PECULIAR DISEASE .- Mr. R. N. Allred, writing from Spring City, Sanpete, Jan' 18th, states that two small children were attacked with a disease which terminated fatally in fourteen hours from the time of the sppearance of the first symptoms. The malady consisted of a strong fever accom-panied by insatiable thirst, and before death occurred the surface of the skin was cov-ered with blotches, which, however, afters wards disappeared, and mortification en-

STORMY .- We are informed that there was a very severe snow and wind storm at Sugar House Ward a few Cays ago. So powerful was the wind that the roof was powerful was the wind that the foot was lifted clean from a building belonging to Mr. George Hugentobler and carried a con-siderable distance away. A chimney was also blown down and a large number of the bricks in the walls of the same build-ing were loosened.

COMMENCED .- We understand the people of Tooele and Grantsville have commenced gracing on the Salt Lake, Sevier Valley and Pioche railroad, near Clinton's Hotel, Lake Point, and are working in both direc-tions, east and west, from that place. It was expected that fifty men and a number of testas would commence the work yesterday morning.

THE BRITISH MISSION .- The following are from the Millennial Star of Dec. 24-

Elder J. V. Robison has been released on secount of failing health. Elder H. S. Gowans is appointed to pre-side in the Bedfordshire Conference; and Elder Wm. K. Barton is appointed travel-ing Elder in the London Conference.

BODY OF A CHINAMAN FOUND. - Last Saturday morning as Mr. L. D. Rudd, was looking after some traps near the forks of the Ogden and Weber rivers, he discovered the dead body of a Chinaman, lying in a field in that vicinity. He had evidently few spectators. been murdered, as there was a heavy gash on his head, and a stab in the abdomen two or three cuts on the back, and several on the breast and arms, the last probably caused while defending himself. the body a bloody hatchet handle was found and near it a stick, two sacks and a rope, that appeared to have been used in conveying the body from some other point, after death. On his person were found five dollars and ninety cents in currency and some papers written in the Chinese lan-guage. He had been dead about two months. The police were immedistely no-titued of the sifiair, and from them we learn that the name of the decessed was Ah Kah and that he lived in Kelton and traded in chickens and regs between this div and that place. When last seen he had several hundred dollars in his possession. There is no clus to the murderers. Two cousins of the murdered man came from Kelton yesterday. They procured a coffin this yesterday. They procured a coffin this morning, and buried the unfortunate indi-vidual on the sand ridge opposite this city.-Ojden Junction, Jan. 20th.

GOING TO ENGLAND. - Elder William Woodward, of Cache Valley, called this morning. He purposes leaving to-night for England, where he goes on a short visit to his relatives, and for the purpose of gleaning information concerning the gene-alogy of his family.

NEABLY TO LOGAN .- From a gentleman who left Logan yesterday morning, we learn that the grading of the Utah Northern is completed to that place and the track laid to a point about three miles from there. If the company had sufficient iror on hand to enable them to move right along the end of the track would be at Lo-gan by Saturday night.
