DR. R. V. PTERCE: Dear Sir. -My wife, last year at this time, was confined to her bed with Chronic Liver Disease. I had one of the best doctors to see her, and he gave her up to die, when I came upon some of your medicine. I bought one bottle and commenced giving it. She then weighed 82 lbs.; now she weighs 140 lbs., and is robust and hearty. She has taken an advocate for your medicines. MM. MEAZEL-dis eod wit s2 CHEAREST FUEL in the market. cided liking to clog dancing, also to negro break-downs, bone accom-paniments, kettle-drums, gun and anvil choruses, etc. But are not such entertainments semi-barbar-ous? The chief element in them is noise—hard, harsh, inflexible noise, either thump, grate, clash, emsh, or clatter. In fact, most of the dan-cing one zees consists of either this hard, harsh noise, or stilled, perpen-dicular stumping, reminding one of a parcel of marionettes. How is it there is so little softness, ease, airi-ness, elasticity, elegance, grace-fulness manifest in public terpsi-chorean exercises? Ahl what a world of meaning is covered by that word "gracefulness" — WESTERN.
