

DESERET EVENING NEWS

CHAS. W. TAYLOR, EDITOR.
TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1901.

NOTICE

The thirty-third Annual Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will commence at 10 o'clock, on Saturday morning, April 6th, 1901, in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City.

All Officers and Members of the Church are cordially invited to be present at the meetings.

WILLIAM WOODRUFF,
CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS,
JOURNAL T. SMITH,
First Presidency.

Special-It has been deemed advisable to give visitors to Conference an opportunity to enjoy a musical feast in the large Tabernacle on Friday night, April 5th, when they may hear the augmented choir (1000 strong) in their recent concert selections. Friends and friends would oblige by announcing this in their meetings next Monday, so that visitors may arrive here in good time.

The proceeds will be devoted to improving the choir, great organ and surroundings. Circles will be most with particular.

A GREAT MAN GONE.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Commander Daniel Hannon Wells, which occurred about one o'clock today. Father participation will be given to another column. This event will cause sadness among the people in all the world. Brother Wells was loved wherever he was known. He has been a prominent figure in the history of the Church ever since the first days of Nauvoo. He was a wise counselor, a valiant defender, a brave man, a faithful servant of God and a noble and loving husband and father. His family and all those who have sustained a warm love, and we mourn with them in this great bereavement.

LETTER-INTRO.

THE Christian Register, a religious paper published in Boston, gives as a place of starting news, that a "Catholic apostle" has actually held a memorial service in honor of George Washington in Salt Lake City. The service, the world is informed, "reverted the Theatre" on Washington's birthday and "made a deep impression." The further statement is made that "lack of patriotism" is "one of the chief evils of Mormonism," and that "Washington's birthday, for instance, has not been held worthy of honor."

We presume the Christian Register is speaking from hearsay. Of course no religious paper, published in so religious a center as Boston, would not willingly hear false witness against its neighbors. And we have no reason to believe that the Utahian minister who has been holding services in the Theatre-Hey, David Under-the-author of this libel upon the "admirable of Mormonism." Therefore, when we say that the statement of the Register is an utter falsehood, we make no reference to the gentleman himself nor convey the idea that the Register has wilfully misrepresented the "Mormons."

There is no part of the United States where the people hold in greater respect our founders of this nation and the defenders of its liberties than in the Territory of Utah. The names of George Washington and the prominent features of his career are familiar here to both old and young, and what is often referred to as a "Mormon Legionnaire" made of Washington's birthday a public holiday, which was celebrated here with waving flags, closed business, houses, services and rejoicing, before the "Utahian apostle" ever set foot on the soil of Salt Lake City.

We hope the Register will be "Christian" enough to make this correction of its error as to the patriotism of the "Mormons." Still we cannot expect it to do so, as we have found by experience that while it is common for religious papers to say a great many things about the "Mormons" which are utterly untrue, it is so uncommon as to be almost without an example for them to publish or refer to any refutation of their incorrect assertions.

THE "TIMES"

The Salt Lake Times has changed owners. That is to say a controlling interest in the stock of the company has been secured by some gentlemen not before identified with the paper. They come from Colorado. They announce their faith in the future of this city, and particularly in the mining interests, which they regard as chiefly contributory to the city's welfare. And they intend to work for the material advancement of Salt Lake in the lines which appear to them the most feasible.

They say: "Politically the Times will continue regardless upon all national questions, while cordially co-operating with the liberal party here." It is well to know where a paper stands and who may be expected of it. And this plain expression of its political position will be duly appreciated. They say further: "The paper will always aim to be fair and just." This is encouraging, but would be more so if it were not coupled with its first quoted statement. Whether or not it is possible for a paper that is "liberal" in a local sense to be fair and just remains to be seen. We hope the new management is to be not only "fair and just," but a potent force in advancing the true interests of this city and Territory, and in bringing about that harmony of sentiment and purpose which is essential to permanent and rapid progress and prosperity.

One of the great cities of ancient Egypt was known to the people who inhabited it as Thebes, but to the Hebrews it was known as No-Amon and to the Greeks as Thebes. It was the capital of Upper Egypt. Its ruins are the most extensive of any of the ancient cities. The Nile flows through these ruins dividing them into four sections.

The most prosperous period in the history of this city dates from 1800 to 1000 years B. C. At this time it had a population of about 500,000. It was the seat of the Egyptian empire.
