WANTS $6,000 DAMAGES. Thomas Boardman of this city has filed with the county board of commis-sioners a bill for $6,000 damages which claims he has suffered by the entir loss of water from a spring owned by him on the mountain side east of the new county infirmary building. Mr. Boardman sets forth that the board had tunnel drove a little to the south and elow his natural spring of water and thereby secured a large stream of wa-ter. The county's tunnel drained the ter. water from his spring and completely shut off the flow.

Provo July 4.—Provo was ablaze with patriotism today. The streets were crowded with people intent upon cele-brating the nation's birthday. Darton's hand paraded the streets playing pa-triotic music, giving vim to the occa-sion. The program of the day opened with the firing of cannon at daybreak. At 7 o'clock the bloycle races began, and were entered into by a large number of contestants. EXERCISES AT TABERNACLE.
