LOCAL BRIEFS.

Walter Neal Insane—Walter Neal was found insane yesterday afternoon, in Judge Armstrong's court, and committed to the asylum.

Slaughter in September—The management of the new packing plant at Bountiful expects to begin slaughtering early in September.

Thompson Knows Now—City Auditor Alf has completed his estimate of the city's expenses for the coming fiscal year, and turned it over to the mayor.

Water Troughs—The $250 appropriated by the city council for watering troughs for horses about town, is sufficient for four iron troughs of artistic design which will be placed in the business district.

Will Go to Ft. Russell—Col. Lund is confident that he will be able to take a few more than 400 militiamen to Fort Russell next month, and that the boys will make a showing creditable to the state.

Realty Deal—Dr. A. E. and I. M. Zimmerman have bought 4 1/2 rods front and 10 1/2 feet deep at First and B streets from the Realty Building company, and will erect a terrace there to cost $8,000.

Will Settle in Fall—Manager J. Q. Cichowicz of the Utah Club Men's association is clearing up the accounts of Marquand & Jensen of Eldorado, and A. B. Reese of Rupert, Idaho. Everything will be settled in fall.

Hint To Farmers—It will interest Utah farmers living on rural free delivery routes to learn that the post office department threatens to cancel rural mail route service where the farmers allow the roads to get into an impassable condition.

Short Measures Men—Housekeepers are complaining that street hucksters are cheating them in returning short change. There is also complaint that ice cart men are systematically giving short weights, and housekeepers are making changes in consequence.

Piled On Water—George A. Adams, F. J. Adams, E. R. Hyde and C. R. Christensen of Monticello have filed application with the state engineer for 10 second feet of water from North Monticuma creek, for irrigating purposes. The diverting channel will be 25,000 feet long.

Elks in Town—The hotels are crowded with westbound Elks today, with their ladies, and they all appear to be having a good time in town. The courtesies of the local lodge are open to them, and visitors to the clubhouse pronounce it one of the finest in the United States.

Borah vs. Altimore—A. A. Utley is at the Wilson from American Falls, Ida., and reports that Idaho Republicans are badly split up on Mr. Borah's candidacy for the United States senate. He considers the field still open, and by no means closed for Mr. Borah as against other comers.

Chief Sheets Hurt—George A. Sheets, chief of police is nursing a badly lacerated hand. When he was at his home in pulling wires (copper), not political) a piece of fine wire passed completely through the third finger of the right hand and partly through the second. The wound is a painful one.

A Costly Victim—Judge C. R. Dicht imposed a fine of $100 upon George Brown in the criminal division of the city court yesterday afternoon. The defendant charged him with having stolen a violin from the music store of Carlensen & Anson, where he was employed as janitor.

Old Utah Prospector—The body found near Texas Creek, Colo., recently and which was thought to be that of Edward O'Neill of this city, has been identified as the remains of John Gallagher, an old time Utah prospector. His folks in Chicago are well, and they have sent for the body for interment at Chicago.

Chance to Go to Panama—There will be a civil service examination in this city on Aug. 22 next, for the position of clerk (man) for the Panama canal, at a salary of $1,200 to $1,500 per annum; also, for the position of auditor and carpenter in the quartermaster's department at large, Fort Mackenzie, Wyo., at $450 per annum and rations.

Will Take Forger Back—Capt. Downey of the Detective force, and Jud C. Hamblin, a detective who accompanies him, arrived here Sunday for the purpose of taking Arthur M. Potter, the young forger who was arrested a week ago, back with them. They left for Salt Lake yesterday afternoon and Potter went along without putting up any fight.

Will of Mrs. Wilkes—The will of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkes, who died at Logan on July 8, was filed for probate yesterday together with the will of Charles S. Wilkes and Beattie Wilkes. They are the last will and testament of the estate of the late Mrs. Wilkes. The estate consists of real property of the value of about $5,000 and personal property valued at $2,000.

Editor Recovers Tool—Among the plunder recovered by Officer Carlson from the caches of Roberts and Holmes, the two liars accused of burglary, was a number of valuable carving tools. Lawrence Dubuque, editor and manager of the Utah Post, has identified them as his own. They were taken from his home at 423 south West Temple several months ago.

Copy of Proclamation—Gov. H. J. Hagerman of New Mexico has sent Gov. Cutler a copy of the proclamation for the election and constitutional convention for the consolidation of New Mexico with Arizona and forming the new state of Arizona as provided by Congress. The election will be held on Nov. 6 and the constitutional convention will be held at Santa Fe on Dec. 2, 1906.

Minor Injured—George Harris, a Brigham high school boy, had his right leg and right arm crushed by falling beneath a train yesterday morning. Harris was riding on all ore train, and when a short distance from Brigham Junction jumped off. When he struck the ground he rolled under the train, which ran over the members indicated. He was removed to a Salt Lake hospital in a very serious condition.

Clean Postoffice—The postoffice department has promulgated a rule that an employee of the postoffice can hereafter sit on the floor or use public cupboards, but must procure individual sputum receptacles; every office and room must be cleaned daily with a mop and wet rag, and no broom or duster can be used to sweep the papers, etc., from the floor, and doors and walls must be scrubbed daily with soap and water.

The Oldest Elk Hero—Charles Carol Clusker, said to be the oldest Elk in the world, and a charter member of the Benardine lodge No. 834, is in the city en route homeward from the Denver convention. He was born in 1811 in Madison county, Ky., and passed through this city in 1863 on his way to the Pacific coast. Mr. Clusker was presented recently at Los Angeles with a loving cup, as being the oldest Elk.

Want Special Session—One of the petitions asking Gov. Cutler to call a special session of the legislature to consider the consolidation of the Agricultural colleges with the State University, was filed in the executive office yesterday afternoon. Among the names appended are those of the leading business men over the state. The governor has taken no action yet, as other similar petitions are to be handed in.

Juniors in Camp—The Y. M. C. A. juniors have gone into camp at East Bountiful canyon where the Preps spent two weeks before them, and are in charge of Eddy Lucas. The boys have elected camp officers. Fifteen of them walked into town yesterday, via City Creek canyon, where they killed four rattlesnakes one of which had 11 rattles. The juniors break camp next Monday, when their places will be taken by the business class of the Y. M. C. A.

Yee Ding Runs Amuck—Yee Ding, a Chinese cook at Tony Jacob's boardinghouse at Alta, is behind the bars again at the county jail accused of assaulting a woman. Sunday night he went on the rampage at the boardinghouse and drove the rascal miners from the place at the point of an 18-inch knife. Apparently he had been used too often with the knife. Deputy sheriff Patch disarmed the man, and the Chinese man brought him to Salt Lake to cool off.

Got His Deserts—Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith yesterday afternoon sent D. S. Brown to the county jail for a period of 30 days, for misbehavior at the county jail. Brown became intoxicated and going to the institution, of which he is an inmate, he created a disturbance and attempted to assault everybody in sight. Assistance was secured from the sheriff's office and after much resistance Brown was thrown in jail. At the hearing yesterday the court thought that 30 days' confinement would be just the proper thing for Brown.

Give Your Names—The general committee of the Pacific Islands mission reunion has received a request from a prominent association of this city asking that one of the following named gentlemen be appointed to speak to the people of his ward on the "Customs, Traditions, History, Etc., of the Pacific Islands." Hon. John T. McPherson, Hon. Eugene M. Cannon, and Hon. Charles H. Smith are the names suggested.

Another Bad Check—Atty. James F. Smith is again in trouble on the same old charge. Within an hour Friday afternoon after being released from the custody of Sheriff Emery for uttering a bogus check he repeated the offense. Going into the California Kandy Kitchen, 74 east Second South, he purchased some sweets and issued a check for $5 in payment. Taking the candy and the change he went on his way rejoicing. Frank Cotti, the proprietor, ultimately discovered that the check was worthless and turned it over to the police department.

Sam C. Park Home—Gen. Sam C. Park and wife returned this morning from an extended western trip. During their absence, Gen. Park attended the fifteenth year reunion of his class at Michigan university, and remarked rather pathetically today that some of the girls in his class who graduated with him in 1891, were now married, with wavy hair and plump cheeks, returned 15 years afterwards with snow white hair and other indications that time had not dealt as gently by them as it might. Fifteen years are not so many, but a dozen or more classes back for reunions, and all of the members seemed to be having a good time.

Registered Mail Boxes—Postmaster Thomas has been greatly bothered by people who do not understand and do not seem to be able to understand the rules of the department relative to delivery of registered mail and calls for attention of the public to the following order: "The registry division of the United States postoffice department recently promulgated orders instructing postmasters everywhere to enforce literally every regulation of the postal regulations relative to delivery of registered letters. It is no longer possible for a man to sign a receipt for a registered letter addressed to his wife or any member of his family without having secured first a written order therefor. Such order must be delivered to the postoffice authorities and kept on file." Postmaster Thomas hopes that people generally will read the above and remember the same.

INDIAN WAR VETERAN REUNION

First Grand State Campfire to be Held at Ephraim Aug. 1, 2 and 3.

RATES FROM ALL OVER STATE.

Horse Show, Races, Parades, Indian Attack on Wagon Train and Other Pioneer Demonstrations.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Sanpete Co., July 21.—Invitations have been issued to all the old Indian war veterans of the state and their families to attend the first grand state campfire and reunion of the Utah Indian war veterans, to be held here August 1, 2 and 3. The general committee is made up of the following well known gentlemen: J. M. Westwood, Springville; H. N. Bennet, Mt. Pleasant; O. P. Arnold, Salt Lake City; Mons. Monson, Moroni; George C. Lambhart, Salt Lake City.

A very large attendance is expected and a splendid time will be had. Gov. Cutler and staff, the Utah congressional delegation, prominent citizens from all parts of the state and leading Church officials will be present.

A special rate of a single fare for the round trip has been obtained over the D. & W. and the P. & U. routes in the state, and a rate of one and a third fares from any point on the O. S. L. railway in the state to Salt Lake City plus $3.55 (the single fare over either of the other roads from this city to Ephraim) for the round trip. The tickets will be valid for one week from the first two roads mentioned on the morning of the 1st of July, and at all points on the O. S. L. on the morning of the 30th, and will be good until August 5.

The local committees are doing great work preparing for the encampment and matters are working out in splendid shape. Arrangements are being made to take up every minute of the time for the three days of the reunion and every citizen of Ephraim will aid in giving the veterans and their friends the time of their lives.

Ten brass bands will be in attendance and a grand procession of 100 bands composed of the leading musicians of Sanpete county.

A monster parade will pass through the principal streets of this city every day. A fine electrical display will be given by Ephraim's new municipal light plant, and a grand fireworks performance will be held all night in the opera house and all night dances at the pavilion and academy hall.

A horse show in which will be represented all the thoroughbred horses of Sanpete, Sevier, Utah and Juab counties, and races in which the best horses of the above named counties will be pitted against each other will be features of the program.

One of the greatest features of the reunion will be the attack on a wagon train by a band of Indians. This sham fight will be presented in a manner and on a scale of more elaborate and anything of the kind ever attempted before. It will be especially interesting because of the local surroundings. The attack is to be made and the battle fought on the old battle ground near the city, where some of Ephraim's citizens and their lives in desperate defense of their homes during the Black Hawk war. The battle ground is about one mile east of the city near the Guard knoll, a small hill commanding a view of the mouth of Cottonwood canyon which was used during the Indian war for guard purposes.

A practical demonstration of a pioneer train and encampment will be given, showing the mode of travel, manner of carrying stock and forming barricades for protection against the hostile red men; the crude manner of working and preparing food; the providing of amusement and entertainment for the weary travelers, and other incidents reminiscent of pioneer life.

The veterans expect over 15,000 people to attend the reunion and Ephraim is working to see that all who attend have plenty to eat and a good time. The program committee is arranging to have something done the three days the veterans will be with us. The Mt. Pleasant post will furnish the first night's entertainment. Ephraim the second and Fountain Green the third. The day's programs will be furnished by the different posts of the state.
