open, gives promise of being a very successful one of the most remarkable in record in this country, both as regards the impression of exceedingly strong foreign attractions, and in respect to the extraordinary attention which is being made for the particularly important local season. This promise is borne the less remarkable for the reason that up to this time, scarcely any of the leading New York managers knew which way to turn for material with which to work against their rivals dealing in foreign acts and combinations. Within a few weeks, however, there has been such an accumulation of theatrical goods in this city as is not seen in the same of any other season, and managers of the larger theatres are now in possession of more plays and stronger plays than are often brought to light in the course of a whole season. There are no less than 16 dramas, comic operas and farces ready for production.

ure. It is evident to everybody that the alleged evil was greatly exaggerated and grossly distorted for political effect. Notwithstanding the disfranchisement of actual polygamists, and all who could be styled such under the widest definition that could be given to the term, "Mormon" votes still stand in the way of those who seek to plunder Utah. So now they demand the very thing that the New York Tribune and other leading journals say cannot be granted: the political death of every one professing to be a "Mormon."

But they are going to meet with still more disappointment. If a few cracks and facts, and incendiary facts are enough to favor the demand, there are enough reasonable minds to perceive its folly with sufficient clearness to prevent the outrage. For it would be not only an outrage against many thousands of citizens who have violated no law, but an outrage against liberty and law itself, against republicanism, against the Constitution, against the rights and privileges which the government is set up to protect.

The right to believe what seems right, to advocate it and speak and publish facts and arguments in its favor, belongs to all citizens, and those who wish to trample it under foot to favor and foster their own selfish ends, are traitors to good government and regardless to the rights of our common country. It is a sacred right and is inalienable. The very fact that certain individuals are seeking to deprive monogamous "Mormons" of that right, should be enough to convince all rational Americans that those persons are not working for patriots or moral ends, but for the accomplishment of private purposes and from basely greed and hope of temporal gain. "Keep the rascals out."

FOREIGN.

LATEST TRANS-ATLANTIC DISPATCHES.

Revolving news.

LONDON, 20.—This morning the Times, commenting on language used of late in the Commons by a number of members for Ireland, and particularly that of Mr. Gladstone's remarks, when the former declared there was a state of war between England and the Irish, said that the House will, before long, be necessary in view of these revolting excesses.

No Good.

Dublin, 20.—The Freeman's Journal deprecates the violent language to which reference has been given in the Commons recently by Irish members, it says: "It serves no good end."

Tripartite Alliance.

Madrid, 20.—Madrid newspapers are discussing the expediency of forming an alliance with Spain, Austria and Germany, in order to check the influence of the French democracy in Spanish politics.

The Mother of Tudes.

London, 20.—Advice from Annam states that the mother of the late King Tudes, who always prevented her son from openly rupturing relations between Annam and France, by order of the new ruler of the country, has been forbidden to quit the palace.

In Alive Again.

Cebu, 20.—The second son of Prince William of Prussia, who is grandson of the Emperor, was christened at Potsdam, yesterday, with imposing ceremony. All the members of the imperial family, the Duke of Edinburgh, Duke of Albany and King of Roumania were among the distinguished persons present on the occasion.

Misdeed in Scotland.

London, 20.—There was serious rioting in the town of Glasgow, Scotland, on Saturday, between parties of Orangemen and Catholics, when 26 of the participants in this disturbance were arrested. Two police officers were dangerously wounded in quieting the disturbance. The rioting was resumed this morning when a number of Catholics appeared armed with sticks and hammers.

A Novel Entertainment.

Toronto, 20.—A novel entertainment will be given at the Ball Lake Theatre, as will be seen by a large advertisement in another column. The performances at Ogden are spoken of by the papers of that town in very high terms. After tomorrow night two performances will be given each day during the remainder of the week. See the advertisement for particulars.

tion in New York at various theatres, and some of these have been already very largely successful on the other side of the water, and only one or two of them can boast of American parentage. The Array is certainly very strong in all respects, and there is evidently about to open a theatrical boom of dimensions far beyond the ordinary run. Nearly all the theatres are now ready to begin, and one or two of them have already opened their doors. In all cases the policy to be pursued during the coming season has been thoroughly matured, and there is little left now to be done merely the mechanical work of the season. Two or three new theatres have been added to the list of New York play houses, and several old ones have been largely altered and made over.
