

ROBERTS WAS SHOT TO DEATH

Man Wanted for Mrs. Woodill's Murder Killed by Sheriff's Posse.

REFUSED TO THROW UP HANDS

Uttered No Word, Rose in His Boat, Fired on Party, Hitting No One.

Members Promptly Responded—He Was Shot in Pocket, Falling Dead.—In Pocket Bottle of Poison.

St. Michaels, Md., June 25.—(Special to The News.)—Robert E. Roberts, the newspaper correspondent and magazine writer and author, who was wanted for the murder of Mrs. Edith May Thompson Woodill, the daughter of Col. Charles A. Thompson, was shot to death by a sheriff's posse while resisting arrest off a wharf at McDaniel, Talbot county, at 4 o'clock this morning.

Roberts fired one shot from a revolver but without effect. Shortly after midnight this morning a small craft was seen moving up the waters of Back river, along the shores of which are the homes of Col. Thompson and Roberts. It is unusual to see a small boat on the river at such an early hour and John McQuay, who has a farm on a point on a creek near Boston, notified Sheriff Mortimer and Magistrate Willy, who were at St. Michaels, McQuay said the boat looked like the one in which Roberts escaped from McDaniel and a man in it looked like the missing author. Sheriff Mortimer, Magistrate Willy and a posse of six men hurried to the scene, reaching the river shore at 1 a. m. All were armed. They went down to the water's edge and made out the outlines of a man in his shirt sleeves languidly rowing a boat up the river. They made no demonstration, resolving to wait until the rower got into narrower water and within range.

Sheriff Mortimer and Messrs. Hooper and Harper obtained a boat and followed Roberts, who apparently became alarmed and hastened up the river at a faster pace. The sheriff's boat followed. Magistrate Willy and others followed along the shore. The confounding maneuvers began shortly after 1 a. m. For three hours, the two boats and the magistrate's party proceeded up the river, the shores narrowing all the while.

Roberts was nearing the scene of his alleged crime. As the shores drew together members of the posse made out the features of Roberts. He was wearing the wharf at McDaniel from which point he is supposed to have fled.

When Roberts got abreast of the landing place and was but 100 feet from shore, Magistrate Willy and his two deputies stepped out into the open.

"THROW UP YOUR HANDS!" "Hello, Roberts, throw up your hands!" shouted the magistrate. Roberts did not utter a word but rose in his boat with a big revolver in his right hand. He quickly leveled at the party on shore and fired.

The deputies waded out to the small craft. Roberts had been shot in the mouth and was dead. The boat was empty. The shore was examined. Roberts had a bottle of poison in his pocket and a number of letters. The body was taken to St. Michaels.

LITTLE KNOWN OF ROBERTS. Where and under what circumstances Roberts and Mrs. Woodill met is not known. Roberts is said to have been employed by the late William Eastman, who was a magazine writer and newspaper correspondent. He was polite and affable in manner, made friends readily, but never discussed his personal affairs.

Doubt as to whether the man's real name is Roberts was raised today by the finding near his body of a letter addressed to "Mrs. Robert E. Roberts, care of B. Taylor, Eastman, N. J." The letter began "Verna," who is believed to be his wife. "The enclosed keys are his. You will need to examine my property. I owe 10 cents to Taylor Sutton, neighbor. I owe 35 to William Norris, Easton, Md. Pay them both."

The note has no date and was written in full pencil. It was stamped but had been opened. Mr. Taylor, with whom Easton, or Roberts, boarded, got a letter some days ago from E. B. Wellington, in which inquiry was made of Roberts. Mr. Taylor wrote to the hotel, but the letter was returned with a statement that Wellington had left.

Later, Roberts said Wellington was an uncle and lived in Denver. He also stated at different times that he came from Denver.

LAME BOB EASTMAN. New York, June 25.—It is now believed the slayer of Mrs. Woodill may have been "Lame Bob" Eastman, a Wall street broker who failed a year or more ago. Eastman was arrested in Chicago, Aug. 4 last year.

Eastman, failed in New York last July with liabilities of from $150,000 to $200,000. He was a broker on the Consolidated exchange. He left the city and was arrested in Chicago, Oct. 4, on complaints made by persons who had lost money through his operations. He was locked up in the Harrison street station, Chicago, where he shared a cell with two tramps.

KNOWN IN NEW JERSEY. Boronia, N. J., June 25.—Robert E. Eastman was known here as a stock broker in business in New York. He lived here about a year up to last December.

OLD FOLKS DAY PLANS COMPLETE

Committees Arrange All Details Of Tuesday's Feast for The Aged.

ASK FOR AID OF MINISTERS

Great Gathering Is for People of All Creeds and Colors and Stations in Life.

The Old Folks' central committee met last evening at the home of Bishop Heber C. Iverson and completed arrangements for Old Folks' day, June 29, which will be the most elaborate affair of the kind ever gotten up by the committee.

Two trains will reach the city about 10 o'clock in the morning, both being laden with old folks. One of these will leave Brigham City at 7:30 a. m., and bring to the city all the old people south of that point. The train from the south will leave Payson at 7 o'clock and pick up all the old people between that point and Lehi. The south train will enter the D. & R. G. depot, where the old folks will be met by automobiles donated by citizens for the occasion, and also by the Ladies' G. A. R. band. In addition they will be welcomed by the bishops and counselors of Liberty and Pioneer stakes. The train from the north will enter the O. S. L. depot and the old folks coming by it will be met there by the Fifteenth Infantry band from Fort Douglas, automobiles to convey the old folks around the city, and the bishops and counselors of Salt Lake and Ensign stakes.

PARADE IN AUTOMOBILES. As the old folks alight from the trains they will be given flags. The bishops and their counselors who are present will see to the seating of the old people in the automobiles, and as soon as this is done the procession will move up town, where held's band will welcome them. They will then be taken for a ride through the city in automobiles in a parade, after which they will be driven to the Temple block, and seated as near 11:30 as possible, to partake of the lunch prepared by the Relief Societies of the four stakes of Salt Lake City.

It is stated that no one but the old folks or those having a right to enter the grounds will be allowed in the Temple block that day, and in order for any of the old people of the city to get into the grounds it will be necessary for them to have the special badge which has been prepared for the occasion.

The ministers of the various denominational churches are invited to co-operate with the committee and the bishops of the wards of the city to obtain the names of all the old folks in the city who are over 70. Application for their badges and tickets should be made to Secretary William Barton, presiding bishop's office, 14 north Main street, B. Y. U. Memorial building.

All of the old people are requested to come provided with a knife and fork, spoon and cup. P. D. Johnson, attorney for the committee, said that the investigation had introduced every kind of testimony, detrimental to the school and to Thomas. He demanded the right to question publicly all the inmates, boys on parole, employees and ex-employees. He said that Thomas was entitled to be present to hear the testimony. He said that it is a public hearing and that the people should hear the testimony. The investigation committee took the matter into its own hands and held it in executive session this afternoon.

ROSSI GETS JAILED AGAIN. This Time He Expectored Upon the Uniform of an Infantry Soldier. Francisco Rossi presented another act last night in his continuous performance which has marked him as one of the most unique characters the police have had to deal with for many a day. Just what Rossi wants is hard to divine—but he evidently wants something and has taken unique methods of getting it.

Beginning with the escape of being the victim of a "Black Hand" society a couple of weeks ago, he wound up last night by insulting a soldier—when he received a blow on the nose that landed him in jail. The police do not want him, however, and he is to be released this afternoon.

ROSSI'S EXPERIENCE IN Salt Lake has been of the nature of something doing every minute, and he has fairly haunted the police station. First he was chased by Black Hand men who have reached his life. Then he was a member of a former Artie exploration party and had been so chilled that he had to wear fur overcoat and hat. He was given the warmth of the city jail. Then he was a deserter from the Italian army, and then an alien who had been sentenced to the country. Then more Black Hand ending in an examination before a lunacy commission yesterday only to be discharged. He was desperate, he had to do something, desperate last night and saw his way in spitting upon the uniform of a soldier. It was effective inasmuch as the soldier gave him one blow and then started to chase that brought out the police to protect Rossi.

He was given a cell in the station—but the police don't want him. His next scheme to break into jail, however, is being anticipated with curiosity.

PRODUCE TAKES A DROP. Since yesterday, there has been a fall in prices of some grains and flours. Oats are quoted today at $2.50, a drop of 25 cents; rolled oats, $2.65, a drop of 35 cents; wheat, $2.15, a drop of 15 cents; and rolled barley, $2.15, a drop of 10 cents.

NOT INTOXICATED; ONLY EXCITED

Such is the Explanation of Mrs. Howard Gould's Conduct as Given by Justice Dowling.

GRANTS HER SEPARATION.

Alimony of $36,000 a Year Is Allowed—Stay of Thirty Days in Execution of Judgment.

New York, June 25.—Justice Dowling today granted Mrs. Howard Gould a separation from her husband and alimony of $36,000 a year.

Justice Dowling, in his decision said that all the evidence was in favor of Mrs. Gould and that the conduct of Mrs. Gould when she was alleged to have been intoxicated might have been caused by excitement.

The justice disposed of the allegations concerning Mrs. Gould's meetings with Dustin Farnum by saying that they all occurred since Mr. and Mrs. Gould had separated and that Mr. Gould had never objected to them.

A stay of 30 days in execution of the judgment was granted.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Letters found in the rooms occupied by Leon Ling and Chu Gain, rivals for the love of Elsie Sigel, whose body was found in a trunk in Ling's rooms, indicate that the day before she met her death she wrote to each of the Chinamen loving assurances of her entire faith in him.

A short time after Leon Ling appeared at the Sigel home intoxicated and was driven away by her parents. Miss Sigel wrote this note, the police say, to Ling.

"I am writing this while mother is away. She would not let me if she knew it. Don't think, Willie, that I will give you up for anybody. I will always remember the dear times we had together. I will see you soon."

"With love, (Signed) "ELSIE." The letter to Chu Gain reads:

"I don't want you to feel badly because Willie was here tonight. You know that I love you, and you only always. Don't mind Willie. Although he is nothing to me, I had to see him. I don't send for him. Your ever loving, (Signed) "ELSIE."

Telegrams announcing the arrest of suspects in various cities continue to arrive, but in no instance has the missing Leon Ling been identified.

ANOTHER ARREST. New York, June 25.—The fact that the telegram sent to the parents of Elsie Sigel from Washington on the night of her disappearance assuring her of her safety and promising her early return had been sent by Leon Ling, the Young Chinaman whom the police charge with her murder, was established today by Detective Van Wagner, who returned from Washington armed with the original of the telegram.

The police of New York, L. I. today arrested a Chinaman answering in a general way the description of Leon Ling. He said he was Harry Kolo, 36 years of age, but gave no address.

LEON SAILS AWAY. Norfolk, Va., June 25.—The Hawaiian Steamship company's steamer Arizona, which sailed from Norfolk yesterday, had aboard Leon Ling or Lang, who was signed as a member of the vessel's Chinese crew in New York, June 11. Yesterday a vessel finished working on a full cargo of government coal for the Pacific coast.

NOT MAN WANTED. New York, June 25.—The only Chinaman aboard the Arizona who was named as resembling that of Leon was the second cook, Leon Sang. He could not have been Leon Ling, the man wanted, as he was a member of the steamer's crew when it arrived here April 25.

HAIR RESTORER TURNED LADY'S HAIR GREEN. New York, June 25.—When a bottle of hair restorer turned Mrs. Kate J. Mosser's hair into a bright green, she sued Charles H. Girmley, the manufacturer for damages and yesterday a local court gave her a verdict for $500.

She showed a total of $40,000 in the testimony of a man and his wife, who declared that they had used the restorer with perfect satisfaction, but when it was applied to her hair it turned it a bright green. She had received compensation for writing testimonials, the court gave judgment.

CHICAGO BANK DEPOSITS. Chicago, June 25.—Deposits of the national banks of Chicago are at about the highest point they have ever reached. The statements published to show their condition at the close of business June 23, in response to a call from the comptroller of the currency, show a total of $40,781,000 deposits in the 15 local institutions. This amount is nearly $15,000,000 larger than the aggregate deposits of the same banks at the time of the last call.

ALL THE SHOTS HIT THE DANGER ZONE. San Diego, Cal., June 25.—The score of the target practice at Fort Rosecrans with the 19-inch guns was computed officially yesterday, when the discovery was made that each of the six shots fired entered the danger zone of the moving targets, and that consequently the score was a perfect one that made with the 5-inch guns at Port Townsend yesterday.

FIRST LANDS IN THE SMOOT ACT

Local Land Office Receives List Of Homestead Selections in Boxelder to Tooele.

OTHER COUNTY LISTS LATER.

This Year One Million Acres Are to be Designated With Other Half to Come Next Year.

The register and receiver of the local land office received this morning from Secretary R. A. Ballinger, department of the Interior, Washington, the first list of lands designated for entry under the "enlarged homestead act," popularly known as the Smoot act. The list arriving today takes in only two counties in Utah. They are Boxelder and Tooele. The land designated in the former county amounts to 375,479 acres, while in Tooele county 29,617 acres have been designated, making a total of 415,096 acres out of the total of 1,000,000 acres which was authorized for designation this year. The remaining 584,904 acres will be taken from the various counties of the state and is now being examined, the idea being to distribute the lands as far as possible over all the state.

The conditions of the act of Feb. 13, 1906, known as the Smoot act, require instead of actual residence on these dry farm lands, merely settlement and cultivation of the 320 acres which is allowed every citizen, instead of 160 acres allowed under the ordinary homestead laws.

Following is the list of lands in Boxelder and Tooele counties, the township and range only being given.

Boxelder county: Township 8 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 9 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 10 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 11 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 12 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 13 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 14 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 15 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 16 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 17 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 18 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 19 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 20 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 21 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 22 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 23 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 24 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 25 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west; township 26 north, ranges 16, 17, 18, 19 west;
