CHOIR WILL SING IRRIGATION ODE

Tabernacle Choir With Eminent Soloists Will Present Masterpiece Tuesday Evening, Dec. 7.

(Special Correspondence.)
OGDEN, Dec. 4.—The famous Irrigation Ode is to be sung at the Tabernacle on Tuesday evening, Dec. 7, to which the public is invited. This splendid composition from the pen of one of Utah's leading musicians, John J. McClellan, with the beautiful and appropriate words of Mrs. McClellan, of Denver, Colorado, has made the Ogden Tabernacle choir famous, and large audiences have arisen as one man and cheered till they were hoarse. Demonstrations of this kind greeted the choir at Portland and Sacramento, and many times have Ogden audiences been entertained by this great and typical musical epic of the west. The choir has spent many weeks in preparing the ode, with the intention of singing it at the Land and Irrigation exposition at Chicago, and when it was decided to abandon the trip, several prominent local people urged the choir managers to sing it for the benefit of Ogden people. For the solo work, some of the best singers of the state have been selected, among these are Mrs. Harold Peery, Mr. Fred W. Graham and Mr.
H. S. Ensign, and as accompanist, Mr.
John J. McClellan. The program on Dec. 7, will be one of the best ever offered here.

MISS FLORA WILSON AT THE TABERNACLE

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—Tonight at the Tabernacle Miss Flora Wilson, daughter of Secy. of Agriculture James S. Wilson, will give a recital, to which the public is invited. Miss Wilson is a young woman of a very pleasing voice and has been well received throughout the country.
Last week she sang at the Shubert theater in Salt Lake City, and received some very flattering comments from the press. While in Ogden, Miss Wilson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Eccles.

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—L. P. Seath and C.
Street were fined $5 each in police court Friday morning for leaving their teams untied.
James Morgan charged with disturbing the peace, was dismissed as the complaining witness failed to appear.
John Doe Trollich, charged with selling tobacco to minors, was in court, but the case was continued owing to the fact that the attorneys handling the case failed to be in court.

RELIGION CLASS MUSICAL.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—The Religion class stake board of the Weber stake will give a musical and literary entertainment at the Fifth ward amusement public is invited.

BOOSTING CONVENTION.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—On every hand are evidences of "boosting" for the big National Wool Growers' convention, which will be held in Ogden in the forepart of January next. The various committees having charge of the convention are making every effort to make the convention the biggest affair ever held in Ogden.

UTAH SANITARIUM IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—Charles H. Barton has been appointed receiver of the Utah Sanitarium company by order of Judge Howell of the district court and the bond of $5000 has been approved.
The appointment of receiver for the property is the culmination of a long period of mismanagement, in which the business is said to have been a losing one for the owners, as well as for the lessees of the resort. The property of the Sanitarium company, consists of the hotel, bathhouses and 43 acres of land, lying just beyond the northern limit of Weber county, in Boxelder county.

TAKEN TO ASYLUM.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—Louis Marenelle, the insane Italian who was ordered committed to the state mental hospital at Provo by a medical examination board, was taken to that institution Friday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Murphy.

which $120,000 is paid by turning over to the corporation real estate by A. B.
Corey. The officers of the company are A. B. Corey, president; J. F. Smith, vice president; R. P. Roberts, secre-

$10,000 and divided into 100 shares, of which 50 have been subscribed for. The officers of the company are Seisaku Kurohshi, president; Kiso Kaji, vice president and general manager; and Segoro Yanagisawa, secretary and treasurer. These with Rokunosuke Terazawa and Hideo Sugawara are the incorporators and form the board of directors. The object of the company is to carry on a general real estate, brokerage, commission and produce business and the principal place of business is Ogden.

NEW CITY SCHOOL BUILDING.

OGDEN, Dec. 4.—At the meeting of the Ogden city school board last night it was decided to erect a new school building at Twenty-third street and Van Buren avenue, to relieve the congested condition of the schools in that section of the city.
The finance committee reported that there is a sufficient fund on hand to erect a building, which will probably be known as the Van Buren school. The board authorized an architect to prepare plans and estimates for a 12-room building, to be submitted before the first of the year. It is proposed to have the building ready for occupancy at the opening of the session next September.
A communication was received from the teachers of the city schools, asking that the Christmas holidays begin December 23, instead of Dec. 24. The petition was allowed.

1881, and they had nine children; one of them, a son, was killed a few years ago by an O. S. L. train running over

RICHFIELD MAN FOUND DEAD ON HAYSTACK

William H. Anderson Leaves Home For Load of Hay Where He Expires in Fit.

(Special to The News.)

Richfield, Dec. 4.—William H. Anderson, a farmer, 30 years old, was found dead on a haystack late yesterday afternoon, several miles from his home.
When found the body was lying face down on top of the stack of hay, with indications that he had perished as the result of a fit of epilepsy, to which he had been subject.
Yesterday morning he told his wife that he intended to hitch up his team and go to the field for a load of hay.
He left the house and, not returning in a reasonable length of time, his wife became worried and enlisted the help of a party of men who went out to search for Anderson. They went to the stack in the field, where they found the body of the man. A doctor was called and upon examining the body declared Anderson had been dead two hours when found. A wife and two children survive. An inquest is not considered necessary, as the cause of death is apparent. Anderson was a man of exemplary habits and well respected in the community.

ing that he would be at Colon at 2 a. m. Wednesday. As yet he is unheard from. A posse from Fairview was organized and search is being made for the missing man who, it is feared, has perished in the storm.

MAPLETON'S INITIATIVE FOR REMOVAL OF WEEDS

(Special Correspondence.)
Mapleton, Utah, Dec. 3.—As a result of meetings held here, great impetus has been given to the movement which will seek the enactment of a law by the next session of the legislature looking to the extermination of noxious weeds.
The sentiment of the meetings favors the general circulation of petitions to the legislature on the subject. It is the purpose of the promoters of the measure to have the enactment provide for the compulsory removal of noxious weeds, especially the Russian thistle, from the farm lands, fence lines and to the middle of the road by the owners of land so infested with the growth.
The spread of this weed and others, especially in Canada, has alarmed farmers who have had experience with pests of this sort and they declare that stringent remedial measures are necessary at once. The sessions were held at the Commercial club in Mapleton and among those who addressed the meetings were A. Johnson, R. Woodward and Wells Snow.

character of the deceased prominent in Church circles for years, having served as superintendent of the Sunday school as long as his health would permit. His

LIQUOR QUESTION IS UPPERMOST IN PROVO

(Special Correspondence.) PROVO, Dec. 4.—The question of how the county commissioners will treat the liquor license question in the county the coming year is the cause of considerable curiosity and anxiety. The present license is $600 a year, but the fact that all the cities in the county will go "dry" on the first of the year, and that the general sentiment among the people is in favor of prohibition—and in this the county commissioners are believed to be in accord with the citizens—will probably cause the license to be raised considerably, if it should be the opinion of the county commissioners that they cannot legally refuse to license. It is also probable that the commissioners will refuse to license and let the question of their rights in this matter be decided by the courts.

DEATH OF MISS NOIRA YOUNG.

PROVO, Dec. 4.—The death of Miss Noira Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar E. Young of this city, which occurred in Salt Lake city yesterday, was a cause of sorrow to the friends of the family here. Miss Young has been suffering from typhoid fever for several weeks, but late reports have been favorable of her recovery. She has for many years been one of the teachers of the public schools and has also been prominent in Church work.
She has endeavored herself to all with whom she has been associated and their sympathy goes out to the stricken family. The funeral will be held Sunday noon in the Eighteenth ward chapel, Salt Lake City.

INTERNATIONAL COMPLICATIONS.

PROVO, Dec. 4.—S. B. Glenn, held in the county jail on a charge of burglary, committed by entering a tent near Tucker in company with two other men, and taking a new coat and a claim he is being unjustly deprived of his liberty and wishes to invoke the aid of the British consul. The preliminary hearing before Justice Noon resulted in Glenn's "school" for the men accused being held to await the action of the district court. One of the men arrested entered a plea of guilty to petit larceny and was sentenced to serve 60 days in the county jail. He gave the evidence that was most effective in causing Glenn and his partner to be held.

hibit of its work and the exhibits will

SHOCKING CONDITION OF MURRAY STREETS

Main Street Impassable Through Work Of Trackmaking of Street Car System.

MURRAY, Dec. 4.—The session of the city council Tuesday night was devoted mostly to the discussion of the streets.
Main street especially is in such a condition that traffic is almost impassable.
The Utah Light & Power company has the street torn up clear through the city, but according to the report of the street committee the company is willing to make fills and excavations necessary to bring the street to a proper grade and will also put its tracks in line as soon as the Independent Telephone company's poles are moved, making the way clear. The streets are now frozen up and work is practically at a standstill. It will probably be late in the spring before State street can be put in a condition for resumed travel. How the streetcar company was granted the privilege of tearing the street up through the county at this season of the year, and not compelled to finish as it goes, is a question that is much discussed by the people of this city and county. It is a proper question for public discussion. The city council will probably take the question up again at the next meeting.

DEATH OF INFANT.

MURRAY, Dec. 4.—An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Olsen died Tuesday and the funeral will be held Sunday from the residence.

MURRAY LYCEUM COURSE.

MURRAY, Dec. 4.—The second number of the Murray Lyceum course will be given in the Murray First ward auditorium, this evening, Dec. 4.
This time the audience will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Houston in an evening of magic, musical imitations, impersonations of celebrities, and dramatic reading.

As a magician Mr. Houston is said to have no equals. He is an impersonator of first quality and his imitations of musical instruments, especially of the "Little German Band," is said to be little short of marvelous.
Of dramatic reading Mrs. Houston has made an art, and her readings from Riley's, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," Sheridan's, "School for Scandal," etc., always "take from the go." Murray is indeed to be congratulated in securing such able talent.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.

A surprise party was given in the Murray First Ward amusement hall Thursday evening in honor of G. M. served and a dancing party followed.

class of the South Cottonwood Sunday school will give an old time party in the ward house. Everybody in the ward should attend as an attempt will be made to set a proper standard in the conducting of amusements.

What Joy They Bring To Every Home as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially, and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy, and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it.
If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
