NEVADA ENTERPRISE.—The Virginia Territorial Enterprise is one of the best newspapers in the West, being ably conducted, editorially and mechanically. The issue of July 22 announces that the proprietor of the Enterprise, Mr. J. T. Goodman, has fitted up a new job office, by far the most complete in the State, equal to anything in San Francisco, and capable of turning out any kind of work. The type consists of over 300 different styles, with the most modern and tasteful faces. The presses are of the most perfect manufacture. Four presses are geared to a Baxter engine, and all driven at an expense, per day of ten hours, of fifty cents for fuel. The office is under the immediate charge of Mr. Geo. Daly, for several years in charge of the Alta California printing office. It is pleasant to see enterprise and success among our neighboring contemporaries.
