Lewis, provident of the heard insi-tendered his resignation to Mayor Frewer, and has roundly scored the members of the city council for their discourteous treatment of the board. At the session of the council a com-munication was received from the board of park commissioners recommending that the amount of money to be ap-propriated for the use of the board be increased from $10,000 to $16,000. When the matter came to the council, a mos matter came to the council, a mo-n was made by Councilman Dickson appropriate $10,000 to the board; he vas also supported in the motion by founcliman Peery. Councilman Fly-sure offered an amendment to the Dickson motion to appropriate $5,000 to the board. After some debate, the Fly-gare amendment carried. The communication sent to Mayor Brewer by Mr. Lewis calls attention to the very fax method the council has in humiling communications beaching a hundling communications, keeping s pledges, etc. He states that on an, 18, the board sent to the council communication and report, with re-mmendations, and the same were dered filed without over being read. A motion was passed by the council to the effect "That the heard of park commissioners knew the meeting rights of the city council, and if it desired to meet with the council, it could do o on any regular meeting night of the council." "Such an invitation extended through the council did not show the board members the courtesy due them, and they did not accept of such invitation," continues Mr. Lewis. He adds that through the effects of President Brown-ing of the council, a meeting was ar-ranged for Field. 1 with the council and the based where a thereard, die

Notice of the meet-ing was given to each of the council-men, but when the meeting was called only three of the ten showed up, they were President Browning. Councilmen Peery and Austin. On Foh 8, the coun-cil met and the recommendations of the I mut and the recommendations of the board wore again not read, but some councilman moved that $5,000 be ap-propriated to the commissioners. In conclusion, Mr, Lewis again "The efforts of the board are certainly not appreciated by a majority of the coun-cil, and in view of the facts abave stated. I hereby tender to you my resignation as president and director if the board of park commissioners of Justen. Since the action of the council in the Special Covrespondence. Glies, Wayne Co., Feb. 1.—Puneral services were build here Jun 28, over the remains of Hert Aveors, who died Jan 20, 1998, at the spe of 57 years. He was a pioneer in this country and though he had a great many triends who will remember him for his hol-esty and generosity. Fitting remarks wore made at his funeral by Elders O. H. Lance, Jonathan Hunt and A. S. Maybew, who had known him for-many years and all spoke of his hon-esty and industry. He passed away at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Glies and had every curve that would be given him. His folks, where ever they may be, can rest assured that he was well cared for.
