

DAY OF FUNERALS IN CHICAGO.

Unprecedented Demand for Carriages Made it Impossible for All to Bury Their Dead.

SNOW ADDED TO DIFFICULTIES.

Cemeteries Were Compelled to Keep Men at Work All Night Digging Graves.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Today was a day of funerals in Chicago, and yet many were unable to bury their dead. The unprecedented demand for hearses and carriages would have been enough in itself to task the very utmost resources of the undertakers, but the heavy snow that has fallen during the last two days has increased their difficulties enormously. All of the cemeteries in Chicago are miles from the business center and resident districts and with good weather and the streets in passable condition it is a matter of several hours to reach any of them. Today, when every hearse was in demand, it required about twice as long to reach a cemetery as under normal conditions. Arrangements were made by the undertakers to have as many funerals as possible held in the early part of the day, in order to allow, if possible, the use of the hearse for a single funeral in the afternoon. In many instances families who waited for the return of the hearse were disappointed and were compelled to defer the burial of their loved ones. It is expected that by tomorrow the streets will be in such a condition as to permit of the passage of funerals in almost the ordinary time.

The cemeteries were compelled to keep men at work all through the night digging graves, and in some of the larger cemeteries they barely managed to make them with sufficient speed. At one time today a hearse was in progress in the Hill cemetery, where the victims of Wednesday's fire, all of whom were buried, were laid out in the rooms of one undertaker a fraternal organization held service over five members of their order at the same time. The funeral service over the remains of Ella and Edith Freckleton, sisters, were held in Boulevard hall. Fully 2,000 people were in attendance, and 500 more stood outside in the biting wind. The funeral was held at the residence of the family, where the body of the deceased was lying in state.

In the home of the millionaire manufacturer, Ludwig Wolff, was held the quadruple funeral of his daughter, Mrs. William H. Garn, and her three children. A crowd of more than 1,000 people surrounded the house and the police were compelled to open a passageway for the palanquins.

The funeral was one of the largest ever seen on the west side of the city. A funeral conducted in a humble manner was held a few squares from the Wolff residence at the same time. It was that of Mrs. Mary W. Holst and her three children, all of whom died in the ill-fated second-story balcony. Mrs. Holst was a sister of ex-Chief of Police Baderhohn, and it was he who identified the bodies of the mother and her three children. Fully as many people were present at the funeral as at the Wolff residence. The funeral was held in the small frame church in which this funeral gathering was held, and here the police were compelled to open a passageway for the palanquins as they were borne to the hearse.

These are but instances of what happened throughout the length and breadth of Chicago today. Multiply the funerals mentioned by twenty and a fair idea can be obtained of the first Sabbath day in the new year.

The list of dead was increased to 588 today by the deaths of Leroy Rainbolt, a boy of 4 years, who was severely burned, and of the ten bodies at the county morgue, four were identified today. They were:

Fall, Mrs. Mary A. Ludwig, 50.
Lemmer, Dorothy 13 years.
Rush, Emma 7 years.

The injured, of whom there is any record now number 102, although the number of those who were hurt slightly would swell this number greatly. Names of those who were injured after the fire without reporting themselves to the police as injured.

Outside of the numerous funerals that were held today, it was the first day that the city has known since last Wednesday afternoon. Less than 200 people called at the office of the chief of police for permits to visit morgues, and few people were at the hospitals.

John Schmidt, the stage hand who was left upon the reflector that prevented the asbestos curtain from descending, is still being held by the police. He is believed to be in hiding in the city, but the chief of police reports that he has not been seen.

CHICAGO MAN'S WEIGHT RECORD.
Lost Forty Pounds—Then Regained Then By Taking Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.

Months of acute suffering! Reduced to almost a skeleton! Pain, headache, health restored; flesh regained—through Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.

J. H. Roberts, of 21 Quincy street, Chicago, says:

"For about eight months I was troubled with a very severe form of indigestion and endured intense suffering, losing about forty pounds in weight. After trying all kinds of preparations and also treating with physicians without result, I at last tried Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets and with the first dose, though at first I had no effect, after using two boxes I found myself almost entirely cured and now, after using four boxes, I have regained my weight and am entirely well."

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing. The absence of this destroys the functions of the gastric glands. They lose their power to digest food.

Thanks to the recent discovery of a group of famous specialists we are now able to supply the missing element—to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to make the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will positively and permanently cure this disease, no matter how bad it is.

We want you to try them, and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.
Price 25c, 45c and $1.00 per box at our store only or by mail.

received an intimation from his friends that Schmidt will be ready when he is wanted as a witness at the coroner's inquest next Thursday.

There were no more arrests of members of the "Bluebeard" company today, and no more are expected unless there are unexpected developments.

Asst. Chief of Police Schuester declared today that no further obstacle would be placed in the way of members of the company who desired to leave the city.

"I have been assured by Klaw & Erlanger," he said, "that any member of the company who is wanted as a witness will be returned from New York, and with that understanding, I have ordered that there be no further interference with the departure of the company."

Mayor Harrison said tonight: "I intend to hold a meeting of all the aldermen, and if possible, of all theatrical managers also. I want to talk over with them what is best to be done. So far I have acted upon my own responsibility without consulting anyone. There are one or two theaters that could open tomorrow by placing firemen upon the stage, but they must do that. As far as I am personally concerned, not one theater shall open its doors in this city until it has complied with the last letter of the ordinance."

The mayor said he had heard nothing of a rumor that a warrant was to be taken out for his arrest.

"I cannot say," he said, "what a man who has lost all of his family in a fire like that of Wednesday will do. He could hardly be held responsible for his actions."

EXPLOSION WRECKS HALL.
Thirty People Were More or Less Injured.

Woodbridge, N. J., Jan. 3.—An explosion wrecked the hotel and hall of Joseph Galaldi, and more or less injured thirty persons at Kensington, four miles from here, today, while the St. John Benevolent society was celebrating its anniversary by a dance. There were about 500 in the hall, and the explosion was caused by a gas leak from the kitchen. The people became panic-stricken and fought to get out, many being trampled on and seriously injured.

Galaldi was burned about the head and neck, and his wife was thrown against the ceiling and fell unconscious to the floor. One of Miss Gertrude Ellen's eyes was destroyed, her nose broken and her jaw dislocated. She may not recover. Fonger's arm was torn off at the elbow.

It is believed that some one with a grievance against Galaldi or the society used dynamite. The hall and the building were blown apart, and it may collapse.

Senator Depew's Brother Dead.
Detroit, Jan. 3.—Lawrence Depew, brother of United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew of New York, and one of the most prominent citizens of Detroit, fell dead at his home here today of heart disease.

Three Boys Frozen to Death.
Bad Axe, Mich., Jan. 3.—Three boys, aged about 10 years, the sons of fishermen, were frozen to death during last night's terrible storm, being lost in the blinding snow.

Intense Cold in New York.
New York, Jan. 3.—Clear skies and biting cold, with a strong northerly wind, ruled all last night and yesterday, resulting in a total fall of from eight to ten inches, the heaviest of the season. While there was little interruption of street traffic today owing to the constant use of snowplows during the continuance of the storm, the service on railroads entering the city was badly crippled, several limited trains being from four to eight hours late.

Many cases of frostbite and exhaustion from exposure were treated at the hospitals. One man was found unconscious in a snowdrift in Second avenue and others were found frozen to death in a drift on Sixth street.

Rufus Blanchard Dead.
Chicago, Jan. 4.—Rufus Blanchard, osteographer and historian, and for many years a prominent citizen of Chicago, is dead at his home in Wheaton, Ill., aged 82 years. Mr. Blanchard had an international reputation as a maker of maps. He was the oldest mapmaker in the United States. Mr. Blanchard was also an extensive writer on historical subjects.

LITTLE JAPAN MEANS BUSINESS.

It Looks as Though War With Russia in the Near Future Was Unavoidable.

UNITED STATES IS INTERESTED.

No Secret in Europe That Its Position in Present Crisis is Highly Problematical.

London, Jan. 4.—"Don't look for a declaration of war," says the Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent, in a dispatch which apparently throws considerable light on the plans of the Japanese government. Continuing, the correspondent says:

"The Japanese are quite determined, and several days ago took steps to secure certain of their Korean interests. Russia will not be allowed to occupy Korean ports, and certainly neither Mokpo nor Masampo, both of these ports being protected against seizure."

"Japan means business without waiting for the convenience of others. If Russia feels aggrieved, a fortnight should show the extent to which she will venture. The interest should be to center nearer Seoul than Tokyo within 10 days, but the naval overtures may retard the pace."

"It is thought, despite her bluster, that Russia will take no immediate action to prevent Japan doing what she thinks proper to safeguard her interests in Korea."

The foregoing probably refers to the dispatch of the squadron to Masampo. Admiral Kuroki's squadron consists of the armored cruisers Asama, Tokiwa, Adzuma, Izumoe, Iwate and Yakumo, all with a speed of from 20 to 22 knots.

According to the Standard's Tokyo correspondent, Japan, at the end of December, notified the powers and the United States of the actual position of the negotiations at the same time intimating that the continued occupation of Manchuria might compel Japan to take decisive steps for the protection of her vital interests in Korea.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Shanghai asserts that the warship, or Chinese foreign boat, has received a definite communication from St. Petersburg to the effect that Russia intends to retain Manchuria.

The Standard's Tian Tsin correspondent says that as a result of Japan's inquiries as to China's attitude in the event of war, it is stated the throne has issued secret orders to Chinese troops to assist the Japanese. It is proposed that a Chinese army of 40,000 men under Japanese officers would in that case proceed to the Liao Tung peninsula.

The Daily Graphic claims to have the highest authority to deny that Germany has entered into any understanding with Russia or any other power affecting her neutrality in the event of a Russo-Japanese war.

The Daily Mail is authority for the statement that King Edward greatly admires the Japanese and is using every effort in the direction of peace.

The Chefoo correspondent of the Morning Post cables as follows: "Under the impression that the laying of the foundation of the Standard Oil company's new premises here was a bluff designed to cover the erection of a fort, Russia sent a cruiser to investigate the matter. The officers landed and took measurements, after which they proceeded to Port Arthur. In view of the fact that it is alleged that Russia covets Chefoo."

The Tokyo Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent says: "Russia has sent a further reply to Japan. I understand it is of a non-committal character, making merely for delay."

SITUATION CRITICAL.
London, Jan. 4.—Cabling under date of Jan. 2, the Times' Tokyo correspondent says:

"The situation is extremely critical. Russia maintains a profound silence. Calling for no conciliatory action on the part of Russia, which there is now no appearance whatever, Japan will certainly adopt within a few days active measures to secure her vital interests. After this, war will become very difficult to avert."

The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent announces that the British cruiser Sirius has been ordered to Changhai as a precaution against disturbances in Seoul, but that the warship will not land forces unless requested to do so by the British consul for the purpose of protecting the legation.

The Times' Shanghai correspondent says that both the Russian and the Japanese are buying silver, principally in dollars, in Shanghai and Hongkong, for shipment to the north.

The same correspondent says that a native journal is publishing the full text of telegrams which passed between Li Hung Chang and the tsung li yamen (Chinese foreign office) in April, 1895, when Li Hung Chang was at St. Petersburg arranging for a Manchurian railway convention. These dispatches show that Russia threatened to ally herself with Japan unless she was granted facilities to construct the railway, which she represented as intended to facilitate the dispatch of troops for the protection of Russian and Chinese territory against the aggression of other powers, principally Japan. The local Japanese officials are profoundly impressed with these documents, which, says the correspondent, are undoubtedly genuine.

He adds that the publication of the documents will have a most serious effect on the Russo-Japanese situation.

THE RUSSIAN ANSWER.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.—Diplomatic circles confidently expect that the Russian answer to the Japanese proposals will be handed to the Japanese foreign office by Baron de Rosen, Russian ambassador to Japan, within a very few days, and do not expect grave results to follow.

In other quarters the conciliatory attitude of both governments inspires belief that the answer will pave the way to further negotiations if, indeed, it does not directly lead to a pacific settlement of the trouble.

The characteristic note in the press today is the doubt about the attitude of the United States in the event of a war between Russia and Japan.

The Brewster-Yedonist elaborates upon American power in the Pacific and the proximity of the Philippines and Formosa, and says:

"It is no secret to anyone in Europe that the position of the United States in the east Asiatic crisis remains highly problematical."

ARELIABLE MEDICINE

A Reporter of the News Interviews Our Local Druggists, Druehl and Frank and Smith Drug Co.

The Interview of Interest to Every Person in Salt Lake City.

So many patent medicines and advertised cures are now offered to the public that one is almost at a loss to know the opinion of men who have spent years in handling them, and profit by their advice.

Said Mr. Druehl of Druehl & Frank, "After having sold drugs and sold and under the name of medicines for so many years, naturally we have learned something about them, their value, and power to cure."

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but this I do know, that if the people of Salt Lake City only realized the wonderful curative and strength-creating power of Vinol, we would not have clerks enough in our stores to put up the orders for it.

Continued Mr. Druehl, "You see Vinol is not a patent medicine, and it actually does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal cures taken from French cods' lives, with other vitalizing ingredients. It contains no poisonous drugs or nauseating oil, and you know just what you are taking. Vinol has wonderful life-giving properties; it tones up and invigorates every part of the body, and we know it will make rich, red blood, build up the depleted system and create strength."

"When I tell you that we have never sold in our store such a valuable remedy as Vinol for the following ailments, and that if it fails to accomplish what we say it will, we will refund your money, it will show our faith in its wonderful curative and vitalizing powers."

"It will build up run-down, tired, debilitated people. It will make the weak and sickly strong and well. It will make flesh for thin people. It will increase the appetite. It will cure nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness. It will cure stomach troubles, dyspepsia and indigestion. It will make weak, run-down, and in many cases weak, pain-ailing children strong and robust. It is the greatest strengthener and body builder in the world for old people. It is a great strengthener for women, and is a boon to nursing mothers. It will positively cure chronic coughs and colds. It cures bronchitis. It makes weak lungs strong and is of untold value in consumption and all wasting diseases. For the convalescent it has no equal as a strength maker."

"We cannot make a stronger statement and can only ask such people in Salt Lake City to try Vinol on our guarantee."

documents cannot fail to intensify Japanese irritation.

The sympathy in connection with the situation in the far east is at last beginning to be felt on the Paris bourse, with the result that Russian bonds, which have only fallen about 3 cents since September last, are now affected by the depressing influence surrounding the foreign market.

On the stock exchange Chinese securities have been heavily sold on Berlin account, but the Berlin bourse is still quiet, and an extreme gloom of opening of the year the volume of the week's business has been of the smallest.

WAR SEEMS INEVITABLE.
Peking, Jan. 3.—In the various foreign legations here the opinion is prevalent that war between Japan and Russia is inevitable. This opinion is based on the latest dispatch from Tokyo and upon the conviction that it is not a question of detail which separates Russia and Japan, but the vital principle whether Japan possesses the right to a voice in the settlement of questions of Russian occupation of Manchuria, Russia has all along denied this right, and unless her reply shows that she has receded from the position, which is not expected, the crisis is probably will provoke an ultimatum from Japan, whose determination to resort to arms in support of her claim is unquestioned.

Advices from Manchuria represent the Russian officials there as being surprised at Japan's readiness to fight. They expected that she would submit at the last moment, as she did in 1895, when she surrendered Port Arthur at the voice of the European coalition.

The Russian officials rely for support on the same powers that aided the Russian government on that occasion. Moreover, the Russians have confidence in their ability to win in the event of war. Among the junior officers this feeling takes the form of despising the enemy.

Gen. Yuan Shai Kai, commander-in-chief of the Chinese army and navy, has made a public prayer, praying to be relieved of all his minor offices so that he may devote all his energies to the reorganization of the army.

While the government is determined to remain neutral as long as possible, it fully recognizes the possibilities of becoming involved in the event of war.

EVERYTHING LOOKS GLOOMY.
Washington, Jan. 3.—Cablegrams received today from Tokyo show the situation in the far east to be unchanged, and at a late hour tonight it was declared at the Japanese legation that nothing had occurred to dispel the gloomy view taken there and the prospect of peace. The fact that Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, regards the situation as extremely critical does not prevent him from hoping that a way may yet be found by which the questions between Russia and Japan may be settled without recourse to arms. The Japanese government, it is said, is not anxious for war, and throughout the negotiations has endeavored to remain neutral as long as possible. It is added, will await patiently the Russian reply and will not delay after receiving the note in announcing her future course. It is said that substantial concessions must be forthcoming from Russia in Korea, that will offset the jurisdiction which Russia claims in Manchuria if war is to be averted. The Russian government has been urged to reply promptly.

JAPAN MUST TAKE SHIPS.
Rome, Jan. 3.—Italy has insisted that the Japanese government shall take possession of the Kasaga and Nisami, the warships built at Genoa for the Argentine republic and purchased by Japan. In the event of a war, the Japanese government desires to prevent the Russian government from being compelled to ask for the confiscation of these vessels in the event of a conflict, as the Italian navy maintains the strictest neutrality.

THE RUSSIAN ANSWER.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.—Diplomatic circles confidently expect that the Russian answer to the Japanese proposals will be handed to the Japanese foreign office by Baron de Rosen, Russian ambassador to Japan, within a very few days, and do not expect grave results to follow.

In other quarters the conciliatory attitude of both governments inspires belief that the answer will pave the way to further negotiations if, indeed, it does not directly lead to a pacific settlement of the trouble.

The characteristic note in the press today is the doubt about the attitude of the United States in the event of a war between Russia and Japan.

The Brewster-Yedonist elaborates upon American power in the Pacific and the proximity of the Philippines and Formosa, and says:

"It is no secret to anyone in Europe that the position of the United States in the east Asiatic crisis remains highly problematical."

Rus, a new journal made up of former employees of the Novoe Vremya, handles the theme in a similar manner.

The Novoe Vremya expresses ill-will toward the United States in a long leader about the alleged instructions given American consuls in Russia to report on the prospects of renewed anti-Semitic disorders, and in a curiously editorialized account of the sale of the Manchurian railway, either to the United States or China, which it declares is advocated in some quarters here.

All the newspapers here today copy from the organ of the war ministry a belated, and therefore all the more significant, order of the day published by Admiral Alexieff, after the fall maneuvers and parade at Port Arthur, highly praising the troops and declaring that some who had just finished a 12 days' march had arrived in magnificent condition.

The Novorai says that a Chinese attack is unlikely and reprints a Chinese newspaper story that Russia has 2,000 Cossacks and 2,500 Mongolian soldiers at Urga.

CONVENTION OF JEWS.

One to be Held to Consider Condition of Jews in Russia.

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—A largely attended meeting under the auspices of the Jewish League of America was held in the synagogue B'nai Abraham here today, at which it was decided to hold a national convention in this city of all the societies of Jews interested in Russia. Among those present were Jacob Saperstein, J. Mozesko, M. Siroto and Louis Kass, representing the Kishineff relief committee of New York. A temporary organization was formed in order to prepare plans for the convention. Rabbi H. Leventhal of this city was elected temporary chairman.

It is proposed that the national committee devise ways and means for the prevention of outrages similar to the Kishineff massacre and to assist those who desire to leave countries where they are persecuted and go to other parts of the world, preferably to this country.

Sympathy for Chicago.
Washington, Jan. 3.—Mr. Du Marthray, the Swiss minister, in accordance with a cablegram received from the president of the Swiss federation, has expressed to this government the heartfelt sympathy of the federal council in the Jewish life at Chicago.

On behalf of his government and people, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, Mr. Hengemuller, has expressed to this government profound sympathy for the sufferers in the Chicago fire.

Revolution in Uruguay.
Buenos Ayres, Jan. 3.—A dispatch from Montevideo says that a revolution has broken out in the department of Maldonado, and that a state of siege has been proclaimed throughout the entire republic of Uruguay.

An associated Press dispatch from Montevideo, Jan. 2, said Uruguay was much disturbed, and that a combined movement of the Blanco party was feared.

Intense Cold in New England.
Boston, Jan. 3.—With the mercury hovering around the zero mark in this city, when it reached an extreme of 25 degrees below in northern Maine, with a foot of snow piling up at exposed points in huge drifts that delayed railroad traffic, caused the abandonment of street railway schedules, and in many cases interfered with the street lighting systems, New England slowly emerges today from the clutches of the wildest blizzard that has swept this part of the country since the memorable storm of November, 1898.

The gale, accompanied by a blinding fall of snow, swept the coast from Newport, R. I., to Eastport, Me., until noon today, when it moved eastward, and tonight was raging with almost unprecedented violence over the maritime provinces. New Brunswick and Nova Scotia suffered the most.

Double patrols of life-savers are watching the coast tonight, as they have for the past thirty hours. Only a few boats are out.

Vocabulary of Mexican Languages
Mexico City, Jan. 3.—Dr. William Bauer, the German ethnologist, who has been studying the southern tribes in the interior of Mexico for the royal museum of ethnology of Berlin, has compiled a remarkably complete vocabulary of languages spoken by the different tribes.

One of the most interesting tribes is the Mizeres, composing some 20,000 persons, among whom are many fair-haired and light-skinned people. Tradition recounts that they are descended from the Teutons of Europe. The race is quite distinct from any other of the Mexicans and is noted for its physical strength.
