This horse was scared to death! Dr. Walter Emms was driving in the vicinity of the Rio Grande depot yesterday, and as he was near the track of a siding on which there were quite a number of empty cars standing, a switch engine kicked a car down the track. The noise made by the car when it bumped into the others caused the horse to rear into the air. Then he fell to the ground and with a squall, rolled over dead. Dr. Emms, who is a veterinary surgeon, pronounced the case one of being scared to death.

EIGHT-HOUR BILL SURELY DOOMED.

Hone's Pet Measure Will Meet Its Fate at Next Session of The House.

COMMITTEES ARE AGAINST IT.

Solons Take Time to Look Up the Word "Fiscal"—Bills Passed and Introduced.

One feature of Thursday's session of the house was the report of the committees on labor and manufacture and commerce recommending the non-passage of H. B. 94, by Hone, extending the operations of the eight-hour law to mills, factories and shops. The reading of the report brought forth a motion by Cromar, chairman of the committee on labor, that the vote on its adoption be taken by roll call. Later, however, it developed that the report was not signed by Chairman Lyman of the committee on manufactures and commerce, and accordingly it was recommitted for his signature. The bill will most likely go to its fate at the next session.

On motion of Richards H. B. 138, providing for the establishment of a central Utah experiment station, was made the special order for Tuesday next at 3 p. m.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

H. B. 127 by Joseph, relating to taxing of net proceeds of the saline products of the state, was read for third reading and final passage. The vote on the adoption of the measure was, ayes, 31, nays, 2.

S. B. 29, by Hollingsworth, was opposed by Kuchler, who moved to strike out the enacting clause, as he considered it unjust bill. The measure pertains to fees of municipal courts and affects both Ogden, making the people of the city bear the burden. McCrea, on the other hand, said the measure was a good one, and should be passed.

H. B. 45, by Kinney, relating to the enacting clause, as he did not think this was proper procedure with senate bills. The motion was withdrawn and the bill was read for third time and passed by a vote of 30 to 4.

S. B. 46 by Callister, relating to vacancies and pay of jury commissioners, passed on a vote of 33 ayes and 2 nays.

WILL LOOK UP "FISCAL".

S. B. 40 by Hollingsworth, fixing the fiscal year, was not wholly understood by the members, and on motion of Marks it was placed at the foot of the calendar to come up for consideration later on. Joseph, in discussing the measure, said he thought it was unconstitutional, besides, it would "upturn" all departments of business.

H. B. 45, by Kinney, relating to undertakings on appeal from justice's court, passed by a unanimous vote.

H. B. 113 by Johnson, prohibiting the sale of firearms to minors, and making it a misdemeanor for such minors to have firearms in their possession, unless accompanied by parent or guardian, was passed by a vote of 30 to 4. An effort to change the age limit from 14 to 12 years failed.

NEW HOUSE BILLS.

The new bills and their reference follow:

H. B. No. 153, Joseph, requires the supreme court to render decisions on all causes of action within six months from the date of hearing. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 152, Joseph—Relating to the taxation of transient stock. Livestock committee.

H. B. No. 151, Marks—Allowing sheriffs to serve writ of garnishment. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 150, Marks—To make the possession of stolen property, if not satisfactorily proven, prima facie evidence of the offense of larceny. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 149, Marks—Requiring the final account and petition for settlement of estates to be filed with the probate court. Probate.

H. B. No. 148, Marks—Requiring a complete list of persons entitled to participate in the distribution. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 147, Marks—Allowing persons interested in the final distribution of an estate to file petitions to be heard at the same time as the petitions of heirs. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 146, Edwards—Providing that in counties of the first class $25 per month shall be paid to county commissioners in lieu of actual traveling expenses.

H. B. No. 145, Miller, by request—To provide for the initiative and referendum in legislation. Judiciary.

H. B. No. 144, Hone—Requires manufacturers of and dealers in renovated butter to pay a license fee. Public health.

When the bill providing for the initiative and referendum was announced, William Edwards expressed his disapproval of the measure by shouting "Rate."

EVENING SESSION.

The night session was one of business from start to finish.

H. B. 128, to prevent the befooling of waters by bedding, dipping or washing sheep or other stock in proximity to streams used for culinary purposes, was passed unanimously. The bill forbids the bedding of sheep within a half mile of any stream or spring used for the purposes named, or at any other place where the water from such bedded ground would naturally be washed into such stream by high water.

H. B. 89, providing for the filing of judgments in counties other than those in which the judgments are rendered, in order to facilitate their collection, passed on a vote of 28 ayes.

H. C. R. 3, by Joseph, directing the treasurer of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission to turn over the $2,121.12 in his hands to the state treasurer, was referred to the special Louisiana purchase investigating committee.

H. B. 110, permitting cities of the first and second class to levy a tax of one mill for the purpose of establishing and maintaining public libraries and reading rooms, was passed by unanimous vote.

S. B. 38, an emergency clause, and the house did not have two-thirds of its members present, the bill went to the foot of the calendar.

H. B. 108, allowing defendants ten days in which to answer summons in city courts, and providing that if a copy of the complaint is not served with the summons or deposited with the clerk of the court within five days, the case shall be dismissed at plaintiff's cost, was passed unanimously.

H. B. 103 also passed. The bill corrects the wording of the present law relating to pleas under the statute of limitations.

H. B. 99, providing for the enforcement of executions in counties in which transcripts have been filed with the clerk of the district court, passed unanimously.

H. B. 132, giving city courts concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in actions for accountings, and actions in equity relating wholly to personal property, where the amount involved does not exceed the value of $500, was passed.

H. B. 136, making the state treasurer custodian of the bonds of all state officials, except himself, and requiring the secretary of state to hold the treasurer's bond, went through minus the emergency clause.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy. EDUCATION AND LIFE.

Subject of Mrs. Baker's Address Before Students of L. D. S. University.

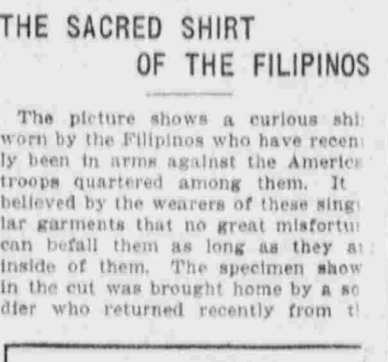

Bertha Kunz Baker spoke before the student assembly of the Latter-day Saints' university this morning. In introducing the speaker, President Paul said it was an especial pleasure to welcome a scholar whose work tended to inspire with life and energy, since the tendency of many branches of research is to lessen the vital force and to make a person bookish and listless. Mrs. Baker said the professor had struck the keynote, not only of the work she is endeavoring to do, but also of the modern educational idea. She said that studies today are valued only in their relation to life. Apart from their effects on the individual, they cannot justify themselves. It is only as education enters into our lives and causes us to live more nobly, more joyously, more fully, that it can claim our time and labor. This is the aim of the modern educator, and Mrs. Baker closed amidst great applause. The president then announced that the physical training in the gymnasium would be held after in the nature of aesthetic physical training classes and that none but students of the designated sections would be admitted to the gymnasium. A special trainer has been engaged for this work.

TOURING ADVANTAGES IN THE WEST.

Few parts of the world can excel California in the diversity of automobile touring possibilities. Throughout its extent the traveler is afforded a wide variety of the motor car tourist is faced with every possibility that can be secured in Switzerland or Norway. Every phase of topography is encountered and the traveler feels that it needs only a spin of a short hundred miles to give him the exhilaration of the mountains or the quiet of the plains. And eastern automobilists are gradually awakening to the fact that California is well adapted to ship their cars abroad to find all the varied beauties of nature in which to revolve in California they will find more than an expensive tour abroad will give them. This also is obtainable by a three or four day trip over a railroad that finds no parallel the world over. Summer and winter, the roads of California afford a haven for the tourist. Prohibitive seasons are unknown. The whizzing car can cover the route of the west in February as well as in the summer-warm days of July. The car can be seen daily without a roadway opens up to the traveler. Those motorists who are favored by a continual residence in California will find that the eastern expert needs a more advanced education in the west—Wallace W. Evered, in Sunset Magazine.

BILLS ARE SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR

"Purity" Measures Receive Official Endorsement of Idaho's Chief Executive.

TEXT OF THE POLYCAMY BILL.

Measure Repealing River Franchise Act Passes the Senate—Female Convicts.

Special Correspondence.

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 16.—The governor today signed senate bill No. 1, prohibiting polygamy; senate bill No. 15, defining the powers of district judges in chambers, and house bill No. 34, providing a fire and burglar proof vault and burglar proof safe for the state treasurer.

The senate has passed house bill No. 22, which provides for the repeal of the river franchise act. The bill provides that the state land board shall no longer have authority to grant franchises for the improvement of navigable streams for logging or booming purposes, etc.

The senate has passed house bill No. 27, providing for the care of female convicts outside of the state. But these measures have gone to the governor for consideration. There are now a number of important measures in the hands of the executive for approval or veto. Gov. Gooding has asked of each house that when an enrolled bill is sent down, it shall be sent with a certified copy of the journal in so far as it affects the measure. This is being done, and consideration of measures passing both houses has been delayed somewhat by the wait for these abstracts from the journal.

POLYCAMY BILL.

Senate bill No. 1, by Cram, entitled, "An act defining the crime of polygamy and providing punishment therefor," is as follows:

Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Idaho:

Section 1. Every person who has a husband or wife living who hereafter marries another, whether married or single, and any man who hereafter marries more than one woman, is guilty of polygamy, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 and six months imprisonment in the county jail, or by fine not exceeding $2,000 and by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term of not more than five years.

But this section shall not extend to any person by reason of a former marriage, whose husband or wife by such marriage shall have been absent for five successive years, and is not known to such person to be living, and is believed by such person to be dead, nor to any person by reason of any former marriage which shall have been dissolved by a valid decree of a competent court, nor to any person by reason of a former marriage which shall have been annulled by a valid decree of a competent court, on the ground of nullity of the marriage contract.

PENALTY FOR ADULTERY.

Senate bill No. 2 is by Nugent, and fixes the penalty for adultery at not less than a fine of $100, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three months, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a period not exceeding three years, or in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000.
