of the week, and several Salt Lake people took a prominent part in it. The location of the exhibit was at Grana Central Palace on Fortisch street and Lexington avenue, and the thousands of people who visited it veted it a most unique affair. Saturday evening the speaker was H. S. Woelley, the well known mining operator, and among his listeners were many of his New York triends and a big port of the Utah colony. A western booth presided over by his daughters, attired in cowboy fashion with short skirts, leggings, somebreros, etc. was an attractive feature. A panoramic picture of Goldfield as it was and as it is today, brought forth great applause. A number of elders have arrived to fill missions in the Eastern States, among them Lorenzo E. Elgren of Salt Lake, W. C. Hunter of Weber county. Arthur V. Miller of Murray, Frank Thorley of Cedar City and Major Keller of Provo. They have not yet been assigned to their fields of labor, but will be sent to thed ifferent conferences of the Eastern States soon.
