LOCAL BRIEFS.

The funeral of Earl C. Chamberlain will be held Friday at 3 p. m. from the family residence, No. 1 East terrace.

Sergeant William F. Ewald and Private George Bagley of the Twenty-ninth Infantry have returned from San Francisco, where they were summoned as witnesses in court.

State Engineer Doremus is preparing a statement showing just what is expected by the government in the great Utah irrigation proposition.

John Williams, the negro charged with vagrancy, was given 90 days in the county jail yesterday afternoon by Judge Diehl. He is also charged with having robbed a house near the Short Line depot.

Color Sergeant James J. Donnelly of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, was retired yesterday at his own request, having served 20 years in the army. A number of presents to the sergeant from his army friends made the occasion more noticeable.

Mrs. Anna M. Clark, the elocutionist, and Mrs. Kate B. Anderson, assisted by local talent, will give a recital this evening, in the First Methodist church. The proceeds to go to the new Liberty Park Methodist church.

Ten surveyors from the geological survey will leave Saturday for the Strawberry valley, to make surveys preparatory to the active inauguration of the government plan of irrigation as far as work in the Strawberry is concerned. The expense of turning under the divide will be borne by the government.

C. W. Faulkner and C. Payne, former soldiers in the Twenty-ninth Infantry, have petitioned the commanding officer at Fort Douglas for leave to conduct a laundry at the post in one of the buildings of the quartermaster's department. The petitioners are experienced laundriesmen, and their proposition is favorably received by both officers and men.

Private Kent B. Moore, a member of the Twenty-ninth Infantry band, has disappeared after having borrowed a pair of clothes from one of the non-commissioned articles from others. He also carried of his government revolver, which he endeavored to sell in a number of city saloons before leaving town. It will go hard with Moore if he is caught.

Sentence against C. Mollerup was suspended yesterday afternoon by Judge Diehl on the charge of keeping a vicious dog, on promise by the defendant that he would see that the animal was kept confined. Mollerup stated that the dog, a large St. Bernard, was a special gift from one of his non-commissioned articles from others. The explanation, however, was not accepted by the court.

A series of illustrated lectures on correct voice production for singers and speakers will be given Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 p. m. by Dr. A. Broek, the director of the Salt Lake Conservatory of Music, in the piano showrooms of Messrs. Van Sant and Chamberlain. The admission will be free, and the first lecture occurs tomorrow. Similar lectures were given by Dr. Broek before the faculty and graduates of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Germany. Parents, students and teachers are cordially invited.

Accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Mary Taub, aged 14, Arthur Milliken of West Jordan left home a week ago, and it is supposed he is now returning. The Utah Implement company is very desirous of locating the man, as he secured from them the buggy for the alleged elopement, on credit, and the horse, it is said, was the result of a trade for an animal that he did not own. Sheriff Emery hopes to locate the couple, but is inclined to believe they have left the state by rail.

The health department has thoroughly fumigated the rooms at the lodgings which were occupied by William Davis, who was afflicted with smallpox on Tuesday and taken to the quarantine hospital. Davis came here from Ogden on the 9th, and stayed at the Lincoln House two nights, one night at the American House and two nights at another roominghouse. He was ill when he came here, but did not know what was the matter with him until his condition was reported to Health Commissioner Wilcox.

J. A. Cunningham, former president of the Bank of Commerce, returned last evening from San Francisco and the Sandwich Islands. He was negotiating for a ranch covering 184,000 acres, but the owners would not much, and the deal fell through. However, Mr. Cunningham has a deal on with the government about a large tract of land, and if the transfer is made, J. A. Cunningham, Jr., who has returned home with his father, will go back and take charge of the new acquisition. Mr. Cunningham reports business on the islands as improving with the advance in sugar.

MUSIC IN THE SCHOOLS.
Supervisor Wetzell Makes Report to Supt. Christensen.

The annual report of Prof. W. A. Wetzell, supervisor of music of the city schools, has been filed with City Supt. of Schools Christensen. It states that the patrons of the schools and the public in general are taking much more interest in the work done in the schools in a musical way and are heartily co-operating with and encouraging the supervisor in his work. An obstacle in the way of teaching music in the schools is the lack of preparation on the part of the grade teachers but this is being overcome by regular meetings which have been held on two evenings each week and on Saturdays when a large number of the teachers have met with the supervisor and have received very useful instructions in the work.

The supervisor states that a number of excellent voices have been found among the school children and that in the advanced grades a number of compositions have been submitted which were of unusual merit. The systematic instruction in music in the schools has done much towards creating a good musical atmosphere and the local interest in the subject has been greatly increased. The supervisor has been very busy with his work and has been unable to attend the first few lessons of a young pupil.

CITY CREEK BEAR HUNT.
A Wandering and Hungry Bruin Reported Close to the City's Gates.

Several hunters started out last night to kill a great bear in City Creek canyon. This bear has a foot on him that measures eight inches in length and four inches in breadth. He was seen by some campers just beyond the forks in the "dead vast and middle of the night." In fact, he had cleared their campsite to a nice, and in his investigation, even tore the tent in which the campers were lodging.

The first word that reached town about the bear was through Ben Luce, land and water commissioner, who went up the canyon yesterday to "find these same campers. He found them packing their goods in great haste.

SOLDIER'S BAD BREAK.
Must Answer to Charge of Attempting To Rob a Notorious Woman.

When the case of Aquila Yeager was called in Judge Diehl's court this morning, the judge rendered his opinion that robbery had not been committed, but some offense had been, and he would call the motion to dismiss, and reduced the defendant's bail from $250 to $200.

Yeager is the soldier who got on a spree and in the course of it snatched a bracelet from a notorious woman's arm and tried to take her rings off with his teeth. The judge rendered his opinion that he served with Roosevelt in Cuba, and was in the Philippine campaign, being wounded in both. He is in the regular army and was to receive a dishonorable discharge at an early date, but probably cannot do so now.

THOMPSON GOT OUT.
Result is That He is Being Sought for On Strength of Bench Warrant.

The case of the State vs. W. W. Thompson was called by Judge Diehl this morning, but the defendant failed to appear. He left his store to go to court at 9:30 but at 10:30 he could not be found either by the court or by the sheriff. A bench warrant was issued and the case continued until Saturday morning.

Thompson is charged with cruelty to animals, the explicit allegation being beating a horse.

VETERANS HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME.

WILL ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION.
Interesting Program Rendered Consisting of Musical Numbers and Addresses.

Those who visited Saltair yesterday and listened to the short program rendered under the direction of the Nauvoo Legion, were highly pleased with what they saw and heard. The gathering was not large, but what it lacked in size it made up in enthusiasm, the remarks made being spirited and well suited to the occasion. Among the military veterans in attendance were seven who belonged to the original organization in Nauvoo, Ill. Elder Andrew Jensen gave a short history of the legion, General R. T. Burton related some personal reminiscences in good-natured style, and Adjutant Duncan M. McAllister explained the objects of the benevolent association, known as the Veteran Artillery association of the Nauvoo Legion, of which Prof. Charles J. Thomas is now president.

The musical numbers rendered consisted of an overture by a military orchestra, organized by members of the Temple choir, and solos by Will D. Phillips and Miss Millie Williams. At the close of the exercises the following resolutions were read by Andrew Jensen:

Resolved, That an association to be known as "The Nauvoo Legion Association," be organized, to consist of surviving members of the Nauvoo Legion who were enrolled in said legion between the years 1841 and 1870 in Nauvoo, Illinois, and in Utah, and also members of the Mormon Battalion, and Utah War Veterans; provided that males over 18 years of age who are descendants of members of said military organizations shall also be eligible to membership in the association, of which local branches shall be established in Salt Lake City, Ogden, Provo, Logan and other suitable localities.

Resolved, That a women's auxiliary association be organized to consist of women over 18 years of age who are wives, widows, daughters or other relatives of members of the Nauvoo Legion or Mormon Battalion.

Resolved, That Gen. Robert T. Burton, late senior officer commanding the Nauvoo Legion, be hereby recommended to the association to assist him in formulating a constitution and bylaws for the association, and also a statement setting forth the purposes and objects of the constitution and bylaws of the officers thereof, and performing such other duties as may be deemed necessary as preliminary steps looking to the proper and legal formation of the association.

Resolved, That the presentation and adoption of the constitution and bylaws and the election of officers take place at a meeting to be held in October, 1904, in Salt Lake City, the exact date to be designated hereafter.

On motion of Samuel W. Richards, seconded by Robert T. Burton, the resolutions were adopted by unanimous vote of all present. The names of the seven veterans present who belonged to the original organization of the Nauvoo Legion in Illinois are: Robert T. Burton, Samuel W. Richards, Horace Drake, Joshua A. Terry, Wm. Price, H. C. Pender and John Smith.

AT THE RESORTS.
In response to the invitation extended by the Deseret News for the public to join the establishment in its celebration of its fifty-fourth natal day at Saltair yesterday afternoon, one of the largest and handsomest crowds was in attendance that the resort has had this year with the exception of holidays. While there was no set program all went out with the idea of enjoying themselves and succeeded in so doing. The afternoon and evening were spent in visiting, socializing, the discounting of the contents of generous lunch baskets, dancing and an exploration of the Coney Island attractions. Quite a few went in bathing and pronounced the dip to be invigorating and withal a general approval was given to the bathing in working up good natured rivalry between the various departments in the form of impromptu contests at the rifle range, knock-one-down-and-you-get-a-prize, the bowling alley and other diversions, while future types, editors and pressmen had a rare old time on the merry-go-round and in the swings. The business office captured the bowling championship, but then the business office generally does capture things. It remained, however, for the stereotyping department to put the punching machine out of action.

The Odd Fellows of this state are to unite in a grand excursion to Castilla Springs on the 22nd inst., when a varied program will be carried out.

The Southern States missionaries will hold their reunion at Saltair June 24, and they intend to make it a gala occasion. In the interest of the outing, D. P. Felt leaves today for the southern part of the state, while Tom Sloan is boosting it in the northern counties.

The following is the list of tickets that drew prizes at world's fair day at Caldera's past week. First prize, ticket No. 718, round trip ticket to Pullman sleeper to St. Louis; second prize, No. 686, round trip ticket to St. Louis; third prize, No. 791, prize; fourth prize, No. 538, prize; fifth prize, No. 842, prize. The tickets were drawn by little girl, Miss Lenore Short, blindfolded. The operation was watched by five judges—C. A. Iverson, B. D. Blackmarr, J. T. Stringer, J. H. Fowler and C. C. Smith. The winners of the lucky numbers can receive their prizes today, by calling at 262 south State street.
