there. "We have just adjusted the trouble there with the illinois Central railroad." he added, "and a uniform rate of 25 cents an hour will be made throughout the system for machinists and an increase of 5 per cent in wages of all other shop employes." P. J. Colon, of Sloux City, member of the board, says the Union Iron works and the Fulton Iron works in San Francisco doubtless will resist the demand.

As a result of the meeting of the gen-eral officers the following address to the craft was drafted and made public onight

"In the majority of crafts-both skilled and the so-called unskilled-the effort and the so-called unskilled—the effort for shorter hours has been uniformly successful, and they have, for a num-ber of years enjoyed the pleasures that come with greater leisure. Machinists, owing to the fact of their isolation in the past in the labor movements, have not enjoyed this right and privilege until now, after a decade of education, they have concluded that the time has arrived when they, too, should share in the same enjoyments. In reaching in the same enjoyments. In reaching this conclusion, and in seeking similar favors, they know they are not stretch-ing their demands beyond the bounds of reason, or seeking something to which they have no valid claim. "More than a quarter of a century ago our brother craftsmen in Great Britain secured a nine-hour day, and it is conceded by all manufacturing machinists who have given the ques-tion the least study, that the American tion the least study, that the American machinists produce more per diem, even on an eight-hour day basis, than does his brother craftsmen in that country. Such being the case, it is eminently proper and strictly in accordance with the spirit of the times, that the ma-chinists of the United States, Canada and Mexico should make a concerted movement in the same direction. The time has come, the moment is ripe, and the demand is now made.

"To the uninitiated a few words explanatory of the position the machin-ist occupies in the domain of productive labor, and in connection with a shorter work day, may not be out of place; 'Owing to the peculiar nature of our 'Owing to the peculiar nature of our trade and the great inroads made into it by the introduction of more perfect machinery, a great deal more is now produced than ever. This increased production continues to increase with the succeeding years, but in spite of this no material or permanent increase in wages has been secured by the man who manipulates the machine. He pro-vho manipulates the machine. He proluces more, but receives no more than he did formerly. Now the demand is made for a fairer share of what we produce, by shortening the work day y one hour without any decrease it

This demand is not made without lue warning. Twelve months ago notice was served on the manufacturers of the Inited States that on Monday, May 20 901, the International Association of Machinists would demand a nine-hour day, and that if the demand was not granted, its members and those in sympathy with them would suspend labor until the demand was granted. We do not advocate a strike, with all the at-tendant mistakes of the past, but merely a peaceful cessation of labor until we can start work on a nine-hour day

City Council Has Franchise Matter Before It for a Time,

QUESTION DELAYED A WEEK

Maximum Rates of the New Companies-Declaration That the Old Co. is Operating Without Franchise.

Councilman Fernstrom sprung a surprise at the meeting of the council committee on laws last night when the matter of granting a franchise to one or other of the projected telephone companies, the Salt Lake Mutual or the Utah Home, was up for consideration. The councilman from the Third made the statement, and stuck to it that the Bell Telephone company did not have a franchise in Salt Lake City. There was a good deal of incredibility regarding Mr. Fernstrom's statement, but that gentleman insisted that at the time the Bell company applied for a franchise the city demanded that the company run a hundred miles of its wires in underground conduits. The company demurred and although agreement was ever come to the com-pany went ahead and put in its telephone system, minus the underground wires. City Attorney Stephens was requested to look the matter up, and the proposition of granting franchises was passed for a week.

The maximum rates proposed by the new companies are $42 for the Mutual and $48 for the Home, but the latter proposes to pay the city 5 per cent of its gross receipts while the former of-fers only 3. The maximum of the Bell is $90. The rate for residences proposed the Home company is $30. The Mutual proposes a cental of $36 in the business district with $6 added for each half mile outside of the one mile radlus,

In many cases of disease of the nose and throat, if neglected and unchecked, instead of extending down into the bronchial tubes, extend along the esophagus, or swallow, into the stomach.

The mucous discharge is dropped in the throat from the back part of the nose, and in the daytime is hawked up and expelled,

At night the nauseating material still continues to drop into the throat.

It first collects in the pharynx, then it is brought into contact with the foul and impure air from the lungs, and is mixed with the germs of decay.

Decomposition results, and in this condition the vile material is swallowed while asleep, and goes to the stomach.

The decomposing discharges so swallowed are poisons-not deadly ones, but poisons, nevertheless, which act slowly but surely, undermining the patient's constitution.

The thousands of little glands situated in the lining are free to pour out the fulces that are needed to digest the food in the healthy stomach.

With disease attacking the lining of the stomach, the little glands are choked up by the swelling, and their exit is blocked by the sticky mucous which has resulted from the inflammation.

As a consequence there is not enough digestive juices formed and poured out into the cavity of the stomach.

The food not having the necessary materials to dissolve, lles in the stomach like lead.

Instead of being converted into nourishment for the blood, it is changed into poisonous gasses, which distend the stomach, dilating it so that the organs press upward on the heart and lungs. This causes a sense of smothering, relief from which is only obtained by belching up the gas or its passage along the bowels, where it causes a sense of distention and rumbling.

There is nausea, and sometimes vomiting, in the morning, with hawking and gagging upon arising, and it requires an effort to free the stomach of the mass of mucous that has accumulated during the night.

Washington, May 17 .- The executive board of the National Association of Machinists assembled here this aftertives from Boston, New York, Chicago, Toronto and Sioux City. They will act in both advisory and judicial capacities during the threatened strike and will be in readiness to send out to different cities where executive officers may be needed to manage the local situation. President O'Connell said there was no possibility of averting the general strike.

From the statements of the executive board it develops that the most trouble is expected at Cincinnati, San Francisco and the Northern Pacific coast cities. J. J. Donnelly, the Boston representative on the board, says there will be very little trouble in New Eng-land. Hugh Doran, of Chicago says there will not be over 500 men on strike

WORK DON'T HURT. Poor Selection of Food is the Cause of Break-Downs.

Many men, and women too, feel that their work is the cause of symptoms of nervous break-down, but work is not the cause, as any one can prove to their entire satisfaction, by leaving off the food they have been trying to subsist on, and taking in its place food made for the express purpose of rebuilding the brain and nerve centers in the body and supplying other portions with suf-ficient nourishment and keep right on with the same work and get well and strong. An illustration is given in the case of F. A. Whitely, Supt. of the Public Schools at Excelsior, Minn. He is also a student and teacher of hygiene. He "This spring at the beginning of the last month of school, I was very much run down, and since my duties are quite confining. I naturally ascribed my condition to that. "I discovered that I made the same mistake that many do. It is not work, but a lack of proper food that causes break-down. Wife went visiting at this time and I concluded to get my own meals for a time. The grocer sug-gested that I use a ready cooked food known as Grape-Nuts. I found the food delicious, requiring no cooking. I simpoured milk or cream over it and ad it in that way. "I used Grape-Nuts for breakfast, dinner and supper, and liking it so well I simply lived on it for the next three weeks. My work continued quite as arduous and confining as before but I experienced a decided rise in spirits and mention as well as in general health. vitality as well as in general health. Found I did not tire as before and entirely lost that wornout feeling which seems to take the heart out of one. "I am satisfied the change was due to my change in food, and I have been so greatly helped and have been taught valuable a lesson in food as related to the human body that I wish to express my appreciation in this man-It will pay any brain worker to dispense with a part of the ordinary dist and use Grape-Nuts once or , rice a day at least, for the food is made by food experts, for a purpose, and that purpose is to furnish the human system with the elements, in a concentrat-ed form, required for rebuilding the brain and nerve centers throughout the body. There is no sort of question of the truth of the statement and value of the food, as can be demonstrated by Decline of British Agriculture.

New York, May 18 .- The London cor respondent of the Tribune says the agricultural returns of Great Britain for 1900, which have just been issued show that the decline of British agri culture pursues its steady course. The area under corn crops in Great Britain, which in 1870 occupied 9,548,000 acres, has fallen to 7,235,000 acres. The area under green crops has fallen almost as heavily, while only the acreage laid down in grass and clover show: In horses, cattle, an increase.

and pigs there is a slight advance in this period, but not such as to keep pace with the increase in population, o to compensate for the diminished cor production. England, which used to grow her own corn and was able to feed herself, is becoming every year more and more dependent upon imports from foreign countries.

The project now undertaken is to do any with this species of pool by bring-ing all four local companies under one infragment and incorporation. The nucleus of the scheme appears to lie in the purpose of the California Powder works to increase its capital stock four fold, or from $1,500,000 to $6,000,000. The present shareholders are to receive $1, 000,000 in stock of the reorganized concern which will probably be formed under a modified name, and the remain-ing $3,000,000 is to be treasury stock. It is argued that this would be just the amount required to buy in the three companies at the par value of their capital should it be found necessary to pay full figures."

DRS. SHORES & SHORES,

EXPERT SPECIALISTS.

HARMON BLOCK. Entrance, Room 210.

In the rear of the house chartes rower keeps a very beautiful but eruptive horse. The goal of George's dreams has been to ride that horse. Last evening Powell told him that he might do so, and the lad went almost delirious with joy. He was lifted to the animal's back by. He was fitted to the animal's back with the caution to be careful. The lad rode around town feeling like Alex-ander on Bucephalus, but on turning east on Third South toward home the horse broke into a gallop and then into a dead run. The boy could not manage htm and wild with fright grasped the animal's neck to keep on. When State street was reached the horse turned sharply to the right and slipped and fell, and the boy was hurled with tremen-dous force to the paved street. He struck on his head and sustained a se-vere cut. The fall stunned him for a short time, and when he regained consciousness he bgan screaming with pain, crying, "Oh my poor head," and repeat-ing it even after oplates had been ad-ministered to him. Dr. Parmelee dressed the boy's head and while he does not think the injury is at all fatal, such wounds are followed by inflammation, which is very serious indeed.
