

LOCAL ITEMS.

LINE DOWN.—The line has been down to-day beyond Fort Sedgwick, up to our going to press, and consequently there is no telegraphic news. We understand the wires got into the river below Julesburg; but a strong force were at work through the day to get them up.

LIVELY.—East Temple St. wears quite a lively aspect at present. Teams are numerous; and though there is complaint of dullness in business, many of the stores seem to be well patronized. Trains, large and small, coming in; travelers passing through; and our friends from the settlements coming in to trade, all help to make the stir and bustle more plentiful.

ANOTHER OFFICE.—The following telegrams were received yesterday afternoon, by President B. Young, on the opening of a telegraphic office at Springtown, Sanpete:

Springtown, Nov. 25th. Cordial congratulations that we have this day an office opened at Springtown; and to me the honor is given of sending the first telegram from the same. Praise the Lord for his goodness! Long live the author of this great enterprise!
ORSON HYDE.

Opened office at 1 p.m., Philinda Kofford operator. Hope soon to have the line connected at Chicken Creek.

A. M. MUSSER.

THE WEATHER.—By Deseret Telegraph Line we learn the state of the weather this forenoon at the undernamed points:

Provo; raining.
Payson; very cloudy and gloomy, looks very much like snow. It rained and hailed some this morning. Roads bad.
Nephi; very rainy and cloudy.
Washington; stormy much during the night. Is very cloudy but quite warm.

MORE RAIN.—Another rain storm set in at an early hour this morning, and it fell copiously for some time. By the weather telegrams published, it will be seen that the storm has been a general one.

THEATRICAL.—The new play of "Nobody's Daughter" is expected to draw a large house to-night. We understand that some very fine scenery occurs in the piece; and that one scene represents a gambling saloon in full working, with the mode of operations shown, by which gamblers rob their victims and ply their devilish avocation. The play has been a most successful one in the East; and is spoken of very highly by the press in various parts. Our public have now an opportunity of judging of it for themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone take their farewell benefit this evening, which is the last but one of their appearances. The lady is a most effective, natural and talented actress; the gentleman is a good comedian and always contrives to put and keep the audience in good humor with him.

SOME of our subscribers complain of the disappearance of their papers from their doors, after they are delivered by the carriers. It is very complimentary to the EVENING NEWS, as it shows that people are interested in its contents; but as our subscription books are still open for new names, we do not feel any compunctions about advising those who take the News to take precautions against their papers being taken. If each subscriber, who has not already done so, will put up a box on his premises, chances are that his paper will be found in it when he goes for it. In the meantime, we wish to state again that if there is any remissness, or mistake in the delivery of their papers, we shall feel obliged if they will bring them to our notice, as it is our intention to give satisfaction in this respect.

DIED.—In this city, Nov. 16th, in the 7th Ward, Margaret Ann, daughter of James and Ann Hague, aged 1 year, 6 months and 6 days. The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. Hague on Monday, the 18th inst., and was largely attended by his numerous friends. The services were conducted by Bishop McLellan, of the 7th Ward, and were highly instructive.

Our sweet babe's gone to her home above,
With the Saints, again we'll meet her.
And there, realizing a parent's love,
'Mongst the sanctified we will greet her.
—Mil. Star please copy.

BIRTH.—In this city, on Monday the 25th inst., Catharine, wife of Duncan M. McAllister of a son. (Mil. Star please copy.)

CHOICE OF WORDS.—When you doubt between two words choose the plainest; the commonest, the most idiomatic. Eschew the fine words as you would rouge; love simple ones as you would native roses on your cheeks. Act as you might be disposed to do on your estate; employ such words as have the largest families, keeping clear of the foundlings and of those which nobody can tell whence they come, unless he happens to be a scholar.

One hundred years ago there were in all, four newspapers in the United States, with a combined circulation of less than two thousand.

Conundrum for married men.—Why is a wife like a newspaper? Because every man should have one without borrowing his neighbor's.
