Miles' Report Discussed—The Public Debt—Secretary Manning, Etc.

WASHINGTON, 1.—The unusual report of General Miles is still in the hands of the President and has been the subject of a brief conference today between himself and Secretary Endicott, but it is understood no line of action has yet been decided upon. In regard to that portion relating to the surrender of Geronimo, while the text of the report is not yet accessible for publication, it is known that in respect to that matter General Miles does not explain himself to the satisfaction of the authorities, and that his granting of conditions which are now understood to be even more liberal than has heretofore been supposed, is a subject of embarrassment and perplexity. Without saying so in emphatic terms it is gathered from Gen. Miles' roundabout expressions on the subject, that the agreement was made that the lives of the prisoners should be spared, and that they should be removed at once from Arizona. In this respect General Miles has, it is said, gone contrary to the

WELL-UNDERSTOOD WISHES

of his superiors, which action amounts practically to disobedience of orders. The only reason suggested for this course, in the absence of any satisfactory statement on the point from General Miles, is the fear that if he did not secure the prisoners in this way, they would make terms with and surrender themselves to the Mexicans. This would have rendered the termination of the campaign less creditable to the Americans. In this state of affairs there seems to be nothing which the authorities can do for the prisoners except to keep them permanently as prisoners of war. Even should the civil authorities of Arizona demand them for trial, with the most positive proof of murder ready for presentation, the hands of the Administration would be tied.

The public debt statement was issued this afternoon. It shows the reduction of during the month of September to be $10,627,013.17, and the total cash in the Treasury $465,375,713.93.

Cash in the Treasury, available for reduction of the public debt—
Gold held for gold certificates actually outstanding	$ 84,691,807.00
Silver held for silver certificates actually outstanding	95,587,112.00
United States notes held for certificates of deposit actually outstanding	8,705,000.00
Cash held for matured debt and interest unpaid	19,136,607.48
Fractional currency	3,517.15
Total available for reduction of debt	$206,924,043.63
Reserve fund, held for redemption of United States notes, acts January 13, 1875, and July 12, 1882	100,000,000.00
Unavailable for reduction of the debt—
Fractional silver coin	$ 26,899,745.50
Minor coin	295,294.09
Total	27,195,039.59
Certificates held as cash	63,360,340.00
Net cash balance on hand	77,896,331.01
Total cash in the Treasury as shown by Treasurer's general account	$465,375,713.93

The total gold coin bullion in the Treasury September 30th was $242,609,018, as compared with $235,430,535 on the 31st of the previous month. The net gold in the Treasury, after deducting the gold certificates in the Treasury, cash and in circulation on September 30th, $157,917,214, as compared with $175,732,288 on the 31st of the previous month.

The Star to-night says: At the Treasury Department there seems to be no importance attached to the report that the President has offered the

to Senator McPherson. It may be stated with certainty that Secretary Manning is going back to the Treasury. He has decided to remain at the head of the Department so long as his health will permit him to do so, even to the end of Mr. Cleveland's term. When the members of the Cleveland Cabinet had their appointments it was with the understanding that they "enlisted for the war;" that they would remain in the Cabinet until the end of the term. The Democratic administration was an experiment, and many serious obstacles had to be overcome, and stability was necessary. It was important that there should be no breaking up of the Cabinet. They had to work together, come what might, to carry into effect the Democratic measures and make the administration a success. Of course, such a calamity as the illness of Mr. Manning was not taken into consideration. When he was in such a critical condition that it was uncertain whether or not he would ever recover, and he was obliged to leave the Department, it seemed as if his retirement could not be avoided. Consequently his resignation was sent in. Now he has apparently recovered his health, and he is willing and desirous to "stand by the ship," and see the administration through, if his physical condition will admit of it. He would put himself to great personal inconvenience to do this. His absence would be a SERIOUS LOSS TO THE CABINET,

and Mr. Cleveland would feel it keenly. Of course, as a friend, Cleveland would not urge him too strongly to remain if it involved an injury to his health. But he will do all he can to retain his services without taxing his strength. It may be said with certainty that Mr. Manning will make the trial. Those who are in a position to be best informed on the situation, do not think that Senator McPherson will be Secretary of the Treasury, should Mr. Manning find, by experience, that his retirement from active life is necessary to his health.

The extension of the special delivery system of the Postoffice Department to all post offices and on all classes of matter goes into effect tomorrow.

The United States Treasurer to-day issued the following notice in regard to the issue of one dollar certificates:

Owing to the great demand for other denominations of notes the Treasurer of the United States is unable to supply one dollar notes except in small amounts. In order to satisfy, as far as possible,

THE PUBLIC DEMANDS,

it has been decided to furnish from this office those notes in sums of $1000 to each bank making application, and at the same time a deposit of that sum with the Assistant Treasurer at New York. Upon the receipt of the certificate of deposit, a like sum will be forwarded at the expense of the banks making the application. In order to effect an equitable distribution as far as possible, applicants will obtain those notes in the order in which the deposits are made at the Sub-Treasury in New York. Until further notice, no second application will be granted until the supply of notes is adequate to meet all current demands. The maximum amount of these certificates that the Treasury can furnish daily will not exceed $6,000, and it is suggested by the Acting Treasurer that it will be well for the banks to ascertain through their New York correspondents the probable time when they will receive the shipments of notes, in the order in which deposits are made.

☞The total coinage executed at the mints of the United States during September was $4,070,056.50, of which $3,810,100 was in standard silver dollars.

TEXAS FEVER.

Commissioner Colman, of the Department of Agriculture, has received a report from Dr. C. K. Dyer, the veterinary surgeon who was sent out to ascertain what disease had broken out in the counties of London, Fauquier and Prince William, in Virginia, communicated by the cattle obtained from Chicago, in which he says the disease is Texas fever and not pleuro-pneumonia.

A committee of the Union Veterans called upon the Public Printer to-day in behalf of their comrades who had been discharged from the Government Printing Office. Benedict assured them that Union soldiers in his office need not fear discharge if competent and attentive to duty.

The Treasury Department has granted application for permission to transport certain crates in bond from New Orleans to the slaughtering house in the interior of Texas, and their return to New Orleans filled with dressed beef for exportation, provided bond is given for said return within a period of 30 days.

Sherman on Silver.

CINCINNATI, 1.—Senator Sherman visited the Exposition this morning and this afternoon was received with enthusiasm by the Chamber of Commerce. In the course of a brief speech he said: "But the greatest question of all, perhaps, is the silver question—how to make it equal to the gold dollar, for there should be only one standard. I have gone through one press of redeeming Uncle Sam's money, and I do not want to go through it again. You might put more silver in your dollar and make it equal to gold, but then it would be too big, as it is now. But any way, it would be a good thing to go to work with. A dollar must be a dollar and a dollar's worth of silver must be put into it to make it a dollar. That is honesty and prudence. If I had my way, I would stop the coinage of the silver dollar, gather it into Uncle Sam's great vaults, and then issue certificates and let you handle them. These certificates would form the basis of our National Bank circulation, and preserve what I believe to be the best system of banks in the country. The tariff and other great issues would in a great measure regulate themselves, but the silver question is the great one of the future. One dollar of one value is what we must have, before we can have that stability so necessary to national security and business success."

Murder Most Foul.

WACO, Tex., 1.—The story of a fiendish double murder has been received here from Throckmorton County. The victims are a farmer named Urney and his grown up daughter Lizzie. The father who had been lassoed and dragged some distance from his home was found with his throat cut. The daughter had been ravished and then murdered by mutilation. A horse's tracks were discovered in the yard, which on being followed led to the arrest of a negro cowboy who said he stopped at Urney's house for a drink and saw two white men enter the yard as he left. The negro's lariat is missing and he was taken into custody. Fearing lynching the officers left Throckmorton with their prisoner.

Pleuro-Pneumonia.

CHICAGO, 1.—Dr. Hopkins, of Wyoming, was in consultation with Mr. Washburne at the stock yards yesterday. The Doctor said the Wyoming stock growers would not ship any stock from Chicago until all danger of pleuro-pneumonia was over. Washburne said he felt confident the authorities were doing their best to prove if there was any pleuro-pneumonia, and that if they proved there was, nothing would be left undone to drive the disease from the country; and if they did not prove it no harm would result, and probably a great deal of good.

Miles' Report.

NEW HAVEN, 1.—The statement in General Miles' official report of the Apache campaign, made public at Washington yesterday, that Geronimo was not captured but surrendered conditionally, is contradicted by Captain Lawton, who was in command of the United States troops at the time of the capture.

In a private telegram to Lieut. Albee, of the Winchester armory, dated Albuquerque, N. M., Captain Lawton explicitly denies that the surrender of Geronimo was coupled with any conditions whatsoever.

Fire.

CINCINNATI, 1.—Reinhart & Newton's Candy Manufacturing Company, on West Second Street, was damaged $75,000 by fire shortly after midnight. Insurance $40,000.

The Charter Oak.

HARTFORD, Conn., 1.—Judge Pardee made an order to-day that all creditors, including the policy holders, of the Charter Oak Life Insurance Company must file their claims with the receiver of the company before July 1, 1888.

Poisonous Gas.

DENVER, Col. 1.—The Tribune's Central City says: This afternoon Cornelius McCoy went down the shaft of the Nugget mine to rescue Wm. Quintrall, who was overcome by the poisonous gas. Later both were taken out, McCoy dead and Quintrall in a dying condition.

The Wheelmen's Display.

ST. LOUIS, 1.—St. Louis has had many magnificent processions, but nothing has eclipsed the novelty and weird beauty of the wheelmen's illuminated parade which took place tonight on the asphaltum streets in the West End of the city over a route of nearly three miles in length. A dense throng of people greeted the parade and despite the efforts of the police the crowd filled the streets in some places, so that only a narrow pass was left for the cyclers who, headed by a brass band, rolled up the streets. Two flambeaux clubs on wheels carrying red torches, lighted up the line, which was about a mile long. The squads of riders, representing animals, demons, cowboys and humpty-dumpty, formed a variegated combination, while some special bicycle and tricycle feats were marvelously executed. The officers of the League of American Wheelmen under whose auspices the parade was given, have been asked to repeat it during the fair next week.

An Alaskan Volcano.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—A letter published in the Bulletin, under the date of Kodiak, Alaska, September 14th, says: The volcanic peak on Pavloff Mountain, 200 miles southwest of that place on the Alaska Peninsula, is in an eruption. Slight falls of volcanic dust, resembling emery powder, have been observed. Captain Curry of the schooner "Kodiak" reports that on August 13th, when 100 miles from the volcano, the vessel was enveloped in a black cloud. The darkness was so great that the lamps were kept burning from 10 a. m. till 2 p. m. At the same time black dust fell upon the deck to the depth of several inches. Capt. Abbey, U. S. steamer Corwin, who arrived here August 21st, also brought samples of dust and reported having heard a noise like thunder near the volcanic region. No earthquake shocks have been reported thus far in connection with the outbreak.

FOREIGN.

Republican Manifesto.

MADRID, 1.—A manifesto to the Spanish people, signed by "Enrique de Bourbon, Duke de Seville," is being circulated in Spain. The document, which was published in Tarbor, France, is dated September 28th. In it the Duke, who is under imprisonment for having attempted to force his way into the Queen's presence while he was on military duty at the palace, shortly after King Alfonso's death, complains that he is harshly treated in prison. He also declares that although he is a Republican by birth and at heart, he loyally served his cousin, King Alfonso so long as he was alive, because family duty made such service imperative. "Now," says the manifesto, "that King Alfonso is dead, all that is ended, and I desire to assist in proclaiming a republic for Spain. A republic is the only form of government that can furnish a guarantee for the security and integrity of the country."

Bulwer.

LONDON, 1.—Bulwer will proceed to Ulster next Saturday. He has been invested with powers similar to those given to General Sir Redvers Buller, in County Kerry.

The Treaty.

MADRID, 1.—The Official Gazette publishes the text of the commercial treaty between Spain and Germany, signed on August 28th, prolonging the treaty of 1883 to 1892.

The Fisheries—The Chambers.

PARIS, 1.—President Grevy has sanctioned the credit of $240,000 for the encouragement of French sea fisheries.

The French Chambers have been summoned to assemble on October 14.

Cholera.

TRIESTE, 1.—There has been one death from cholera and four new cases in this city, since the last report.

Rome, 1.—Since the last report there have been five deaths from cholera and nineteen new cases throughout Italy.

Asking for Terms.

DUBLIN, 1.—The tenants on the Taafe estate at Ballahaunis, County Mayo, to-day went in a body to the agent of the estate and asked him to reduce their rents. The agent refused to do so, whereupon the tenants left, saying they would rather have evictions than pay impossible rents.

Fatal Floods.

MADRAS, 1.—Floods are devastating Godavery district. Some villagers tried to cut the dam to relieve their own village of water at the expense of the other villages. A fierce fight ensued in which one hundred natives were killed.

Can't Have It.

BERLIN, 1.—The Berlin Post says that the Congo Free State has refused to grant a railway concession to a firm of Englishmen because they were too exacting in the terms they demanded.

CORRESPONDENCE.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

SPANISH FORK,
October 1st, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

This morning about daylight Deputy Marshals Redfield of Provo, Vandercook and, I believe, Smith, made a raid and arrested our worthy Bishop, G. D. Snell, and one of our best citizens, Sylvester Bradford, presumably on the charge of leading virtuous lives—i. e., living with and supporting their wives and children and of acting toward them as true husbands and fathers.

JOS. A. REES.

FROM DETROIT.

A PRISON AND PRINCIPLE PRESERVED, BETTER THAN THE WEALTH OF THE WORLD AND WEAKNESS.

HOUSE OF CORRECTION,
DETROIT, MICHIGAN,
September 26, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Brother—Perhaps I am trespassing in writing so often, but I feel that our condition partly justifies me in imposing both upon you and your readers, as it appears to us the only means by which we can reach all who have so liberally, both in word and deed befriended us in our unenviable situation. Many of our friends earnestly request us to write to them and we are as anxious to do it; but it is impossible, as even these few lines are sent you through the special kindness of our deputy, who extends to us every favor the prison rules will allow. If, however, all the Saints appreciated the pages of the NEWS as highly as we prisoners in Detroit do, there would certainly be a copy in every house and all would read at least part of this our humble communication; the NEWS, Bikuben, Millennial Star, P. L. Journal, Juvenile Instructor and Historical Record never fail, and the Era and Svenska Harolden we receive part of the time, for all of which we heartily thank our brethren, as also for books, pamphlets and other similar favors. I also feel to express my special thanks to the editor of Bikuben for his kindness in taking the trouble to translate my letter for the benefit of my Scandinavian friends while I cannot perform my real duty to write to him specially; however, it is not only those who have tried to lighten our burden here with literary blessings that I desire to express my gratitude to at present; there are many ways in which both we and our families have been remembered by the Saints, for which words are inadequate to express our feelings of gratitude.

Our health is at present good with the exception that I am considerably pained by rheumatism. Our hope of deliverance before our term of sentence is out is not quite dead yet, but is badly shaken. The entire absence of any fairness or justice toward us in the past leaves but a meagre hope for any clemency in the future. History furnishes but few instances or parallels of so unjust and atrocious a crime against innocent men as we have been subjected to by what ought to be courts of justice, and we can but naturally suppose that even if the President should be disposed to grant us a pardon, he will be so intimidated by our enemies and so influenced by false reports that he will drop the whole thing.

We cannot deny that we are sick and tired of prison life; I have heard and read of ancient Saints being imprisoned for the Gospel's sake, but my imagination never could comprehend the feelings of a prisoner in his lonely cell, thousands of miles from all that is near and dear to him: it is agony that words fail to express; but while we drink the bitter cup of hate, envy and malicious hatred, poured full unto us by our enemies, we rejoice in the knowledge that there is no cloud so dark nor no mist so thick but that at some time the sun will again send its illuminating rays through it, and that when the day dawns, when the cup of the wrath of a just God shall be filled, and He shall say there shall no more be given time, then I hope my garments shall be clean from the blood of this generation, and though to-day I feel the burden is heavy and grievous to bear, yet the wealth of a Vanderbilt or the power of a Bismarck outside the Gospel of Christ, would weigh as air in the scales to exchange for eternal life.

The poet's words, after all was lost, are worth remembering:

"The best of all I still have left,
My faith, my Bible and my God."

We were greatly disappointed in not seeing Brother Caine or hearing anything from him, but suppose it could not be avoided. Friends, please remember us with a word now and then.

Your brother and fellow-laborer in the Gospel of Christ,

CHR. I. KEMPE.

P. S.—Three weeks ago I saw all the brethren from Idaho, they were all well and felt well. C. I. K.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have been burnt out and temporarily my place of business will be immediately south of Studebaker Bros'. In a short time I hope to be in the old stand, No. 72 Main Street, and open with a New Stock of Goods telegraphed for on the night of the fire. What remains of our previously complete stock will be sold out at any price.

I take this opportunity of thanking all my kind friends who assisted in saving a portion of my stock.

The Studebakers' Branch
Have just received a car load of The Morrison Steel, Hand and Sulky Plows, also Wier Steel, Hand and Sulky Plows, also South Bend Chilled Plows, Harrows, Hay Rakes.

We have also secured the agency for the celebrated Vasaline Standard Wagon and Carriage Grease. This condensed and strictly Pure Petroleum Jelly possesses all the Lubricating, Softening, Preservative and healing properties of the other well known and familiar grades, differing from them only in melting point as it is many degrees higher.

For Carriage and Light Wagon Axles, the high melting point guarantees clean hubs in any climate and prevents waste from dripping by the action of heat, and will not travel like Castor or other liquid oils, thus preventing injury to the underside of the axle arm from dust or grit.

For all kinds of Agricultural Implements it is the most practical and satisfactory lubricant known.

For Leather and Enameled goods, it is softening and preservative, resisting the effects of rain, cold, or animal salts when applied upon a clean and dry surface.

For Sores, Burns, Scalds and Chapped Hands it is cooling and curative.

As a Hoof Ointment it has a widely established reputation.

For tick in sheep it is a perfect remedy destroying the grub without injuring the fleece.

☞ Put up in 1 lb. tins only, each bearing our trade mark and signature of the inventor. Manufactured only by the Globe Lubricating Co., N. Y., for Studebaker Bros. Manufacturing Co., wholesale agents, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Most Excellent.
