Patrons are requested to make immediate complaints regarding unsatisfactory delivery.

OGDEN PREMIUMS.

In the haste of making the transfer to the new quarters of the Deseret News in Ogden, some of the office records were mislaid or lost, and this will necessitate a delay in delivering premiums to a number of subscribers. All Ogden patrons who have contracted for premiums, and who have not yet received them, are requested to call on or telephone at once to the manager of the Ogden branch of The News.

WANTS TEMPORARY USE OF STEAM

Electrifying of S. L. & Ogden Road Nearly Complete—Handsome Cars En Route.

RECEPTION FOR PREST. TAFT.

Industrial School Board Has Big Stick For Filling Parents—Steel Tower Lines.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—Confirming the report that the Salt Lake & Ogden Railway Co. had purchased several new cars to be used on an electric system, Prest. Simon Ramberger states that 14 of these cars for which the company paid $10,000 each, are now on exhibition at the Denver fair and will be shipped as soon as the fair is over.
The electrifying of the road from Salt Lake to Ogden is being rushed with all possible speed and less than a third of the distance still remains to be completed. Mr. Ramberger states that some delay will be caused in getting the necessary transformers erected, and some of the line and in arranging for electric power, but he expects these items will be easily adjusted. He expressed a desire to temporarily use steam power along Lincoln avenue, but owing to the present objection of the city engineers and the property owners this will be impossible, unless the council grants this favor at some future meeting.

DEPOT IMPROVEMENTS.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—Engineer A. Q.
Campbell of the Harriman lines is a busy man these days. He has several large construction gangs building new tracks west of the Union passenger depot. Building material for the depot is expected within the next few weeks and it is officially announced that in the course of all these improvements, umbrella sheds will be erected over the passenger tracks.

CONSTRUCTING TOWER LINES.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—The Telephone

Power Transmission company has a large force of about 200 men at work in the vicinity completing the construction of the steel tower line between North Ogden canyon and Salt Lake City. When finished this line will be second to none in the west. Another line, to be built of wooden towers is to be constructed in the near future between Ogden & Salt Lake.

STICK FOR FIBING PARENTS.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—A meeting of the board of trustees of the State Industrial school was held Tuesday and many matters for the welfare of the school were discussed. Special mention was made of the practice of certain parents who made false affidavits regarding the ages of their children, who were placed in the school. It is claimed that many times children have been sent there for the state to keep when they had passed the age limit.
Such cases will be severely dealt with in future.

JOINS HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—The services of G.
P. Roach of Seattle, Wash., have been secured by Supt. Mills to act as the head of the commercial department of the Ogden High school. Mr. Roach comes well recommended, being a graduate of the Wesleyan university, B.
Kansas, the Central Normal college of Great Bend, Kansas, and the Zanesville college of Columbus, Ohio. He has also had considerable experience as an instructor in his particular line and promises to add much strength to the splendid faculty at the High school.

TO ENTERTAIN PRESIDENT.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—L. C. Wheeler of the secret service department of the government, is in Ogden to assist in the arrangements for the president's visit here.
A number of representative citizens of Ogden, met in the parlors of the Weber at 8 p. m. last night and formulated plans for the entertainment of President W. H. Taft when he comes to Ogden, Sept. 28. The form of entertainment thus far decided upon will be an automobile ride through the city and Ogden canyon, and a public reception at Center square. Plans also were discussed to have the school children of the city grouped at Liberty park when the president is driven through the grounds. Other arrangements will be made for the entertainment of the national executive after the return of Mayor A. J. Brewster from Salt Lake City, where he went today to confer with the committee on arrangements there. Upon his return Mayor Brewster will name the members of the committee on general arrangements, a committee on reception and a committee on entertainment.

LIQUOR SELLERS CONVICTED.

OGDEN, Sept. 16.—In the district court yesterday afternoon, Hoken Olsen and Maria Olsen were convicted of violating the liquor ordinance of the town of Huntsville on two out of four counts of an indictment filed some time ago. The Olsens were convicted before the justice of the peace at Huntsville on practically every charge made in the complaint. An appeal was taken to the district court, which resulted today in the district judge affirming the action of the justice of the peace on two counts of the indictment. Sentence will be passed by the court September 25.

COL. G. A. HENRY WINS.

The case against Col. George A.
Henry, a veteran of the Civil war and charged with having sworn a G. A. R. button without the proper authority or right, was dismissed by Judge Bowman yesterday afternoon after the state had presented its side. The complaint was sworn to by Col. E. W. Tatlock. Col. Henry, who is a well known mining man of Nevada, was prepared to present a long record of his service in the Union army and to establish his right to wear the G. A. R. emblem.

NEW MAIL ROUTE WANTED.

PROVO, Sept. 16.—W. H. F.
Pittgerald, postmaster at Theodore, Utah county, was here yesterday and went to Salt Lake. Mr.
Pittgerald is working for the establishment of a postal route from Galton on the D. & R. G. to Theodore. The mail is now carried around by Mack Dragon and Verbal which is a great inconvenience in the matter of time to the people in the western part of the reservation country. Mr. Pittgerald reported considerable activity along agricultural lines in this section, especially in the Blue Bench, and West Bench, where water is being taken out.

PROVO NEWS NOTES.

A. F. Hecker and Robert Mitchell have appealed from Justice Taylor's court of Lehi from a judgment imposing a fine of $15 each on conviction of disturbing the peace.

A complaint has been sworn to in Justice Noon's court by George Ekins, charging Harry Brown with malicious mischief, destroying a sign, the property of the Wm. M. Roylance company.

Mrs. George A. Storrs and family have returned from California where they have been living for several years with Mr. Storrs, manager of the Boxter, Storrs & Co. store. The family which has had a contract on the Western Pacific. Mr. Storrs and son, Russ, will be home in about a month.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Felt have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter Elizabeth and S. Marsena Foster on Thursday, Sept. 23, at their home on North Main street.

Miss Beadie Felt the bride-elect of next week has been the guest of honor at a number of delightful affairs, and many more are planned for the near future. Yesterday Miss Felt was entertained by Mrs. W. V. Dyer at a handkerchief shower about 15 being present. The room was decorated with purple and white asters and an elaborate table followed with covers laid for the following besides the hostess and guest of honor. Mrs. W. P. Smith, Mrs. W. Timpon, Mrs. Milton Ridgway, Mrs. Jones, the Misses Alley, Naomi Felt, Georgia Felt, Clara Smith, Vida Fox, Louise Hagman, Annie Adams, Margaret Werner and Nellie Nicholson.

Another pretty affair given for Miss Felt was the luncheon at which Miss Margaret Werner was hostess, the decorations being in asters and covers laid for about a half dozen.

Miss Vida Fox and Miss Louise Hag-man are among the hostesses who have entertained for Miss Felt, the amusement being "hearts" and the decorations and other details being carried out in the heart idea, a profusion of asters aiding in the pretty effect.
About 20 were entertained.

On Saturday Mrs. W. P. Smith will give a 500 party in honor of Miss Felt, and next week she will be guest of honor at afternoon affairs to be given respectively by the Misses Genevieve and Ethel Felt, Misses Genevieve and Gwen Knowlton and Miss Nellie Nicholson.

A beautiful home wedding took place last night when Miss Viola God-be and Emile Werk of Cincinnati were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. I. Goshen in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Miss Pauline Werk was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Anita Davidson and Miss Myrtle Jack while Cassin Werk was best man. The groom's brother, Little Lillian Godbe and Audrey Kramer were flower girls and Willie and Beulah Godbe were the little ribbon bearers.
The bride wore a gown of white crepe mohair with trimmings of duchesse lace and pearls, a long veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of white chiffon over pink satin and the two bridesmaids were in pink. Miss Jack in broadcloth, and Miss Davidson in silk. All three carried bouquets of pink roses. The little flower girls were in white and carried baskets of pink asters. Bridal music was furnished by the Hawaiian Troubadours. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white asters and carnations, the bridal party standing under a bell of white asters and the flowers mingled with ferns and palms being all about the room. The dining room was in pink, the table having a lace spread over pink satin, a center piece of pink asters and candles shaded in pink at each corner. Punch was served in the hall by Miss Lynne Knowlton and Miss Florence Chaffin. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. A. G.

Werk and Mrs. and Mrs. E. L. Godbe.
Later Mr. and Mrs. Werk left for a trip to Seattle and British Columbia and afterward will go to Cincinnati to reside.

Yesterday Miss Verda Evans and William H. McCune were married in the Temple and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, about 75 being present. The rooms were bright with pink and white asters and carnations, the dining room being especially attractive and punish served from a corner prettily arranged with the pink and white flowers. Miss Lucy Cahoon of Murray presiding. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were the parents of the bride and groom and Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Lillie McCune and Miss Effie Taylor. The bride wore a handsome gown of white broadcloth with yoke of Irish point lace and carried bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Cune left last night for a trip to California and will later return here to reside.

Miss Florence Jonasson and J. A.
Armstrong were married yesterday in the Temple and a wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. D. Jonasson, the table being prettily decorated, and only the near relatives present.

Another quiet wedding of yesterday was that of Mrs. Nan Savage Richardson and Richard Shepherd Sutton, the marriage being solemnized in the temple, and a family dinner following at the Savage home. The table being effectively decorated and covers laid off the following besides Mr. and Mrs. Sutton: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Savage, Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph Savage, Mr. and Mrs. William Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richardson, Mont. Reeve and Earl Richardson and Mr. Sutton of Paris, Idaho, father of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton will be at home to their friends for the winter at 80 D street.

Miss Kate James and W. S. Rivers were among yesterday's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed at noon by Rev. E. I. Goshen at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. H. Glenn, and a wedding breakfast following. The decorations were in pink and white daisies, asters and ferns, and the table in the dining room was lit with pink shaded candles. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of bronze green with hat and gloves to match, and carried pink roses. She was attended by Mrs. J. H.
Tompson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Mabel James. Appropriate music was rendered by an orchestra, and later Mr. and Mrs. Rivers left for a trip to the Pacific northwest and afterward will return here to reside.

One of Wednesday's quiet weddings was that of Miss La Blanche Snow and Wallace G. Hunter, the ceremony being performed at noon at the home, with Bishop Hunter, the groom's uncle, officiating, and the couple leaving immediately for a trip to New York.

Last night Miss May Arnold was guest of honor at a delightful musicale given by Mrs. Hugh Dobgall and Miss Jennie Brighton at the latter's home, the rooms being bright with flowers, candlelight and music. The party and the dining room being in nauticums. Miss Irene Kelly assisted the hostesses and musical numbers were given by Miss Edna Evans, Miss Ivy Evans, Miss Margaret Thompson, Miss Irene Kelly, J. W. Summerhays and H. W. Dougall.

Miss Mary Halloran entertained at a luncheon yesterday for Miss Eileen of New York, the decorations being in asters and covers laid for Miss Aileen Mc-Millan, Miss Lillian Lane, Miss Norine Thompson, Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Shirley Patrick of Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Frances McChrystal, Miss Stella Fabian, Miss Winifred Brice and the Misses Bryan and Grizzelle Houston.

One of the largest affairs given yesterday was the luncheon at the County club, at which Miss Ethel Mount was hostess and her aunt, Mrs. D. O. Mc-Ewan of Omaha guest of honor, the table having for a centerpiece a mound of sandflowers, tied with yellow tulle which had yellow butterflies fastened among its folds. Those to meet the guest of honor were: J. B. Cosgriff, Mrs. P. R. Coleman, Mrs. H. L. Walthall, Mrs. R. B. Rifenberck, Sr., Mrs.
Warren Drescher, Mrs. R. A. Keyes, Mrs. R. B. Rifenberck, Jr., Mrs. F. E.
McGurrian, Mrs. Edward McGurrian, Mrs.
W. H. Child, Mrs. F. C. Hartshorn of Boston, Mass., Mrs. Frank Powell of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. H. M. Kervin, Mrs. Claude Williams, Mrs. T. W.
Boyer, Mrs. Rutan of Canada, Mrs. E.
J. Roberts, Mrs. M. W. Lillard, Mrs.
Gus Holmes, Jr., Mrs. A. C. Evans, J. S. Upham, Mrs. Edwin Butcher, Mrs. C. W. Mount, Mrs. W. D. Dono-her, Mrs. W. B. Allen of New York, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Miss Gretta Golden, Miss Wynne, Miss Edna Dunn, Miss Charlotte Holmes, Miss Louise Sullivan and the Misses Selma, Alice and Mary Wall. Bridge followed the luncheon.
