WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON, 13.-The removal of Summer from the committee on foreign relations, continues to be the exciting topic of conversation in all political circles; and its probable effect on the future of the Republican party, and the renomination of Grant, is freely discussed. All the Republican Senators, except a few of Summer's personal enemics in the Senate, agree that the occurrance is very damaging to the party, and may prove disastrous; in short, that it was a gross political blunder. The Democrats are highly elated about the affair. They say that Grant's renomination is sure because there is no man of sufficient strength to oppose him; but that his defeat will follow as a necessary result of the dissensions occasioned among the Many leading Republicans, on the other hand, assert that Grant's renomination is now out of the question, and that it is necessary to begin to look about for a more favorable candidate if the party is to be saved from defeat. They argue that the entire body of New England Republicans will be heatile to him, and Republicans will be nestlie to him, and Republicans will be nestlied to him, and Republicans will be nestlied to him, and Republicans will be nestlied to him, and the party is to be saved from defeat. They will be a direct one, the Emperor's health rendering it inexpedient for him to lengthen the trip by a visit to any of the princes of the Empire.

on account of Summer's removal; and that it has alienated also all the original anti-slavery men throughout the country, who have always formed an active working element of the Republican party. There is already much can vassing relative to the merits and popularity of many prominent public men, with a view to their possible candidaty for the Republican nomination.
