Vast Number of People in Attendance at Sessions of Seventy-Eighth Conference.

HOTELS ARE FILLED TO DOORS

Prominent Churchmen From Different Districts Tell of Conditions in Their Various Localities.

The number of people in for conference this week is probably larger than on any similar occasion in the history of the city. Every hotel, lodging house, and nearly every private home is crowded to its limit with guests from the outside. Hundreds of people are turned away from the ho-tels daily, and temporary lodginge tels daily, and temporary lodgings have been rigged up in corriders, and hallways, and, in fact, every nook where it was possible to place a cot for the accommodation of a guest has been utilized. The streets present the appearance of a busy day on Broad-way, with policemen keeping the walk-ways open and the crossings clear. Among the prominent churchmen from the different localities visiting in the city, and other visitors at the botels, short interviews were obtained with the following: HAACKEGOT FLOURISHING

BLACKFOOT FLOURISHING.

BLACKFOOT FLOURISHING. Black S. Kimbell, president of the Blacktoot stake in Idaho, arrived in the city yesterday. President Kim-ball has just returned from a trip to Mexico, where he has business inter-ests. He reports the Blackfoot coun-try as being one of the coming sections of the booming state of Idaho. "There is no question about it, we have one of the booming state of Idaho. "There is no question about it, we have one of the best countries in the west," said Mr. Kimball. "People have moved into our stake who never put hand to a plow in their lives, and have by two or three years' attention to work made themselves independent by means of themselves independent by means of farmers, and a sure source of money with which to pay bills in the fail, every other product known to the tem-perate zone with irrigated land is pos-sible ito our section," said he, "and hort meet with success with a little dill-succeed. Our people are generally pros-perous, our organizations are in good condition, and altogether, conditions are satisfactory in the Blacktoot take." UINTAH STAKE

UINTAH STAKE.
William H. Smart, president of the Unitah stake, is in the city to attend the big conference. President Smart was, up to last June, president of the Wasatch stake, with headquarters at Heber City, but on the opening of the reservation lands on the Ulintah reserve, and the extending of the limits of the stake to cover the towns in the reserve, he was transferred from Wasatch to assume the dulies of the stake presidency of Ulintah, with headquarters at Vernal. Mr. Smart is a native of Cache valley, and a son of Thomas Smart, of Franklin. He was formerly a professor in the Brigham Young college at Logan, during which time he was marfied to a daughter of the late I. D. Haines, formerly of the Temple city of the morth. Six interesting children have blessed this happy union, and the family are now comfortably ensconsed at their new home in Vernal. "Our stake is growing" said President Smart today. "We have at present something like 5,000 members of the stake, and more are coming in all the time. We have a splendid country in eastern Utah, and there are opportunities there to make successful and happy homes that are unexcelled. We have plenty of good water: we have coal and gold, gilsonite and asplatum, soil and elimate, in fact, everything necessary to make a great city and a great country; all we need now is men of worth and character to come and settle among us and make the homes, and we welcome all such in our midst."

mission to Arizona. In 1890 he moved to Mexico, where he has lived ever since. "I feel like a RIP Van Winkle returning home," said Mr. Haws to-day. "Salt Lake as it was 30 years ago has almost completely passed away, and a new city of modern proportions has risen in its stead. I remember in "I one could stand on the spot where the News building now stands and could just see the temple being built over the walls surrounding the block, and it is like a revelation to me to see how the city has grown. My brother lives in Provo, and I haven't seen him since I left for Arizona, but I talked with him over the 'phone this morn-ing, and could recognize his voice, which is saying a great deal for the telephone system of this country. Our stake has from 2,000 to 3,000 Latter-day Saint residents, and is a well built little and progress. "We are making very good progress in the Union stake," said President Bramwell. "Our people are being well received, and are better un-derstood than ever before. We recently completed at $40,000 tabernacie at La Grande, and it is unquestionnably the fin-est church building in eastern Oregon. All the wards are prosperous, and look-ing forward to a bountiful season for their crops the coming year. The peo-ple are prospering spiritually, as well as temporally, and I believe they are all happy and contented." G. M. HAWS OF MEXICO.

George M. Haws of Guadalupa, Mex-ico, is visiting in Sait Lake City. This is the first time Mr. Haws has set foot on Salt Lake soil for 30 years. He is a son of William Walace Haws of Provo, and in 1877 he was called on a Non-alcoholic Sarcanarilla city. The people are prosperous and are putting in permanent improvements of a very substantial character. The resi-dences are mostly of brick, and com-pare favorably with many being built in this city. Yes, it is a pleasure to me to get back to Utah once more. I have looked forward to this time for a long time, and am not disappointed in what I find." Mr. Haws will spend some time at Prove before returning to his home in Mexico.

UTAH-OREGON DEBATE.

It Will Take Place at Barratt Hall, This City, on April 26.

The University of Utah will meet the University of Oregon in an interstate debate at Barratt hall April 25. The question is: Resolved, That the fifteenth amend-ment and section 2 of the fourteenth amendment of the federal Constitution should be repealed. This means a discussion as to wheth-er the clause should be repealed pro-hibiting the states to discriminate on account of "race, color or previous condiffon of servitude." Utab has the af-firmative. This will be the first contest between these schools but Oregon Is considered a worthy rival, and has made admirable showing in debating. In a league with Washington and Idaho universities they won first place. Two Oregon orators considered exceptionally strong are Henry McKinney and Francis V. Callo-way. Mr. Calloway recently won sec-ond place in the state oratorical con-test.

The Utah men are Christen Jensen and Richard W. Young, Jr. Both have had considerable experience at informal debating, but neither has ever compet-ed in an inter-collegiate forensic con-

Mr. Jensen graduated from the Salt Lake High school in 1902, from the arts course of the University in June. While at the "U" he has been active in the various student activities and for the past two years has been a member of the Chronicle staff.

Mr. Young graduated from the Lat-ter-day Saints university last year. During his senior year at that insti-tution he was selected for two dehat-ing teams. He was also valedictorian of his class. He is a member of the university troupe presenting the play "Mr. Bob" at the Sait Lake theater.

"IDAHO IS GROWING." Lieut-Gov. E. A. Burrell of Idaho, is stopping at the Wilson. Mr. Bur-rell is a resident of Montpelier, in Bear Lake county, where he has ex-tensive banking and merchandising in-terests. In speaking of material con-ditions in Idaho, Mr. Burrell said the people in all varts of the Gem state were prosperous, and looking forward to an exceptionally good season in all classes of industry. "Idaho is grow-ing," said Mr. Burrell. "and with the numerous canal projects and irrigation enterprises and land openings in dif-ferent parts of the state, we are antici-pating a growth that is unprecedented in the history of our commonwealth." LIVELY WOOL SEASON.

LIVELY WOOL SEASON. LIVELY WOOL SEASON. Marcus Harris, a St. Louis wool buyer, is at the Knutsford. Mr. Har-ris says he anticipates a lively season in the bidding for the wool clip, as there is much that has not been con-tracted for in the sheep camps of the vest. Prices will be held up pretty generally as the growers are in pros-perous circumstances themselves. The question of the expense of loading, which has heretofore been done by the agents of the railroads, will also cut some figure in transactions here-after. LOGAN TO ENTERTAIN.
