Story." On opening the envelope inscribed "Driftwood," the author was found to be Miss Emily Calhoun Clowes, 32 south Fourth East street, Salt Lake City, A great number of other excellent stories were submitted. Indeed, the stories were never so numerous nor of such general highgrade, which evinces that the encouragement afforded our local writers by the Christmas prize competitions of the "News," is bearing excellent fruit. The staff desires to specially commend the stories entitled, "A Christmas Spider," by Leander Long, and "The Gift with the Giver," by M. The $25 prize for the best " Christmas poem was awarded to . "The Legend of the First Christmas Tree," by 'Missionary." The real name of the author is Mrs. Amelia Beckwith Gatrell, 430 south Third East. This is the second Christmas News competition in which Mrs. Gatrell has been successful. Other poems worthy of honorable mention are "Pax Vobiscum," by "M. A. Y.:" 'Christmas Sonnets and Song," by "Bethany," and "A Christmas . Poem," by "'Marguerite,"

The $25 prize for the best article on "Los Angeles and Sait Lake: Their Future Trade Relations," was awarded to the article signed "Michael Sprinkle." The author turned out to be the wellknown writer, Mr. Joel L. Priest, of the Herald staff.

tendance is desired. It was a pathetic case of bables being mixed, yesterday, by a confusion of tongues over the telephone wires, which made the sex of the arrival of a soprano in alt in the family of J. J. Daynes, Jr., read a tenore robusto. Maestro Daynes hastens to inform his admiring and congratulating that while he had prayed diligently that it might be a boy, he has recon-clied himself to the will of the gods that it should be a girl, and will fit her for Wagnerian opera.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new comedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one prepura-tion that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fall, viz: Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy. Give it and a quick cure is sure to follow. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Rem-edy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it alwaya, gives prompt relief."
