THE MOTHER'S BIBLE.

She smiled and placed it in his hand,
When last she bade him go;
When the last blessing left her lip,
So softly breathed and low,
She pointed to a penciled page,
And smoothed his shining hair,
"My child, should danger cross thy path,
Thy mother's words are there."

He took the gift, and turned to dash
The trembling tear away,
That dared to start, from his full heart,
The manhood bade it stay;
And then went forth alone, and trod
A rugged path and high;
Flung burning words in falsehood's face,
And dared it to reply.

But dark temptations bade him turn
From virtue's cause away,
And scorn's proud sneer was in his ear,
And flattery bade him stay;
And he—forgive him—once he paused,
But woke with shuddering start;
His eye was on his mother's gift;
Her words were in his heart.

"I know thy soul is honor's home;
I know that thou would'st dare
To cross the boiling waves of death,
If duty call'd thee there;
But there is One who saith—none,
Who tread this crumbling sod,
Can stand alone beneath his throne,
Remember God.

Forget, ah, if thou wilt forget
The friends that loved thee true;
Forget, yes, I must speak it, yes!
Forget thy mother too;
But oh! in joy's bright hour, or when
Thy spirit feels the rod,
My boy, my darling, only boy!
Remember God."

He stood for one brief moment there
With trembling lip and pale,
He seemed to shrink from danger's brink,
And felt his spirit quail;
Then bent his knee, and formed a prayer
Of broken words and wild;
And then went forth, but not alone,
His mother's rescued child.

S. E. CARMICHAEL.

G. S. L. City, June, 1860.

"Soul Sleepers" is the name of a new religious sect, which has recently made its appearance at Fairfield, Iowa, says the Ledger. Four men and one woman, apostles of the sect, have been tarrying at that place, and sleeping in a tent. They are opposed to churches, deny the divinity of Christ, teach that the soul is a material substance, and sleeps with the body until the resurrection.

—Madam Bodisco, widow of the late Russian Minister, was married on Tuesday, at Washington, to Capt. Scott, of the British army. He was dressed in full uniform. President Buchanan gave the bride away.

—A new born infant was left on a doorstep in Buffalo, lately. The child was taken to the Overseer of the Poor, and baptized by the name of "Hamlin A. Lincoln."

Save your Paper Rags.

The inhabitants of Utah are requested to gather up and save their worn out wagon covers, and every description of cotton and linen rags for paper making, and deliver them, from time to time, to the Bishops of the several Wards, or the 'News' and 'Mountaineer' Offices or their agents, for which, when clean, they will be allowed five cents a pound. The rags can be sufficiently cleansed in pure water, without soap.

It is expected that, in a few months, all who wish can receive paper in exchange for rags.
