HEARINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

Southern Pacific Passenger Loses Diamonds on the Train.

SCHOOLS TO HAVE TELEPHONES.

Bride of Three Months Obtains a Divorce—Opera House Improvements—Briefs and Personals.

Mr. J. Park, a wealthy lady of Chicago is mourning the loss of several hundred dollars worth of diamonds.

Mrs. Park, with her husband, had been in California on a visit, and were returning east over the Southern Pacific. When near Corning, Utah, she entered the toilet to wash her hands and placed her diamond rings and a diamond stud and scarf pin belonging to her husband in her money purse, which she laid on the wash stand in the room. She left the room, leaving the diamonds and purse on the wash stand where she had placed it. When near the Hot Springs, she remembered having left the valuables in the toilet, and immediately went to look for them, but the purse and jewelry were gone. She reported her loss to the conductor, who, on the arrival of the train at Ogden, having telegraphed ahead, was met by some of the railroad officials, who made a thorough search of every passenger in the Pullman, together with Pullman officers; also every part of the car, but all without avail. The train of the missing articles could be found.

The lady and gentleman were much grieved over the loss, and stopped over last night to assist, if possible, in finding the valuables, and the police are doing everything in their power to locate the stolen goods.

On motion of Atty. J. E. Bugley for the defendant, the court dismissed the action after lengthy arguments on both sides.

17th Sept. Plaintiff of the Amalgamated Sugar company, stated this morning that the delay in receiving sugar from farmers from whom they had been ordered is forcing a delay in the factory. It was planned to ship sugar on hand this morning, but it is about much short of that time. The factory will probably ship Monday.

MALLARD VS CHIEF OF POLICE.

The suit brought by A. Mallard, of Salt Lake City, against Chief of Police regarding to recover $5,000 for damages to his property, was set for trial this morning. The testimony of the plaintiff was that March 31 of this year Mallard was in Ogden when he was arrested on the charge of vagrancy and the police and on being tried by Judge A. Howell four days later on charges of vagrancy, that he was discharged, that through his arrest and the publicity given to the case through the newspapers he was humiliated, and his good character and reputation injured to the tune of $5,000. This morning when court resumed the testimony of the defense was taken.

WILE AND MURPHY CONVICTED.

Thomas H. Doyle and Joseph Turner were on trial yesterday before Judge Taylor and a jury, on the charge of robbery, and were convicted. The defendants entered the second hand store of Sam Rosen, about six weeks ago, and attracted the attention of Rosen, who saw the store when he was a boy. He had a knife over him and Turner helped himself to four watches out of the store case. The men were later arrested with the goods in their possession. The court set Monday as date of sentence.

SCHOOLS TO HAVE TELEPHONES.

The board of education held its regular meeting last evening, transacting the following business:

The proposition of the Rocky Mountain Telephone company to place telephones in the larger school buildings of the city for nine months out of the year at a monthly rental of $2 per month for each phone was accepted, and the board decided to have 13 phones placed in the largest school buildings next week.

Supt. Allison and Mr. Isaba were appointed a committee to arrange suitable exercises for the opening of the Dee building one week from Monday.

OPERA HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.

The public will be pleased when visiting the Grand Opera House to observe the many improvements Mr. Grant the new manager has made on the interior of the building. An arch entrance has been erected across the sidewalk so that those who come in carriages to the theater can step out of their carriage under the canopy, when it is storming and enter the building without getting wet or hereafter. The entrance to the building has been repainted and decorated in pretty harmonizing colors and the interior of the theater has had a thorough scrubbing and cleaning, the floors painted and the aisles and halls newly carpeted throughout. At the rear of the seats of the theater a partition about five feet high has been built to protect the public from the cold draught that usually poured in on them from the entrance. The ladies' and gents' toilet rooms at the rear are nicely fitted up and numerous other improvements have been made ready for the opening Monday night when "An Orphan's Prayer" will be played.

THREE MONTHS BRIDE DIVORCED.

Another Exciting Time on the Copper Belt Railroad Yesterday Afternoon.

ROBERT MONTEER'S ESCAPE.

Locomotive Picked Up Horse and Cart and Threw Them Over Grade.

Then Hit a Wagon.

A runaway work train of the Bingham Copper & Gold Mining company at Bingham endangered the lives of several persons yesterday afternoon, and killed a horse. The train struck an open switch while running at more than ordinary speed on the upper track. The crew had not expected to work on the grade and the air brakes were not connected.

When the train reached the incline it got beyond the control of the train crew. The engineer reversed his engine, and all the crew jumped off, as the train ran down the grade. Just then Robert Monteer was crossing the track in a road cart. As he saw the train almost upon him he saved his life by jumping, and almost simultaneously the locomotive picked up the horse and cart and threw them over the bank, instantly killing the horse.

A little further down the road a heavily loaded dirt wagon was approaching the track, but the driver, seeing the danger in time succeeded in halting back his frightened horse. As the train proceeded down the incline it ran into a boxcar which stood on the track and threw it 100 feet into the swamp. Then the end car of the train, which was loaded with limestone, jumped the track and fell over, and the train followed suit. They were piled up in a jumble, and completely wrecked.
