

HOMESEEEKERS
COMING WEST.
Invaders of Utah and Idaho Leave Chicago Tuesday.

MARCH AND APRIL RATES

Especially Low Fares Will Bring In Armies of Old Seekers for Thunder Mountain.

On Tuesday the first of the excursions from Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri river points will be in operation to Colorado, Utah and Idaho commencing. During the next two months they will be in order semi-monthly on a basis of one fare plus $2 for the round trip.
While D. E. Burley and George W.
Helms expect to handle a heavy passenger business on these occasions it is during the months of March and April that they anticipate the breaking of all previous records in homeseekers' excursions. The Oregon Short Line and the Rio Grande Western will have an equal advantage in the settlers' low rates, to be inaugurated by all the western roads to the Pacific northwest.
These rates, which are quoted at less than half fare, will undoubtedly be taken advantage of by thousands of the rush into the Thunder Mountain district. The Short Line passenger department now has an exhaustive writeup of this new Eldorado upon the present trip will be extensively distributed in time.
The Short Line officials predict that counting the homeseekers and the minors that there will be fully 20,000 people into Idaho before the summer has fairly started.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

Interstate Commerce Commission to Look Into Railroad Matters.
Chicago, Jan. 3.—At its meeting here next Wednesday the Interstate Commerce commission will move against the Northern Securities company and investigate the combine of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific & Burlington railways.
The commission will probe the entire matter of "community of interest" between great railway systems, but the specific investigation will be aimed at the northwestern railways.
Hundreds of witnesses, among them many of the leading railway promoters and owners in the country have been summoned to Chicago to testify before the commission next Wednesday to testify before the commission.
All the western railway magnates have been summoned to appear, and after the investigation is in Chicago, which may last weeks, has been concluded, the commission will resume its hearings in New York and call before it the great promoters and financiers of Wall street.
It is understood that there is to be a general and determined fight all along the line. The commission has announced its intention of examining every phase of the combination, including the purchase of the Southern Pacific by the Union Pacific, the Union Pacific control over the Burlington and every instance of what they regard as violation of the interstate commerce law.

G. H. Markham's New Berth.

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—G. H. Markham, who was promoted a few days ago from the position of assistant traffic manager of the Southern Pacific company to the office of vice president and general manager of the Houston and Texas Central, will leave today for Houston, Texas, to enter upon his new duties, which embrace the general management of an important link in the Southern Pacific company's Atlantic system. Markham, who has been in the Southern Pacific company since 1887, will be latterly occupied by Mr. Markham, who will be latterly occupied by Mr. Markham.

sions are being given to shippers.

tioned in "the official organ" this morning, were filed with the United States

M. J. Griffin, formerly of the Southern Pacific, has been appointed trainmaster of the first district of the division of the Denver & Rio Grande.
W. B. De Charbonnet, made train-dent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas has tendered his resignation, to take effect February 1st. He has been general superintendent of the Minneapolis & St. Louis and the Iowa Central lines, with headquarters at Minneapolis.

ers and directors of the Pacific Express company was held in Omaha yesterday. The principal business transacted was the election of officers and directors for the coming year. They are as follows: President, James Eggleston; vice president, Horace G.
Furt; secretary and treasurer, W. R.
Carter; assistant treasurer, H. B. Hanson; directors, H. G. Burt, C. G. Warner, J. Ramsey, Jr., E. B. Fryer, S. B.

STOHL GOT NO MONEY.

Manager Clark Turns Down Brigham
City Manager—Other Ogden Items.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Jan. 3.—The report that Manager Stohl, of the Brigham City Opera house, who served an attachment upon the property of the Wilbur-Kirwin Opera company, at Ogden Wednesday night through his attorney, Riley Jones, had obtained a portion of the $475 he was suing for, is erroneous. Manager Clark, of the Ogden Opera house, took 23 per cent from the proceeds of the engagement, leaving a balance of $198. This sum, he claimed, belonged to the Oregon Short Line company as that company had an order on the Wilbur-Kirwin organization. Mr.
Jones, attorney for Manager Stohl, contended that an attachment always took priority over a claim but this was denied by A. G. Horn, attorney for Mr.
Clark. That is the condition in which the matter now rests.

ter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dalton of Willard, died at her home yesterday of an affection of the heart. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow forenoon.

SALT LAKE INVENTOR.

John G. Roberts Has Won Fame and Fortune in Detroit.

John G. Roberts, a former instructor in the Salt Lake High school, has added his name to the brilliant list of Utah inventors. His is an electrical device for the taking or making of pictures by wire at long distances. Mr.
Roberts has been an electrical expert for several years and the idea of taking pictures by the means has been sticking in his mind for a long time.
That the scientific and capitalistic men have faith in his invention is indicated by the offer of $75,000 that has been made for an assignment of his patent right. But Mr. Roberts thinks there is more in it than that and has refused to sell. He has named his invention the telegrapher and it has proved successful in several tests.
Mr. Roberts is a son-in-law of Secretary S. W. Sears of the D. A. & M. society and moved to Detroit soon after his marriage.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Roberts will learn with pleasure of the good fortune that has come to them through the efforts of Mr. Roberts.

BREAK INTO TITHING OFFICE.

Bold Thieves at Work in Pleasant Grove.

(Special to the "News.")

Pleasant Grove, Jan. 3.—The tithing office at this place was broken into last night about midnight, by some thieves, who gained an entrance through the windows. They were no clumsy in their work, however, and created no alarm, but burdened that Marshall Plamton, who lives across the street from the office, was aroused from his sleep. He donned his clothes rapidly and hastened over to the scene of the burglary. The volunteers heard him coming and managed to make good their escape in the dark without being seen. In their hurry to escape they forgot to take any valuables with them, and nothing so far has been missed from the tithing office.

struction for those who may need or the Lion House of the L. D. S. University. The instructions will be given by Elders Benjamin Goddard, Huber C.

Iverson and J. M. Tanner. Each in-

CALLING IN COUNTY WARRANTS.

County Treasurer Dale will call tomorrow all outstanding county warrants, amounting to about $60,000. This will include the appropriation of Jan. 2, 1902. He paid today to the state on account of December collection of 1901 taxes $12,213.23, state school, $2,458.70, county, $73,000, city school, $18,478.70, city, $15,478.70, county school, $30,000.

AMUSEMENTS.

Tonight Thomas Jefferson, son of the original and only "Jo," makes his bow to a Salt Lake audience in the part which his father has made famous, "Rip Van Winkle."

The Modjeska-James engagement at the Theatre ended last night in the presence of a very satisfactory audience. While the turnout was not crowded, it was more than fair, considering the length of the engagement.
"The Merchant of Venice" was the bill, and the verdict of the audience was one of decided favor over the rendition.
While Mr. James gave the impression that the role was a new one in his character, and that his rendition of it would develop in virility with experience, and while he did not convey the grasping, avaricious idea so completely as his predecessors have done, still his reading and general conception were strong, and the final exit in the court scene drew forth a big burst of applause.
Madame Modjeska looked younger and more winning in the part of Portia than in anything she has yet attempted, but the part is one that peculiarly calls for the purest English articulation, and it is something that Madame Modjeska finds it impossible to thwart. While her delineation, therefore, was graceful, it could not be called completely satisfactory.
The supporting cast appeared to excellent advantage and the staging and costuming were admirable.

At the Grand two-thirds house welcomed back the Wilbur-Kirwin company, and gave a pleasant reception to some old favorites as Mr. Kohline, Mr.
Huff, and Miss Kirwin herself. The opera of "The Merry War" cannot be said to be one that lends itself to the abilities of this company, and they soon have done far better had they opened in their big scenic production of "Jack and the Beanstalk," set for tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Mr. Kohline was the central figure and the support given him by Miss Kirwin and the others could not be ranked as more than fair. The ladies chorus is, as usual, the main feature, and looked well acted handsomely, but "The Merry War" is an opera that needs a full chorus, male as well as female, and as the company does not have that feature, it could not but suffer. Mr. Huff the best singing of the night and was heartily cheered. The singing of Mr. Reader and his illustrated pictures between the acts were as enjoyable as ever, even though he brings us nothing new.

Four new members of the company who were unfortunately unable to appear last night, but who are billed for Jack and the Beanstalk, are Miss Forrest, Miss Lewis, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Willis.

Miss Hallam, the former soprano of the Wilbur-Kirwin company, left them in the northwest, having decided that her voice had suffered so much from her long illness that she could not continued work. She returned to New York, and has retired from the stage, perhaps permanently.

The trouble which the Wilbur-Kirwin company encountered in Ogden followed them to Salt Lake. Mr. Stohl, proprietor of the Brigham City opera house, attached the receipts of the Grand last night, as they attempted to do in Ogden, to a claim of $475 against the company for giving Brigham City the go-by after having booked a date.

Mr. Caruthers, manager of the company, says that the simply booked Brigham City by because the train was late and it was impossible to get there on time. He expressed his willingness to play there one night next week, and thinks the difficulty will be speedily settled.

Miss Emma Lucy Gates has arrived from Picco, and will remain till after her concert, rehearsing with the orchestra organized specially for the event. Manager Pyper reports about 150 tickets sold in advance this far.

JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

Spectators at the Police court this afternoon witnessed a little change from the usual order of things. There was a clerk and prosecutor, but no matron of a clerk and prosecutor. The one new clerk Walter Meeks read the complaints and Prosecutor Schuler prosecuted.

The first case was that of Paddy Brian charged with being a vagrant by wandering about the streets at late and unusual hours of the night, and having no visible means of support. He was about to plead guilty, but on second thought pleaded not guilty and was discharged. The jury failed to make a case against him. Alvin E. Wilson testified that he saw the man loitering around in alleys. Brian asked permission to speak and when it was granted him he said to Wilson:
"You a dry liar." The assertion was not denied by Mr. Wilson.

John Lynn also pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy and was found not guilty. Wilson testified against him and said all the acts at late and unusual hours of the night, and having him do was to play a game of pool.
The court said: "Lynn you had better get out of town or do some work. I think the prosecution could have made a case against you had they gone all in the right way. They have not done so yet, however, and you are discharged."

Mr. Isaacs pleaded guilty to vagrancy and he was promptly given thirty days.
George Taylor, George Bentley and Christian Nielson, boys about 16 years of age, were charged with trespass. It was alleged they tried to sneak into the Grand Theater. They pleaded guilty and Bentley and Nielson were permitted to go home to mother. Taylor has been before the court several times before and he was ordered to be taken before the district court and show cause why he should not be sent to the state industrial school.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES IN COUNTY.

County Physician Mayo's report of contagious diseases for December shows that there were four new cases of diphtheria, seven of scarlet fever, and three of smallpox.

COUNTY CLERK'S RECEIPTS.

The county clerk's receipts for the month of December were $1,457.50. The receipts for the district clerk's department were $53.00, a total of $2,000.75.

NOT INSANE.

John Edwards Examined but Court Refuses to Commit Him.

John Edwards was examined as to his sanity by County Physicians Mayo and Ellerbeck, County Clerk James sitting as the court. After hearing all the evidence in the case the court declined to commit Edwards. The testimony of William B. White and J. J. Walton, who swore to the complaint, Mary L.
Edwards, a sister, and Elizabeth Ash, who obtained a divorce from Edwards about five years ago, did not tend to satisfy the court that the man was worse than eccentric. He works at

Dr. Lyon's

brick making, and lives at 153 Fourth East street, with Elizabeth Ash, providing for the woman, who was once his wife. The court repudiated White and Walton for not being in court at the time set for the examination, and fined them $5 each, which was later remitted.

F NEEGAN CASE.

Eichnor Files Information Charging Conspiracy.

District Attorney Eichnor has filed an information against Rosalind E.
Hewitt, Irvin F. Perry and William Lindstrom, charging them with conspiracy. These are the three who, on the night of Nov. 23 last, opened a mine day sensation in attempting to bleed Francis P. Finnegan to the tune of $1,000, when Finnegan was discovered by the two men in the girl's bedroom in the Daft block.

RECEIVERS REPORT APPROVED.

nel Co's Property.

of S. M. Morrison, receiver of the Tunnel company, and made an order that the property situated in the West mining district be sold at public auction.

deserted wife, Elizabeth E. Oyer was today granted a decree of divorce from Jacob Oyer. The couple were married at Pueblo, Colo., on Dec. 27, 1891, and in January, 1892, Oyer went to Clarksville, Mo., and has not communicated with his wife since. They have no children.

Cole-Kerr Case Dismissed.

Judge Hall today dismissed the case of H. B. Cole vs. A. K. Kerr on motion of plaintiff. The suit was brought to recover on a worthless check for $28.25 paid by defendant for Carlsbad mining stock.

Probate Matters.

Judge Hall today ordered the sale of the real estate belonging to the estate of Christian Zenger, deceased.
The administrator's bond was fixed at $2,700.

Martin Enquist was appointed administrator of the estate of John En-quist, deceased, under $3,000 bond.

Oliver G. Snow was allowed $150 for services as general administrator of the late President Snow's estate.
The final account of the Lorenzo Pettit estate was approved and distribution of the estate, valued at $28,000, ordered. Ferguson & Cannon were allowed $500 attorney fees.

KEELEY INSTITUTE INCORPOR-ATES.

Articles of incorporation were filed today by the Keeley Institute. The capital stock is fixed at $5,000 in 5,000 resident of the institute, owns all but four. The other officers are: John Mullinay, vice president; O. W. Nelson, treasurer and secretary; and they along with Mrs. Nannie Brown and Mrs. Rebecca Nelson make up the directorate of the Utah home for inebriates.

ternoon from Morning.

tions made this morning were not much

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

The Earl of Finnegan, Ireland, who holds the rank of major in the Fifth Cannamagh rifles, and Capt. Harold Sessions, veterinary surgeon in the English army, arrived this morning from the east over the Short Line and registered at the Knutsford. They took a tour over town and left for San Francisco on the early afternoon train, intending to return to Salt Lake later.
These officers are part of the commission sent over to this country to buy horses for the English army in South Africa, and have been looking over Wyoming. They are prohibited by army regulations from "talking shop" and said they couldn't state prices, but it was allowable to say they had been successful in getting what they were after. When asked when the English were going to bring the war to a close, his reliable reply, "You expect to see Indians in this country ought to suggest that subduing guerrillas takes some time. The United States government has been thirty years and over in winding up its Indian wars, and it would not be surprising if it required us a year or two longer to overcome the Boer guerrillas. His lordship said that the reporters got after them wherever they went, and a column or two of news on matter largely hypothetical and imaginary was often the result of their appearance in a community. Dr. Sessions said that in the English army volunteer surgeons rose to be colonels whereas in the American army they are now at the best only given the rank of a lieutenant.

Frank J. Hagenbarth has returned from an extended visit to the East. He says that in Washington the representatives of western states have come to the conclusion that the best plan of action is for all to unite on one scheme for the application of government aid to promote western irrigation and stop all faction or section fighting among themselves. Mr. Hagenbarth said that the favorable attitude of the President was of great assistance, his western experience having impressed him with the necessity of the government's doing something in the way of aid and assistance to western iriga-tion. So Mr. Hagenbarth looks for speedy solution of the difficulty. He could general business in the East in current condition and that western interests are being given careful consideration in all eastern money centers.

Tom—How is it that you got the highest mark in Natural History

Dick—Because all the other boys said two legs.

Mrs. Mark—George, does history show that queens get drunk?
Prof. Mark (a professor of history)—I don't know, my dear. Why do you ask?
Mrs. Mark—Well, in your sleep last night you were talking a lot about "queen full."

Doctor—You don't mean to say that Dr. Killencure charged one hundred dollars to cut out your legs?
Patient—Why, yes.
Doctor—Well, I'd have cut them off for that money.
