Fire escapes are being put up on the south walls of the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Assistant United States Attorney Sherrington is recovering from the operation he submitted to recently at the Holy Cross hospital.

At last night's meeting of theSalt Lake Medical society a paper on "Puerpural Sepsis," by Dr. R. C. Smedley, was read by Dr. W. R. Bothwell and discussed.

Theodore Hansen of 1979 south State street is anxious to learn the where-abouts of Mads Sorrensen, who came to Utah from Fredricia, Denmark, in the year 1803 or 1894.

Bergeant R. R. Grant of battery A fell from a calsson last evening at the armory and broke his leg. Col. Bene-dict of the guard was called in and reduced the fracture.

Friends of the Bench family take is-ue with the health officials in their conclusion that the Gunn family con-tracted smallpox from them, as they may the Gunns were afflicted for some time before the others.

Complaints about non-reception eastern magazines in this city has led to an investigation which shows that the trouble is not with the postoffice, but with the publishers who used labels that failed to stick and came off in transmission.

"Cracking the whip" is at times a dangerous sport. Annie Staines, a ftowell school pupil, was playing it yes-terday, when the line broke and she was thrown against a tree so violently s to render her unconscious and badly bruising her.

Dealers say that all of the eggs now in the market are the eastern product, as Utah hens are molting, and it is too early yet for the pullets to lay. So it may be Christmas before the Utah fowl fall into line again, and do their duty by the public.

The exhibit of the State Horticultural society in the Temple grounds was in-creased yesterday by the addition of a display of grapes from the Utah experiment farm, at St. George, Utah, and apples from Green River and Wolf Disco districts River districts.

There is a backwardness about coming forward on the part of winners in the late state fair, to collect their premlums, that makes Secretary Bateman imagine that prosperity is so general that they don't much care when the premiums are paid.

Dealers report that the honey now in the market is not only abundant, but of excellent quality. The rains of last spring brought out vegetation to an unusual extent, and thus gave the Editor M. A. Willumsen, of the Murray American Eagle, was yesterday bound over to await the action of the grand jury, on the charge of violating the United States postal laws against sending obscene matter through the malls. His preliminary hearing before Commissioner Twomey began at 2 o'clock and consumed the entire afterncon. U. S. Atty. Jos. Lippman represented the United States, and in developing his case showed the paper issund on Sept. 2, which contained the of-fensive article was carried to the post office by Frank Bagley, an apprentice in Willumsen's printing office, and that the article was taken from Willumsen's desk by Edward H. Picker, the printer's foreman, during the absence of Willumtereman, during the absence of without sen, and printed in the paper without Willumsen's having read it. This brought up the question of intent to publish upon which the case against Editor Willumsen hinged, and to determine this question the witnesses of the prosecution underwent a rigorous examination at the hands of both attor-

Edward H. Picker, the foreman, de clared that he found the article on Wil-lumsen's desk, and printed it, thinking it to be a simple advertisement of a "House for Rent." which it purported house for heat, which he did not see the obviously obscene interpretation which could be placed upon it. He said that the article was not written by Mr. Willumsen, and was in the handwriting of another man, -a regular corre-spondent of the paper.

F. C. Sharp, the inspector of the post-office department, who investigated the once department, who investigated the matter prior to Willumsen's arrest, tea-tified that on Sept. 25 he called on Wil-lumsen and asked him regarding the article. Willumsen then admitted hav-ing seen it before publication, and de-chired that it had been handed to him personality by a correspondent and their clured that it had been handed to him personally by a correspondent and that he had hung it on the copy hook with-out reading it carefully enough to no-tice its obscene nature. Young Bagley had previously testified that Willumsen was absent when the article came in and that he, himself, had received it from the correspondent and thrown it on Willumsen's desk. The judge conon Willumsen's desk. The judge con-sidered the evidence of Inspector Sharr to be sufficient to warrant the holding of Willumsen over to the grand jury, and stated that in the question of veracity between the two witnesses he pre-ferred to consider the statement of Inspector Sharp as the more reliable. J. M. Hamilton and David Haigh ap-

The Stock Will be Left Free in the Harriman Treasury Thereby Simplifying Matters.

New York, Oct. 25 .- There is reason to believe, says the Herald, that plans have been nearly completed for retiring the Oregon Short Line participating 4 per cent bonds issued by the management of the Union Pacific railroad to finance the purchase in 1900-1 of $78,-108,000 Northern Pacific stock. The latter was exchanged for $82,491.871 of Northern Securities stock and $8,900,000 in cash. The latter stock was deposited with a trustee as collateral for the Short Line bonds. The latter were to draw 4 per cent and participate in any excess over that amount paid by the Northern Securities collateral.

As dividends on the latter are estopped by the order of dissolution from supreme court, it is understood that the bonds will be retired and the Northern Securities stock left free in the Oregon Short Line treasury, so that the bonds may not stand in the way of an equitable distribution when the Securiies company is wound up. Interest payments on the bonds has become, since the court decision was rendered, dependent on the Union Pa-clfic, which guaranteed them.

An arrangement for retiring the bonds before maturity in 15 years is permitted by the underlying mortgage, which provides that any or all can by retired at 162% and interest upon three members before the bolders before any notice to holders before any months interest day.

BROWN GOES TO GOULD.

Young Salt Lake Stenographer Gets Post of Assistant Secretary.

Francis D. Brown, a young Salt Lake boy, was last week taken east by George J. Gould in the capacity of one of his secretaries. Mr. Brown started in in Salt Lake as a stenographer to General Supt. A. E. Welby of the Rio Grande Western. Later he went to Chief Engineer Yard as secretary, when Mr. Schlacks noticed him and secured his services. It was while acting as secretary to the vice president and gen-eral manager of the Denver & Rio Grande that he had occasion to come under the notice of Mr. Gould as they were traveling on a special inspecting the lines out of St. Louis 10 days ago. George Gould noticed his work and sud. denly said. "See here, young man, you had better transfer your traps to my car and come back to New York with me." That is all that was said and that is the reason why Vice President Schlacks had a new secretary along with him on his visit to Salt Lake yes-

Fremont County Factory Starts Out Successfully on the Season Run.

Sugar City, Idaho, Oct. 24 .- The factory at Premont County Sugar com-pany, started up this morning with a full force of men, to commence its first season's run of cutting the beets raised by the farmers of Fremont county: the yield is very good consid-ering that thus is the first year for the farmers of this section at a new in-dusiry, besides the crops were frozen dustry, besides the crops will how to to the ground twice during the season, which the old timers say is out of the ordinary. The farmers, generally, feel that there is a bright future in store for them in the raising of beets under rdinary circumstances. The machinery in the factory moved off without a jar, and it is thought that before a week has passed they will be before a week has passed they will be running at full capacity of 600 tons a day, which means that those who had the erecting and placing of all the machinery were men who thoroughly understood their business; in fact the erection of the large plant at this point. has been very successful in every re-spect, there being fewer accidents that merally occur around the construction

f like concerns. The weather for the past 10 days has been ideal for the harvesting of beets and the farmers are taking advantage f the opportunity to rush their crop f beets in to the factory; they are now arriving at the rate of about 1,600 ons per day. The building of business houses and residences continues at an astonishing rate, the contractors having all they can possibly do with their large force of carpenters, while brick and rock masons have been kept busy since early last spring. The new schoolhouse, which is being constructed at this piace at a cost of $10,000, is progressing very rapidly, and by the 15th of November he school will be running with a full sét of competent teachers. The residence of Mr. Fred Schwen-diman, our genial bardware and lumber dealer, is nearing completion, and will be an up-to-date dwelling and one that be an up-to-date dwelling and one that he can well afford to be proud of, as also are the residences of Alfred Ricks, F. Salzner, and Bernard Christenson. The large grain elevator of Miller Eros, is now completed, near the O. S. L. depot, and they have been receiving and shipping grain for a week past. The Fremont County Bank opened its doors on the eleventh and the cashier reports that they are doing more bus-iness than they anticipated. The Heg-sted, Jenson, Earl company's new de-partment store is now ready to do busi-ness, they have as fine a line of dry ness, they have as fine a line of dry goods, groceries, ladies' and gents' fur-nishings as there is in Fremont county. The Bromley block is now completed, and the traveling public who visit Su-gar City may stop at as fine a hotel as ill be found in any of the oldest towns will be found in any of the blast lowing in our county. Last Friday night the M. I. A. gave a grand ball in the Opera House, which was a very pleasant affair, and was well attended, as are all the dances given here every Fridy night; one rea-son we have successful dances is that we have a fine a hall as there is in the southeastern part of the state. the southeastern part of the state.
