Effort to Stamp Out Hog Disease-To Raise Dam.

Ogden, Feb. 11.-The board of coun-commissioners at its regular meet-

Ogden, Feb. 11.—The board of coum-ing Monday considered a number of important matters. Commercial Ascent E. W. Wade ap-peared before the hoard and presented a petition from the Utah Light & Railway company asking permission to raise the road near its dam in Og-den canyon for a distance of a few hun-dred feet, about four feet higher than it is, in order to raise the present dam four or five feet for the purpose of conserving water for power purposes. Sail work of raising read to be done under the direction of the county sur-veyor or engineer, and to the accept-ence of the commissioners. The matter was taken under advisement for one taken under advisement for one

TO STAMP OUT HOG CHOLERA.

The board of county commissioners are determined to stamp out the in-fection that has killed so many hogs in Weber county the past few weeks. The following communication has been sent out to the health officers of Weber county signed by Chairman Madgen of county, signed by Chairman Madsen of the board of health: "In the furtherance of the object and purpose of the meeting held on Satur day, Feb. 8, 1908, in relation to hog cholera, looking to its extermination, Weber county acting under a resolu-tion passed by the board of county tion passed by the board of county commissioners this morning. I would respectfully, as chairman of the board of health, direct and request that you each visit all and every place in your several health districts where swine are kept and investigate the sanitary con-ditions; also have enforced the strictest sanitary rules as to clean liness. Espesanitary rules as to cleanlines. Espe-elally should this be carried out in places where hog cholera has been or does now exist. At such places all premises must be disinfected and every precaution taken to prevent the spread of the disease. Where there are any hogs dying of the disease, see that the are immediately buried or Yards and places were hogs are kept, or all pasture lands should be plowed; and fowls kept for a season from such yards or pastures.

DEATH OF ESTEEMED WOMAN.

Tomorrow evening at the Congre-gational church the second of the ser-les of musicales will be given com-mencing at 8:30 o'clock. A splendid program will be presented.

Licenses to wed were granted by the county clerk to the following couples: William H. Varley, 21, and Miss Ida V. Calvin, 18, both of Ogden City. W. C. Wayne, 24, of Roy and Miss Edith Nelson, 20, of Riverside.

Saturday night is the night when ALL the little ones are given what the French call "The Grand Bath"-a thorough cleansing from top to toe.
