THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - - - - June 26, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

HOME AGAIN. — President Young and company started from Ogden about four this morning, breakfasted at Kaysville, and reached this city shortly before noon.

THEATRICAL.—Last night, at the Theatre, on the occasion of M. Hartz' benefit, that gentleman gave another exhibition of his surprising feats of legerdemain, which was greeted with every manifestation of satisfaction and pleasure by the audience.

His experiments in psychology were far more amusing than on the previous evening, and created an immense amount of laughter and fun. The following was the experiment of the evening: Having properly "impressed" one of the gentlemen who had volunteered to be experimented upon, he asked him if he would do anything he was requested to do. An emphatic "yes" was the immediate reply. M. Hartz then requested him to go to the nearest store and bring him the first thing he could lay his hands upon. Away went the young gentleman, jumping off the stage, up the parquette and out at the door, at positive break-neck speed, and in a few seconds returned bearing a small weighing apparatus, purloined from a neighboring store, which he delivered to the operator. This set the house in a positive roar, and the shame-faced bewilderment of the involuntary thief, when made conscious before the audience of the theft he had just committed, was positively indescribable.

The pleasure of the performance last evening was augmented by the sweet strains from Croxall's band, which played several choice morceaux in a manner which spoke highly for the efficiency of the members.

To-night M. Hartz will make, positively, his last appearance in Salt Lake City; the performance will conclude with experiments in psychology.

On Monday evening the legitimate drama will again resume its sway on the boards of the Salt Lake Theatre, on which occasion Shakespere's masterpiece "Hamlet" will be presented, the celebrated tragedian, Mr. Chaplin, making his first appearance here, in the title-role. Miss Lockhart will appear as the Queen, and Miss Annie Ward as Ophelia. They will be sppported by the full strength of the Company.

SAFELY ARRIVED.—The first fruits of this year's inamigration from Europe reached Ogden last evening at five o'clock. They left Liverpool on the steamship Minnesota on the 2nd instant, under the charge of Elder Elias Morris, late president of the Welsh district, the greater part of the company being from the Welsh Principality. A little more than three weeks has brought them the whole distance of the weary way that once took the best part of the year to travel. This being the first company which has come all the way across the continent from the Atlantic to Utah on the Great Highway, their journey will long be remembered as inaugurating an epoch in our history. Early this morning the greater portion of the immigrants had found homes, numbers leaving to settle in the northern counties of the Territory.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS FROM CHICAGO.—The following ladies and gentlemen reached our city last evening, and are at present staying at the Townsend House: Hon. W. B. Ogden, late President of the Chicago and North Western Railroad, Hon. T. O. Howe and wife, United States Senator for Wisconsin, Miss Wheeler, Miss Butler, John I. Blair and son; J. B. Turner, Director of Chicago and North Western Railroad, and wife, Horace White, Editor of the Chicago Tribune, and wife, Miss Elizabeth Whitney, Wirt Dexter and wife, D. A. Gage proprietor of the Sherman House, and wife, Miss Wetherbe, Mrs. B. F. Clark, Miss Nicoll, John D. Caton, Dr. Jones, U. S. Navy, P. H. Smith, Jr., S. F. Gale, C. H. White, Superintendent Chicago and North Western Railroad, H. B. White and P. H. Smith, late director of Chicago and North Western Railroad, and wife.

The party left Chicago on the 22nd inst. and will probably stay in this city until Monday morning, when they will proceed to San Francisco.

A CARD.—To the missionaries called to settle on the Muddy who are now in this city and adjacent settlements:

Brethren.—We have organized a Co-operative Mercantile Association for the settlements on the Muddy and have commenced business. Our shares of stock are $25 and we solicit subscriptions of all the brethren belonging to that mission. Money can be paid direct to me, or to Wm. Clayton, Esq., Secretary Zion's Co-operative Institution, office at Eagle Emporium, taking his receipt for the same, and on presentation of such receipts to the Secretary at St. Joseph you will get your certificates of stock.

Jos. W. Young,
President Zion's Co-operative M. Association for the settlements on the Muddy.

POLICE.—Messrs. Ornstein and Popper, for fouling the water ditch at Butcherville, were find $10. This is their second conviction within a few days.

AN OMISSION.—In the advertisement in our yesterday's issue, calling a meeting of the carpenters and joiners, the hour for meeting was not mentioned. The meeting will take place at 7 p.m.

MR. W. E. MCMASTER.—This gentleman, who is travelling correspondent for the New York World, called in to-day. He is an artist by profession, and is taking sketches of all notable points on the mountains, rivers and lakes, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, intending them as illustrations for a work on the Great West, which he will prepare for the press during the coming winter.

COURTESY.—We are indebted to the courtesy of Judge Caton, of Illinois, now in the city, for some items which appear in to-day's dispatches, he having received them ahead of the regular report, and kindly placed them at our disposal.

GRAND EQUESTRIAN PROCESSION ON MONDAY.—On Monday afternoon Dan Castello's equestrian troupe will make its first appearance in this city, and on Monday morning at ten o'clock the entire company will make a grand parade through the principal streets of this city. The following will be the order of the procession:

1st. The Golden Chariot of Theodore of Abyssinia.
2d. The performing Elephant "Jenny Lind."
3d. Four ladies dressed in full costume, accompanied by six Knights clad in steel armor.
4th. Eight Hussars.
5th. Four Grecian Knights in armor.
6th. Camel led by two natives of Africa, in full costume.
7th. Shetland Ponies, Comic Mules, Arabian horses, and the cages and dens containing wild beasts, &c.

The route of the procession will be as follows: Leaving the Pavillion on Emigration Square the company will proceed westward to East Temple Street, thence north to First South Street, thence east four blocks, thence one block north to South Temple Street, thence west to President Young's residence, in front of which the procession will draw up in line and halt for a short time; thence to the DESERET NEWS Office where the procession will again make a short halt; thence down West Temple Street to the place of exhibition.
