

OGDENITES WON SATURDAY'S GAME

Stack Up Thirteen Runs to Short Lines Five.

LOCALS' POOR FIELDING.

Kimmerer's Support Was Virtually No Support at All. Hanson Picked a Splendid Game Throughout.

The Short Lines and Ogden teams played a game at Walker's Saturday afternoon. The same old story, as regards the result, must be chronicled again. The "lobsters" went up and the tailenders down. It was just possible that the Short Lines would not have been down so far had it not been for the miserable support accorded Kimmerer. The Ogden crowd got eighteen hits off him, but it was not Kimmerer's fault by any means.

The fielding of the home team, to say the least, was very poor. There is little to tell of Saturday's game. Berkeley was the star hitter for the rear guards, making two three-baggers, scoring three of their total of five runs. Hanson pitched a splendid game, and was supported splendidly by the "lobsters." It was a long run, jump and gather-in. Asbury was on first and Berkeley on second. The latter got a good one from Hanson and sent it out to right. Asbury smiled to himself and spread his arms for third, but struck a rock. He then shot it to second and little Asbury went out. So did the side. Bluth got four hits and scored two runs. Berkeley, the catcher from Denver, his decisions were not always greeted with tumultuous howling, but all endeavored to be fair. No one can dispute that. This is a detailed score of the game:

Both home teams lost yesterday and Pocatello now holds second place in the championship honors. The Short Lines journeyed to the Pocatello City yesterday and played the losers' game. Of course they were defeated. But the Ogden crowd didn't find it so easy to do yesterday as they did the day previous at Walker's park.

The home team only got two runs from the Ogden team, simply rose above their defeat. The game was perfect and at the conclusion of the game their score card was erroneous.

SPORTING NOTES.

HE Rio Grande team has a little show now of wearing the champion's medal. At the beginning of the season Hickey's were expected to be sent to the States. The field work is almost perfect in every game, and it is seldom if ever they become rattled. Their work is even and steady at all times, and together they are hard fellows to down.

On Monday, the 23rd, the famous old Rio Grande team, the Volunteers for the benefit of the Volunteer monument fund.

Saturday afternoon at Provo the Bankers of Salt Lake defeated the Provo team in fast game of baseball. After the game the moped men returned to Salt Lake. The score was 14 to 4 in favor of the Bankers.

The amateurs did not appear to do battle with the professionals at Walker's field yesterday as pre-arranged. Over 100 people were disappointed.

Iver Lawson and John Chapman may have a couple of pretty hard teams to go against tomorrow night. J. P. Gunn and W. B. Vaughn compose one of the Turville, Charlie and Clem, the other.

If the Salt Lake management would put on one more cycle race, say five miles, for Thursday evening in addition to the wrestling match, it would insure a big crowd. The motive here is to draw the crowd, and will draw crowds like the bursting of a moose's barrel does flies.

The race management is contemplating something new in the line of amateur racing. It is thought that a five mile open motor-paced amateur would be about "it."

While he was in bathing, the door of his room was opened, and the money and watch taken. President Hess of Davis county was in Salt Lake today. He reports that conditions are very unpropitious there. Said he: "Water is very low and everything is exceedingly dry. As to our second crop of lucern—well, there is none. If we can save our fruit trees by hauling water to them we will consider ourselves fortunate. We expect a fair fruit crop, though many of our old trees have given out, while the new ones are not bearing much yet."

President Hess has been a pretty sick man for a considerable time, and though not well yet his friends will be pleased to learn that he is gradually improving.
