LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

MEETINGS IN THE TABERNACLE to-morrow at ten and two o'clock, also at the various ward meeting-houses and assembly rooms in the evening.

BAPTIST MEETINGS.—Rev. Sewall Brown will preach in the City Hall to-morrow afternoon and evening at half past two and half past seven o'clock. All cordially invited.

THE ELDERS' QUORUM will meet this evening at 7 o'clock in the west wing of the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. Regular meetings are held on the second and last Saturday in each month at the above place.

THEATRE.—The classical burlesque of "Pygmalion, or the Statue Fair," principal characters by the Zavistowski troupe, and for the occasion of their benefit, drew a large house last evening. With the exception of a first night hitch or two, "Pygmalion" went off in good style. The mazurka, as danced by Miss Christine, would no doubt be an excellent "movement cure" for rheumatism, that lady flinging her limbs around elegantly, freely, and vigorously. Messrs. Graham and Lorraine earned and obtained a marked share in the applause.

"Pygmalion" will be reported this evening, which will be the last of the Zavistowski engagement. There will doubtless be a full house, and the troupe will be able to retire from the city with the satisfaction of having reaped as large a success as has been seen in the Theatre for a long time.

The farce of the "Dead Shot" precedes the burlesque.

On Monday the Emerson Minstrel Troupe commence an engagement.

COW STEALERS.—A regular system of cow stealing appears to have been inaugurated in this city lately. Not fewer than three cases have occurred within the last few days, where parties have deliberately entered the premises of different individuals and stolen from each a cow. It is believed that the thieves carry on the business systematically by having their eye on a certain animal, and after negotiating for its sale, taking the first opportunity of stealing it and delivering it to the purchasing party. People should therefore be cautious about negotiating purchases of animals with strangers, and, when opportunity offers, should lend all possible aid to the authorities in discovering the thieves that are now, to a considerable extent infesting the city.

ANOTHER FORGERY.—The name of W. Cloggie, one of the carriers of the NEWS, appears on the list of anti-State memorialists. On being aware of this fact he called on us and requested that a statement be published to the effect that he not only never signed that petition, but that he never knew of its existence till the commencement of its publication in the NEWS. No one who knows Cloggie would disbelieve his statement for a moment. He is a simple minded man, who did not put his name to any document, for an incontrovertible reason, and to whom politics is among the most mystical of mysteries.

This is another instance of the forgery proclivities of the contemptible tricksters who manufactured and manipulated that petition.

UTAH CO. AG. AND MANF. SOCIETY.—Here is a report of a general meeting of the Society, forwarded by the secretary, Daniel Graves:

"The general meeting of the board met on the 3rd inst., according to announcement, when there was a good representation from the county. President Bringhurst and others present spoke of the beneficial results that would accrue from lively and energetic exertions on the part of the directory, with the co-operation of the people.

"It was then resolved that committees be selected by this board to canvass for subscribers in each settlement, to build up the county Agricultural and Manufacturing society; shares $5 each; subscriptions to be received in lumber and other fencing materials as well as cash, &c.

"It was resolved that there be a committee of three, appointed by the President, to locate land for the purpose of a park, gardens, &c., and report as early as possible. The following are the committee—G. W. Bean, Wm. D. Roberts, S. N. Dusenberry. The committees for each settlement were as follows: Goshen, Wm. Price, James Jenkins, Robt Till; Santaquin, D. H. Holladay, Eli Openshaw; Payson, Bishop Tanner, J. W. Moore, sen., S. Fairbanks; Pondtown, Robt. Davis, W. Crookatt; Spanish Fork, Bishop Thurber, C. H. Hales, C. Monk; Springville, Bishop Bringhurst, S. Boyer, S. H. Roundy; Provo, President A. O. Smoot, Bishop Tanner, Sen.; Battlecreek, Bishop Brown, H. Walker; American Fork, Bishop Harrington, Wm. Greenwood, Robt. Mott; Alpine, Bishop McCullough, W. Strong; Lehi, Bishop Evans, —— Briggs; Fairfield and Cedar, Bishops Carson & Cook. These committees have power to add to their numbers.

"Resolved, that the proceedings be published in the DESERET NEWS and Salt Lake Herald.

SAVE YOUR SWARMS.—Bro. John Morgan, of Mill Creek, who is an expert in managing bees, informs us that many swarms of bees are lost on account of the owners not knowing what course to take when they swarm. They generally alight on a limb of a tree or bush, decoy to the parent hive and hang there in a cluster. By sprinkling cold water over them every ten or fifteen minutes they can be kept there till a hive can be procured to put them in; otherwise, after remaining there a short time, they take their flight to the mountains or other distant part.

We learned to day that a gentleman of Bountiful, Davis Co., had found two good swarms of bees in the mountains near that settlement, which, doubtless, escaped through ignorance or inattention on the part of their owners.

POWERFUL STREAM.—Among the items of damage done by City Creek, when it was so much swollen by the melting snows, at the beginning of the week, was to wash away about six feet in width and about the same in depth, of the bank, including the pathway, at the north-west corner of the wall of President Young's garden, on the east side of the stream. It also demolished a portion of the rock wall, leaving a large gap in the shape of an arch, as complete in form as if the material had been taken out by the hand of man.

CACHE.—"S." writes from Hyrum, Cache Co., June 3rd:

"On Saturday and Sunday last, June 1st and 2nd, two days' meetings were held in this ward. There were present Apostles, Charles C. Rich and Lorenzo Snow, President W. B. Preston, Bishops Wm. Budge, Alvin Nichols, Wm. Maughan, Lorenzo H. Hatch, Henry Hughes, Samuel Roskelly, George O. Pitkin and Wm. F. Littlewood, Elders J. C. Wright, Moses Thatcher, Jos. C. Rich, Geo. W. Pitkin, John Reese, Frank Gunnell, Thos. E. Ricks, Evan M. Green, Jas. Cantwell, C. Larsen, H. C. Jackson, C. D. Fjeldsted and T. Parkinson. There was a very large attendance of Saints from the surrounding settlements.

"The instructions given by the various speakers were upon the every-day duties of the Latter-day Saints. The Spirit of the Lord was upon both speakers and hearers, and the hearts of the people were made glad.

"Bishop Preston made an earnest appeal, on behalf of the poor Saints abroad, for assistance.

"The missionaries addressed the children of the Sunday school at 8:30 a.m.

"The beautiful singing of the Hyrum choir was highly appreciated. Professor Henry H. Petersen has spared no pains in teaching them.

"Our citizens are very active in removing brush fences and dirt roads and replacing them with good substantial houses and picket fences, thanks to our co-operative saw mill).

"The two days' meetings are much valued by the people of this county, and will result in great good. Peace, happiness, comfort and contentment reign, for which we most humbly thank God for his merciful kindness toward his servants and people."

SUNDAY BUSINESS. — All persons who have been in the habit heretofore of keeping their places of business open should read Section 28 of "An Ordinance in relation to Crimes and Punishments," published in the NEWS of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. We understand the city authorities intend enforcing this as strictly as any other section of the Ordinance. During the last two or three years, so far as drinking saloons, cigar stores, hucksters shops, &c., are concerned, a person would not, in walking down East Temple and along several adjacent streets, know that Sunday differed materially from any other day. The stoppage of Sunday trading and trafficking will certainly meet with an endorsement from us, and from every right-minded person in the Union.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION today, at the City Hall, elected the following gentlemen to represent the county in the Territorial convention, to meet next Saturday—

T. P. Akers, E. M. Barnum, J. P. Page, Marcus R. Mayer, A. Miner, D. R. Allen, E. D. Hoge, Lewis S. Hills, Samuel Bringhurst, Hosea Stout, Henry Barnes, Judge S. P. McCurdy, W. H. Folsom, E. R. Young, M. Kirkpatrick, W. C. Dunbar, Levi E. Riter, Joseph Stevens, W. B. Smith.

THE TWO DAYS' MEETINGS.—The fine weather will, doubtless, draw a large attendance to the two days' meetings, today and to-morrow, at Brigham City. Members of the First Presidency, the Twelve, and other gentlemen left this city this morning for the purpose of being present.

UNBLUSHING.—There is another rumor about town that James B. McKean is on his way to this city. If this be correct we shall be inclined to believe that the unmitigated folly and impudence of some people are capable of rising to a point that manifests that such people have not the remotest idea of the distinction between the sublime and the ridiculous.

Per Deseret Telegraph.

HIGH WATER.—Fillmore, June 7.—The Sevier bridge is still extant, but it is quite dangerous crossing it. The water is now running round the north end the entire distance from the bridge to the Bluff, about eighty feet. It is getting very muddy, and it is difficult for loaded teams to get through. The water is still rising. It has commenced running round the south end.

MORE ANTI-PETITION CARDS.—We cheerfully give place to the following:

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Sir—I was extremely annoyed to find my name associated with a certain memorial to Congress, against the admission of Utah. My name was attached to that document without my knowledge or consent, and no one had the slightest authority from me for so doing. By giving the above publicity you will oblige, yours respectfully,

MADELINE LYNE.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Sir:—In your issue of the 4th, I notice the name of Helen Marsden amongst the signers of the anti-State petition. I wish to say, if I am the person, I never signed such petition nor authorized any one else to do so. Yours respectfully,

HELEN MARSDEN, 16th Ward.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

As my name appeared in the NEWS the other day as a signature to that anti-State petition, I beg to say that I do not know of any other person of the same name in the Territory, and I never signed the petition nor authorized any one else to sign it, nor did I ever see the petition until it was republished in the NEWS. I feel indignant that my name should be used in such an unauthorized manner, and in connection with a movement with which I entertain no sympathy.

THOMAS TIMMINS, 5th Ward.

Special Notices.
