

the committee on judiciary. The cas of W. K. Reid, asking that the sum of $75 be allowed him, was next called up. Mr. Hammond quoted the law in the case, showing that the county courts pay the prosecuting sttorneys, and the gentleman was opposed to placing such charges against the Territory. Mr. Grover thought that the county courts should provide for such duties, and he was opposed to the pe-tition being granted. Mr. Francis thought that on extraordinary occaslons this should be allowed, having been called to act on such cases before. and appropriations having been allowed, but the surest way would be for the county courts to pay those bills. The motion was lost and the petitition was not allowed. The committee ou highways reported on the petition of J. Z. Stewart and others, asking for an appropriation of $5,000 to build a bridge over Bear River. They recommended that the sum of $4,000 be appropriated; adopted. The conference committee agreed to print 1,500 copies of the Territorial School Superintendent's report.

LOCAL NEWS.

Postponement .- In consequence of the serious indisposition of Miss Edith Clawson, the performance of the "Pirates of Penzance" by the Careless Opera Oompany, which was to have been given in the Theatre this evening. has been postponed. The spera will be given early in March. Those who have purchased tickets can have their money refunded by calling at the Theatre box office this evening or during to-morrow.

From Texas.-We had a call yesterday from Bro. G. L. Rymer, who, with his wife and two children, arrived in the city last Mouday from the South. in company with the returning Elders. Brother R. hails from Troupe, Smith County, Texas, where he embraced the Gospel a little over two years ago, and is now glad to be among the people with whom he has cast his lot. He says he had but one regret on leaving Texas to come here, and that was, that he could not bring the rest of the Saints residing in that region-seven in all-with him. He expects to locate in Millard County, whither he will journey to-morrow.

Searlet Fever,-Scarlet fever seems to be prevalent among some of the Latter-day Saints residing in Arizona. We learn from Brother L. A. Pace, the agent of the NEWS at Nutrioso, Apache County, Arizona, of a couple of deaths that recently occurred at that place from this malady. The first was that of John, the son of James O. and Caroline Wilkins, aged 6 years, 9 months and 23 days. The other victim to the disease was Wilson, son of James W. and Lucinda Wilkins, aged 2 years, 10 months and 2 days."

At Alpine, in Apache Co., we learn that three deaths from this same cause have also occurred, the last being that of one of Bishop E. A. Noble's children, and that several persons are still afflicted with the fever.

"A Prairie Waif' is a border drama that was constructed with particular reference to strength in situations and tableaux, which follow each in such rapid succession as to almost to take the breath away, and which have such telling effect. The play is extremely strong in every particular, dealing with the frank, honest, open-hearted fron-tlersman, who is woman's safeguard and the protector of innocence; the A Visit to the Pen.-The members of the Legislature paid a visit to the Utah Penitentiary this morning, and were conducted through the various departments of the buildings there by Warden Dow. The solons were also tiersman, who is woman's safeguard and the protector of innocence; the unscrupulous renegade and villain who takes every advantage offered by the lax laws of a sparsely settled commu-nity; the mountain maid, untainted by the vicious associations of civilization; in fact, the piece includes all the ad-juncts which go to make up a frontier settlement. It is true to nature, with strong dialogues and strong points brought out in bold relief, and for that reason very enjoyable. allowed to converse with a number of those imprisoned.
