

THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRESS.—We learn by Deseret Telegraph Line, that President Young visited Rockville to-day. He will stay there to-night and return to Tokerville to-morrow morning, and on Friday proceed to St. George.

THEATRICAL.—Last night the sparkling and beautiful comedy of the "Ladies' Battle" was presented, and was capitally performed. Mrs. Fanny Morgan Phelps played the Countess d'Aureval in fine style; Miss Lockhart was graceful and effective as Leonie de la Villegoutier; Messrs. Lindsay and Hardie played well, as usual; Mr. Graham, as Gustavo de Grignon, had an excellent opportunity to display his abilities, and he made the most of it; his alternate fits of indomitable bravery and cowardly poltroonery were played in his best style and kept the audience busy laughing.

The "Bonnie Fish Wife" closed the performance and made merriest without stint.

To-night there is an excellent bill for fun and mirth. The "Ladies' Battle" will be again presented and will be followed by the "Wild Irish Girl," a rare entertainment for all who want to "laugh and grow fat."

FOUND.—We are pleased to be able to inform our readers that Mary Carmichael has been restored to her friends. On leaving her home she wandered towards the mountains east of the city, and stayed one night in the open air. But at last getting tired of meandering about she turned again towards the city and was recognized and taken to her home by some friends in the Sugar House Ward. Elder J. D. T. McAllister desires to express his sincere thanks to those who took an interest in her and were instrumental in returning her to her friends.

SHOULD BE STOPPED.—The thoughtless habit of whittling the bark off young trees on our side walks demands the attention of heads of families, especially in those streets where the passers-by are few. In such places our little folks may occasionally be seen with a "nice new knife," trimming the bark round with a neatness and dexterity which shows their taste for ornamentation as well as skill in decoration. Suppose parents would explain in kindness to the boys that the bark of a tree, like the skin of animals, is necessary to life, that the sap, like the blood of animals has to circulate beneath the bark, and that if the bark is removed the tree will die. Our boys are intelligent, and if we try to inform their minds on these subjects our time will not be lost and our shade trees will not suffer.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—A great number of our citizens have lived a great many years in the city without knowing the name of the street on which they resided, indeed without even suspecting that the street had a name. When asked where they lived, the general answer they would give would be "In the—Ward so many blocks from the School House." But all this is to be remedied, the city fathers, are having white boards on which are neatly painted the names of the streets in black letters put up at the various street corners. This combination of color has been proved by many experiments to be far better than other for notices which have to be read at a distance.

THE UTAH MAGAZINE.—The publishers of the Utah Magazine inform us that the first number of the new form will appear in a few days. We had placed in our hands to day, a specimen page of the new volume, and must confess that in the increase of its size, in the beauty of the type, and the superior character of the paper on which it is printed it is a vast improvement on the previous volume. Among other novelties commenced in the new volume we noticed a "home made" serial story, entitled "The Hebrew Maiden, or not all dross;" whilst sketches by "Saxey" and by "Jingo," late of the "Keep-a-pitchin'" enliven its pages. Each number will also contain a page of music, in the old notation, the first in this style ever published in the Rocky Mountains. The piece selected for the first number is an original composition by Professor Tuillidge, entitled "Hail, beautiful spring."

CO-OPERATION IN "DIXIE."—We are indebted to the Deseret Telegraph Line for informing us that the Southern Utah Co-operative Mercantile Association opened their store yesterday morning. The store was thronged with people all day.

FARMINGTON.—We learn, through a letter from Elder Ed. Stevenson, that the funeral services of Elder E. J. Clark took place on Sunday afternoon at Farmington. He says: "The Presidents of Seventies in Farmington, conveyed the body of the deceased to the meeting-house, at three o'clock in the afternoon. Instructive and impressive addresses were given by Elders E. Stevenson, N. H. Felt, N. T. Porter and Bishop Hess." He further adds: "It being nine months since the death of Bro. Ezra J., his body was in an advanced state of decay; but his person was recognized by his peculiar front teeth and garments. At Farmington we found a head-board at his grave, and a respectable coffin, as we had learned was the case through previous correspondence with the authorities of Fondra, who have our sincere thanks for the favors and kindnesses extended to us. There was another person who died at the same time and place as Elder Clark, whose name is desired by the Sexton there, that it may be placed on the head-board and record book."

NORVAL.—Can any person answer the doleful inquiries of our friend "Norval" and bring peace to his soul by advising him of a remedy.

OUR DIXIE.—We clip the following items from the Rio Virgin Times of the 14th inst. "The grasshoppers are committing considerable ravages, in each, the Washington, St. George and Santa Clara fields. Several pieces of wheat have already disappeared, as well as immense numbers of these voracious insects, which have been driven into pits and ditches and burned, with the aid of straw. By diligence in driving, harassing and destroying, and the aid of the multitudes of birds, we may hope to avoid any very serious losses or annoyances. We learn that there is no scarcity of these pests in Pine Valley."

We are now regaling daily upon radishes, lettuce, onions, asparagus, pie-plant, etc. We saw peas in bloom several days ago. In a word, two we shall be amid the glory of strawberries. Almonds, peaches, and peaches are the size of hazelnuts. To-day we picked a handful of ripe strawberries in our grounds.

Our gardens now beam with the smiles of lilacs, tulips, verbena, geraniums, pansies, pinks, iris and many other flowers that lend a rich fragrance to the passer by. The tints of the rose may already be seen in the opening buds.

Since our last issue all the co-operation freight teams from California have come in except one wagon in charge of D. Woodley. Sixteen "choochoo" loads of goods at a time for St. George is rather an unusual amount, but we need them.
