to the state board of land commissioners yesterday, one by Provo, and the other by Logan. The former city was repre-sented by Mayor Frisbey and City Attor-ney Thomas, while Logan was represented by Mayor Robinson. Attorney J. S. Ham-mond and several other officials. Provo wants a loan of about $55,00 for the purpose of laying pavements and sidewalks this year. The scrip issued in payment for the improvements would be assigned to the land board as security for payment. This would insure the board 7 per cent on the money. Should the board agree to make the loan the legislature will be asked to amend section 257 of the revised statutes so as to permit the board to take acrip as security for the same. The ordicials of Login asked the board to take care of $40,00 outstanding bonds of the city for a petiod of six months are the original bond issue of the city and hear 5 per cent interest. The city would pay the board be per cent during the time it held the board and after they are re-fanded would give the board the provent in-terest. This muter was also laid over for further consideration.
