3. Frequent and regular communications between Great S. L. City, (the centre of almost all overland endgration to California) and Fillmore, the capitol. ( which must soon be the centre and supervisor of territorial business) are indispensable, and no less so in Iron County, which soon is destined to supply the whole country with our most valuable commodity, in all its various forms, Iron, and this too some 203 miles south of Fillmore. A weekly mail between Cedar City and this, is not long to be dispensed with, and soon public convenience will demand a daily. the monthly San Diego is transfurmed into a weekly, staring them in the face. the same carriers can take both mails, which will save much expense to the deputment: Sattlements now already exist at short d stances, about half way between this and Sm D.e.go, and are continually extending, and soon will cover the whole distance, and the inhabitants on the runte will not be satisfied, neither ought they to be short of a weekly in il, after the facts can be communicated to congress. The subject is one that requires inmediate action, both here and at Washington. By a little calculation and economy, the people can be accommodated, and expence saved to the government, by uniting the San to San Diego, Sacramento or any other foreign point. All foreign mails should remain unopened, t.ll they arrive at their destination.
