

TALK OF THE TOWN.

A beautiful day.
 "Sea of Ice" on Monday next.
 The Primary Fair has closed.
 "False Friend" on Tuesday evening.
 The eastern wires were down last night.
 Apostle Orson Pratt, was much improved at 1 p.m. to-day.

The prize essays for the Mears Fair Premium are beginning to roll in.
 Mr. J. C. Little, of Morgan, had his leg accidentally broken on Wednesday.

"Ewing" won the trotting race, yesterday, and "Victory" the running race.

Dr. J. W. Culbertson, oculist, aurist and orthopedic surgeon, is at the Continental.

Nice fall weather. Clear skies, bracing air, pleasant sunshine but keen frosty nights.

The ritual fair opens on Monday morning. It will be the grandest affair for many years.

Professor Armitage, the artist, is engaged upon a painting suggestively entitled, "He shall wipe all tears from their eyes."

There is no truth in the report that Apostle Orson Pratt was seriously ill last evening. On the contrary, he was better than he had been for several days.

Richfield, Sevier County, and Paragonah, Iron County, suspended business and held services last Monday, out of respect for the martyred President, Jas. A. Garfield.

The Evening News will hereafter be published earlier than for some weeks past, during which time it has been delayed every day for the latest news of our now departed President.

W. F. Nealen, Esq., who has returned safe and sound from his trip to the east, made some most splendid selections of goods for the firm of S. P. Teasdel, and they are now arriving at the Eagle House. He was absent for seven weeks and looks hearty after his journey.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Attention Firemen.—The regular quarterly meeting of the brigade tomorrow evening at half-past seven.
 R. B. HARDY, Sec'y.

Ehrick's.—Ehrick's Quarterly for the fall of 1880 is an elegant publication, indicative of much taste and great enterprise on the part of the publishers, Ehrick Bros., New York.

"False Friend."—This finely effective drama, which has made such a splendid reception in the east, will be presented to a Salt Lake audience for the first time next Tuesday evening. The Home Dramatic Club, aided by some of the best outside talent the community affords, will all appear in the east, and the Carolee Orchestra, as usual, will enhance the entertainment by fine musical selections. Get tickets on Monday. No extra charge for reserved seats.

"Sea of Ice."—On Monday evening next this splendid spectacular drama will be presented for the first time in many years, by a powerful dramatic combination, composed of Messrs. D. McKenzie, P. Margrett and J. C. Graham, aided by Mr. J. S. Lindsay, Miss Nellie Colebrook, Mrs. Arlette Cummings, Miss Edith Clawson and other talented support. New scenery has been painted expressly for it, and the phenomena of the sinking ship, the floating iceberg, and other beautiful effects will be produced in all their magnificent entirety. The performance should be witnessed by an overflowing audience. Get seats early, while they may be obtained.

Fire at Richfield.—A fire at Richfield, Sevier County, last Saturday night, destroyed a stable, shed, hay and other feed, two cows and a calf, and about 30 chickens, belonging to Brother Reuben Gurr. Sister Gurr went out to milk the cows in the evening, taking a lamp with her, which was accidentally tipped over, and set fire to some straw. The blaze spread so rapidly that it became impossible to control, or even save anything from its fury, although a great number of people gathered quickly to the place. The fire started about nine o'clock. The estimated loss is $300. The people sympathize deeply with the family, who are in very poor circumstances. A subscription is being taken up in their behalf, and it is thought most of the loss will be replaced. Brother Gurr is absent from home.

Rattle-Snake Massacre.—Mr. George Mills, writing from section 33, Second Division of the Utah Central Railway, furnishes the following item in snake kills, which may not be altogether devoid of interest to our readers. It appears that last spring, himself and comrades were informed by some Indians who paid them a visit that there were two "yaller wickies," or in plainer English, two rattlesnakes in the vicinity. Having some curiosity to hunt them up, they set out one bright sunny day, and in due time arrived at the places designated, where they found the snakes in sportive abundance, warming themselves in the sunshine. The hunters, H. D. Candland, H. C. Haskell and our correspondent, each picked up a club and "waded in" as for a day's work. They killed 29 of the reptiles, including rattle-snakes, whip-snakes and other kinds, on that day, and have kept up the work of extermination at intervals ever since. On the date of writing, 25th inst., Mr. Mills, with Messrs. H. C. Haskell and D. R. Fillmore, made the surviving snakes another friendly call and killed off 26 more, all rattlers but two. From the time they commenced their assaults upon the "wickies" last spring, up to the present, they have massacred 55 rattlesnakes and from 25 to 30 snakes of other species. Our correspondent asks, "How is that for a high?" We think it is of a very respectable altitude, and advise our friends to next turn their weapons in the direction of that old serpent who is called "the devil."

Upholding the Law.—Judge P. H. Emerson, of the First District Court, on Friday last, while charging the jury in the case of Provo City vs. R. S. Hines, wherein the defendant was charged with selling liquor from his drug store without license, practically sustained the municipal ordinance restraining and regulating the sale of distilled liquors. It appears that Mr. Hines had applied to the City Council for a license to dispense liquors for medicinal purposes, and pending the action of the Council upon his petition, had gone on selling liquors as though the license had been granted. Subsequently his stock was appraised by the city officers and found to fall short of $1,000 in value, the least amount, under the ordinance, which justified the issuance of the license in question. Upon this report, the matter was dropped in the Court, but Mr. Hines, nevertheless, continues to dispense liquors as before. He was therefore arrested and tried before a justice of the peace, and the case being decided for the city, he took an appeal to the District Court. It was during this trial that Judge Emerson issued the ordinance which sustained the action of the City Council. Our Provo contemporary says: "A few persons confidently expected that when this case came up for hearing, the Judge would take opportunity to denounce the ordinance as transcending the powers given the city under its charter, and that it would therefore be invalid and void. This expectation was entertained by a few persons in face of the fact that his Honor has frequently declared it to be his purpose to stand by corporate bodies in their laudable efforts to restrain, regulate, and as far as possible prohibit the indiscriminate traffic of intoxicating liquors in any community. While conceding the right of licensed druggists to vend liquor as a medicine, he denies their right to do so independently of local authority, license or legal restraint, as long as laws or ordinances have been created for the licensing of drug stores and the regulation of the liquor trade at those places."

The Insane Asylum.—A few days ago we published an article on the Territorial Insane Asylum, which is about to be erected in Utah County, giving the projected size and plan for the edifice, and other facts in relation to its establishment. We will now give a few additional items respecting it, gleaned from an article in the Enquirer.

As stated before, the building will be three stories high above the water table, (the foundation and basement being some seven or eight feet above the ground) and each wing will be two stories high. The entire building is designed to cover an area of 640 feet in length by 108 feet in width. Each floor will contain a different number of dormitories (each of which is to be 8 x 10) to contain single patients, and some associated dormitories of larger dimensions that will accommodate four or five patients is necessary. The corridors on each floor will run from one extreme end of the building to the other and be 12 feet wide; in portions of these corridors alcoves will be constructed and used as day rooms. On each floor will be a parlor, dining room and offices. The central building is designed exclusively for the use of the officers of the institution, on the first floor of which will be the general office, trustees room, medical office, dispensary, physician's room, and steward's and matron's rooms; the upper floors being designed for the domestic purposes of the superintendent and resident officers of the asylum.

The corridors in the central building will also be 12 feet wide, at either end of which will be a broad fire-proof staircase. The building, it will be remembered, is designed to accommodate 200 patients.

Dedication Services.—In accordance with previous appointment, the Saints of South Bountiful Ward, and many from the adjoining settlements, met at the new meeting-house, at South Bountiful, on Sunday morning, September 25th, 1881, at 10 o'clock, to engage in the dedication services of the new meeting-house. There were present on the stand Apostles John Henry Smith, and Pres. L. John Nuttall, of Kanab; Presidents Wm. G. Smith and Anson Call, of Davis Stake; Bishop Wm. Brown and other officers of the South-Bountiful Ward. The meeting opened by singing by the choir, "After house we dedicate to thee." After which, Bishop Brown made a brief statement in regard to the erection of the building, where-in he stated there were but 68 families resident in the Ward; of these 58 families had advanced of their means for this laudable purpose. The house had cost $2,400, very expensive building for such a small town. The walls were of concrete, plastered inside and outside. The building is 30 x 60 feet, with vestry and upper room 20 x 23 feet square on east end of main building, the whole structure being nicely finished and furnished, and entirely free from debt. After the remarks of Bishop Brown, Apostle John H. Smith offered the dedicatory prayer. The choir again sang, and the congregation was addressed by President Wm. G. Smith, Elder Anson Call, Bishop Brown, Elder Nuttall and Apo H. Call. Benediction was held in the afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Bible Almanac.—During October, Brother J. H. Heman, will publish a Bible Almanac for the year 1882. Encouraged by the large sale of his Bible Almanac for 1881, and the many recommendations for his simple but interesting little book, several pages will be added. The purpose for which it is published, is the promotion of Bible knowledge, and moral sentiments. A portion of the edition will be distributed gratuitously, and the remainder will be sold at 10 cents per copy. The publisher calls attention to it, as an excellent medium for advertising. The rates are, for one page $20; half page, $10.50; quarter page, $5. Call and see him on First South street, opposite Continental Hotel.

Present.—Master Samuel Brown, who wielded the sticks of the big drum of the 15th Ward juvenile band at the Primary Fair, has just received from Mrs. Clawson, the Superintendent, a large photograph of himself and drum, and two large cakes for distribution among the members of the band. The cakes can't be beat.

Bears.—The Logan Leader learns that on the 8th inst., Thomas Leavitt and James Eckerson, of Wellsville, Cache County, were in Porcupine Canyon, near Paradise, when they saw three bears, two old ones and a cub. Having their shooting irons along they killed the two old ones. Next day they saw three more bears, two cubs and one old one. They killed the old one and one of the cubs. The successful bear hunters are old settlers of the valley and seem to know "how its done."

Acknowledgment.—We acknowledge the receipt to-day, from Mrs. Ellen C. Clawson, of a fine frosted cake, from the Primary Fair, made by Miss Mary S. Smith, a little lady of 11 years, residing in the 18th Ward. All who have tasted it, pronounce it No. 1, and hope that the maker will live to prepare many such specimens of choice pastry, and that she will always be as sweet as her cake.

Thanks.—Mrs. Ellen C. Clawson, President of the Primary Association, and her Counselors, desire to return thanks to President Taylor for the use of the Social Hall for the Primary Fair; to the Bishops who loaned flags, banners, etc., for the decorations; to Messrs. Dwyer and Savage, Mrs. Dye, Miss Clothier, Miss Schramm, and many others for prizes for the little folks; to all the exhibitors and every one who has assisted in any way to make the Fair a success.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Dr. John M. Bernhisel were held at 1 p.m. to-day in the 17th Ward Meeting House, under the direction of Bishop John Tingey. The house was filled with the relatives and friends of the deceased. The services commenced by a hymn from the 17th Ward choir, led by brother John Lewis, and prayer was then offered by Counselor Daniel H. Wells. The choir again sang, and the congregation was addressed, in turn, by President George Q. Cannon, Hon. Wm. H. Hooper and President John Taylor. The choir rendered a hymn, a benediction was pronounced by President Wilford Woodruff. The services lasted over two hours, and were of a very impressive and interesting character. The house with the remains was followed to their final resting place by a long concourse of carriages.
