county jall, whither he had been re-moved. It was found necessary to manacle the man to prevent him from further carrying out his de-termination and he was placed in a padded cell. Shortly after noon Foster secured a piece of string from a towel which had been given him. This he tied around his wrist in hopes of being able to open an artery. A few minutes after he was discovered trying to do this, he attempted to strangle himself by stuffing a piece of cloth down his throat. Being baffled in this he took a tin cup which he had at lunch time and tore the rim off and attempted to slash his forearm with the sharp edge of the cup.

to slash his forearm with the sharp edge of the cup. After the many wounds were attend-ed by Dr. Gordon, county phylsician, the man was fixed up with the "muff," which was kept on him for several hours until he became quiet. The wound in his neck, cut with a piece of wire at the city jail on Thursday af-ternoon, is still considered serious.

HOLDUPS CAPTURED.

HOLDUPS CAPTURED. Four holdups occurred in quick suc-cession in Ogden last night, and short-ly after the last one was committed three men were in the city jail, charg-ed with the various crimes. They gave their names as John Chambers, John McGuire and Thomas M. Den-ning. The last named acknowledged his guilt, while the others are loud in protesting innocence. The police, how-ever, believe they have the right men The first man robbed was George Naismith. He was knocked down by a blow from a revolver, and a watch Naismith. He was knocked down by a blow from a revolver, and a watch and 10 cents were taken from him. William Camerford was the next vic-tim, he losing a timeplece and $3.50 on the east bench. Shortly after this, William Draney, while walking on Grant avenue was relieved of a watch and 75c. The name of the other victim was not given, but a police call was sent in stating that a man had just been robbed of $19, near Lester park. Immediately upon receipt of the last message, Officers George Wardlaw and Bob Burke started in the direction of the park, and meeting three suspicious men, placed them under arrest. The trio named were taken to jail, and the stolen property was found on their per-sons.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.

All is in readiness for the big Labo day celebration on Monday, which will probably be the largest that was ever celebrated in this city. According to the lengthy program which the general committee of the trades and labor asthing doing from early in the morning until late at night.

until late at night. The big feature of the day will be the arrival of Debs' "Red Special" and the speech to be delivered at Glenwood park by the Socialist nominee for president, which will be in the form of a labor address.

The mammoth parade in the morning will also be one of the features. To make the contest for floats keen, the man, made three more efforts to take committee has appointed a sub-com-his life yesterday afternoon at the mittee, which will award several prizes

..... for the most elaborate floats and the for the most elaborate hoats and the best appearing union. In the morning at Glenwood park special exercises will be held, to be fol-lowed by athletic games. In the after-noon there will be a baseball game in the ball park. The celebration will close with a grand ball in the evening.

INDUSTRIAL BOARD MEETS. The regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the state industrial school was held at the institution late yesterday afternoon. A few special matters weree disposed of, with the regular routine work.

but rooms where the girls could be placed during bad behavior. A few oth-er slight changes were also ordered in the plans. The action of H. S. Joseph of the board in asking Dr. T. B. Beatty of the state board of health to visit the school and investigate the health conditions, was ratified. This action was deemed expedient on account of criticism that may arise relative to the numerous cases of contagion that have been re-ported from the school. Inmate Harry Wood of Salt Lake City was discharged. A number of ap-plications for parole were denied. TRAINWASTER MACLERED the plans.

TRAINMASTER MCCARTY DEAD.

TRAINMASTER McCARTY DEAD. John E. McCarty, trainmaster of the Southern Pacific, died at the family residence in this city, 2364 Adams ave-nue, yesterday afternoon from Bright's disease, from which he had been suffer-ing for the past three weeks. For many years the deceased was a passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific and was later made trainmaster on the Carlin division. After the death of E. S. Luty, about six months ago, he was made general trainmaster over the entire Salt Lake division. Mr. McCarty was about 50 years of age and is survived by a wife and four children, the latter being Mrs. E. J. Hudson, Helen, John and William Mc-Carty.
