THIS COUNTRY AND EUROPE.

The difference between this country and the countries of the Old World is never more strikingly illustrated than in the matter of homes. There, few people ever expect to own their own roof still fewer to ever have title to the land on which their home stands. On the contrary, in this country, any man possessed of health, energy and intelligence is sure that before many years he may not only build himself a home; but may also own the land surrounding it. Are you content to fasten upon yourself and your innocent children the system of tenancy that ages of feudalism fastened upon the countries of Europe? Do you pay rent? If so, why not pay that amount upon the purchase price of a home for yourself in Forest Dale? In this delightful suburb you can buy land, build your home, and pay for it with little more exertion than is required to pay your landlord. If you rent, every nail you drive, every weed you pull goes to improve your temporary quarters, but eventually results only in benefiting him whose tenant you are. If you buy a home, every shrub, flower or tree you plant grows for you and your children. If you have money enough, pay all cash, and get discount therefor. If you have only your wages, buy on the installment plan, paying so much each month; and your wife and children will gladly help you save rather than live in a rented house.

We have at Forest Dale the best of soil, first-class water, both from springs and artesian wells, district schools, Sunday schools and good neighbors. You may buy land by the rod, by the lot or by the acre. Depth of lots varies from 120 feet to 40 rods. No trouble to show property. Call at room 321 Constitution block, and make arrangements with my agents. Correspondence solicited.

GEORGE M. CARSON, Owner.

JERSEY CATTLE.
I have a herd of 31 Jerseys, embracing some of the finest cows ever brought to Utah. Part of these cattle I desire to sell. All old stock are registered and all young stock are entitled to registration. Call at Forest Dale and make your selection, or write for particulars to Judge Barker will hold court tomorrow.

The fourth session of the Twenty-first ward meeting house at half-past 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Two grand juries of the Third district court, after nearly a month's recess from business, got into business again this morning.

After one hundred men are busy at work digging out the dirt and laying wooden pipes at the Warm Springs, in carry the water from the "hot" spring down to the bathhouse in this city.

Two trials of a damage suit brought by William G. Smith, of this city, against the Great Salt Lake & Utah Southern Railroad company has been the chief feature in Chief Justice Kane's court today. A long time was occupied in discussing a jury.

Paul, the sculptor who fell from the harness building and sustained serious injuries on Friday, still lying in a critical condition at his home in the Tenth ward. It is a tremendous task of the time and the recovery is doubtful.

Ernest Kelly, the champion kleptomaniac and constant companion of John Hargreaves, was sent to jail this morning for fifteen days for stealing a toy wagon which he sold from his store in the afternoon. The police say he bought a truck of sheep skin with the stolen wagon.

A Had "Coca."

The police and a notorious and worthless negro named Jack Handy had a lively time on Saturday night. Handy has been frightening the white out of the female inmates of a house of questionable repute, when the officers were notified and he took to his heels. He was overhauled and shot at by Sergeant Randolph, but he ran like an antelope and escaped. Yesterday morning he was captured and taken to jail, where he still has his judges.

Delayed by a Freight Wreck.

Yesterday's Union Pacific early morning passenger flyer, due in this city at 8 a. m., did not arrive until 5 o'clock last evening making it fourteen hours late. The train was delayed by a freight wreck near Ogden.

He is Called a Bilk.

T. F. Lyons, who has obtained notoriety by lecturing against Catholicism and making mysterious disappearances, came to Salt Lake City, editor of the American, yesterday and begged for money to reach his sister wife in Ogden, says the Denver Globe of Saturday. Mr. Lyons refused because he received a letter from Mrs. Lyons some time ago saying that her husband had deserted her. He adds that Lyons is a dead beat of the worst kind and has cheated his friends at every chance. He owes H. L. Fryer of the newspaper office $200 and a considerable amount to John Gray, besides numerous bills here, in Las Vegas, Cheyenne, Helena and other places. Mr. Lyons says Lyons now has a Rio Grande railway pass belonging to him.

THE TRUTH OF SATURDAY'S ISSUE.

The Tribune of Saturday's issue in its quotation from sayings of the Prophet Isaiah and also from Vol. 10 and 11 of the Millennium Star brings to my mind many similar charges found in that paper against the dead Mormons.

Only recently, after a long column of accusations as to the delinquency of the Mormon people, and sending them as unfit for citizenship or for the possession of any political right, the editor concludes his long-winded tirade in language something like the following: "Now suppose that the command to your tents, oh Israel! or in other words, if President Woodruff were to say to his people, go back again to your old lines and organize once more the People's party and leave Mormonism and Republicanism principle entirely out of the question—do you suppose you would be a few years ago you were banded together to withstand the onslaught of the liberals—how can you now be the Saints fall into line as commanded?"

This statement of the Tribune editor outside the writer of a story he once heard of a young lady who was being wooed by a young gentleman; while on one of his pleasant visits to said young lady, she all of a sudden turned into a lion.

"Why do you weep?" inquired her lover.

The maiden replied: "I weep because I was thinking that if we should marry and should have a family, and if while you were away sometime laboring for our daily bread, and I was left at home with the children, supposing the house should all at once tumble down and kill the baby—how could we ever survive such a terrible disaster?" too, too, true!

The young man started up, took his hat and made for the door, but paused at the threshold long enough to send a message to her as follows: "In the morning I shall leave this place, most likely never to return, but when in your room all over the world I shall have succeeded in finding three bigger fools than you are, then in that case I will come back and marry you."

What the outcome of the young man's visit was the writer doesn't say, but if he had come to Salt Lake and interviewed the commandant of the Trip of the Salt Lake Tribune, the girl would not have been so well returned the return of her wandering lover going for her hand in marriage.
