

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—There should be a crowded house this evening, for the bill is an immense one, combining a beautiful drama abounding in pathetic and sensational points, beautiful high comedy, and roaring farce. Go everybody and enjoy yourselves.

THE DISTANCE SHORTENED.—Theo. F. Tracy, Esq., Wells, Fargo, & Co.'s gentlemanly agent, has furnished us with the following interesting item:

"On and after to-day our coaches will connect with the U. P. R. R. at Black Butte station, 256 miles from Salt Lake City.

Pure to the terminus of the Railroad sixty-five miles.

GENE EAST.—H. W. West, Esq., started by stage this morning for his home in Chicago. During his stay he visited north as far as Ogden and south to Provo, enjoying himself very much. He speaks highly of what he has seen while in Utah, and materially extended the business connections of his firm—Burnham & Van Schaeck.

LYNE'S BENEFIT.—The following correspondence will explain the steps that have been taken with regard to Mr. Lyne's benefit, and that Tuesday night has been set apart for it. The entertainment, we understand, will be an excellent one; and we wish the gentleman a success.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 9, 1908.
Messrs. CLAWSON & CAINE:
We, the undersigned, together with many patrons of the drama, respectfully request that you set apart an evening for Mr. T. A. Lyne, that we may give him a testimonial on the occasion of his last appearance at the Salt Lake Theatre. His merits as an actor and his character as a citizen fairly entitle him to this consideration.

Very respectfully, yours,
aries Durkee, Daniel H. Wells, George A. Smith, R. R. Hopkins, Godbe & Mitchell, George Q. Cannon, Wm. Jennings & Co., Kimball & Lawrence, Woodmansee & Bro., R. V. Barker, John Meeks, T. R. H. Stenhouse, Stayer & Cunningham, D. Dr. Benson, Capt. U. S. A. W. L. Foulk, Lieut. U. S. A. I. H. Kiskaddon, George Bodenbush, Eldredge & Clawson, Kahn Bros., Wm. Sloan, S. S. Walker, M. H. Walker, Nat. Stein, Aaron Stein, Theo. F. Tracy, Warren Hussey, Anthony Godbe, A. W. White, John Clark, Marshall & Carter, R. H. Bowditch, J. Bauman & Co., A. Waters, E. Van & Co., Dunford & Sons, G. A. Alder, Thomas Harding, John Chislett, A. Jans, Sol Siegel, Russell & Roberts, R. A. Burton, N. S. Ransohoff & Co., F. Auerbach & Bros., C. R. Barratt, A. W. Street, and many others.

GOVERNOR DURKEE, MAYOR WELLS, & others:
It affords us much pleasure to meet the wishes of the Patrons of the Drama, in extending a testimonial benefit to the veteran actor, Mr. T. A. Lyne; and we beg to name Tuesday evening, September 15th, as the most suitable occasion, when we hope to be able to present such an entertainment as shall be worthy of the patronage of the public.

Having that this testimonial may be as substantial as the friends of Mr. Lyne desire, we are, gentlemen, respectfully, yours,
CLAWSON & CAINE.

DEAD last night at 6 o'clock, of a complication of disorders—whooping cough, dysentery, &c., Lucas, son of Lucas and Harriet Hoagland, aged about 18 months. The funeral took place this morning at 11 o'clock. Remarks were made by Elders Geo. Q. Cannon and J. C. Little.

RETURNED.—Brother A. C. Pyper, who has been on a trip to the east, arrived home last evening. He is well, and has enjoyed himself first-class while away, during which he rendered considerable assistance in forwarding the immigration. He passed Captain Gillespie's train yesterday morning in Echo Canyon; it will likely be in on Monday evening, or Tuesday morning.

Mumford's train is about ten days out; but will hardly be likely to reach here much within a fortnight, through being detained for luggage left behind. There was some sickness in the train, and being very heavily loaded too, Bro. Pyper thinks it would be a good idea for any here who may have friends in that train to go and meet them, and help them in.

PROTECTION FROM SNOWS.—We learn that men are busy at work on the line of the Central Pacific Road, this side of Grass Valley, building sheds to protect the road from the heavy snows of winter. Forty miles of the line is to be thus covered.

CONSTRUCTION TRAINS.—From last Monday the U. P. R. R. were to run three construction trains daily from Benton to Bitter Creek, 83½ miles west of Benton, making the running distance of regular trains 789 miles from Columbia. The trains carry the material from that point to the end of the track.

MORE TELEGRAPHY.—We find the following in the Sacramento Reporter of the 1st inst.: "California will rejoice to-day in the establishing of a new line of telegraph in opposition to the old and existing monopoly. The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company goes into operation to-day between this city and San Francisco, and by the first of January next will connect us with the Atlantic States. The line so far constructed in a far better manner than usual, and as it is an opposition will of course reduce rates and give satisfaction."

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY.—The September number of this magazine is to hand, and is in keeping with the character of its predecessors. Its opening article is a sensible and well-written paper on Indians in general and the Apaches in particular, by one who must have given the subject candid and intelligent consideration, during the eight years' experience which he claims to have had among them. It is followed by a very readable article, in humorous style, with the title "A Californian Abroad—Three Italian Cities," in which a very hackneyed subject is presented in a new and pleasing dress. "University Education" is instructive. "The Six Chinese Companies" rebuts some fallacious views concerning organizations of the "Celestials" in California. "The French in Mexico" carries the reader on a pleasant excursion to the capital of that republic, and introduces him to different characters who are more agreeably met with in the pages of a magazine than on the busy or solitary roads of life; while "Our Speechless Friends" is a kindly plea for the lower creation, especially domestic animals. Among the remaining articles "Over-crowded Asylums on the Pacific Slope" should command the attention of young men who are thinking of a professional career; and parents who have youths springing into manhood; and "The Tropical Fruits of California" is well worth the attention of our horticulturists, especially those of Southern Utah. "Japanese Soliloquies," "The haunted valley," "Ecotiling," "A Night on the Steppes," "Some facts about Hens," "Etc.," and "Current literature," make up the rest of the prose papers. The monthly consists of two simple, musical little pieces, "Siesta" and "In Clover." The Overland Monthly deserves most extensive patronage, which we hope it will receive.

DULL TIMES.—Montana times must be getting dull, if we take the accompanying picture clipped from the Post of the 5th:

"Some of our citizens are complaining of dull times and that, to say nothing about business, it is difficult to find amusement. Fights are becoming scarce, no one is being hung, and even the murders are becoming scarce in this particular locality. And so they call for some new, no matter what, in the way of amusements."

SCHOOL REPORTS.—We have received the "Annual Report of the Superintendent of Public Schools," of the City and county of San Francisco, for the year ending Oct. 15th, 1897. It is a book of nearly 200 pages, and contains a great amount of information concerning educational matters relative to the best mode of imparting knowledge. It is embellished with wood cuts of the Tehama St. Primary School, the Deanna Grammer School, and the Lincoln grammar school, with plans of the floors in each building.
